UNIVERSITY SYSTEM LEADERSHIP

DR. MUN Y. CHOI

PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI
1st Year
Illinois, '87

Following a near year-long national search, the University of Missouri Board of Curators announced the appointment of Dr. Mun Y. Choi, 52, as the 24th president in the history of the University of Missouri System on November 2, 2016. The former provost and executive vice president of the University of Connecticut (UConn), Dr. Choi succeeded Interim President Michael Middleton on March 1, 2017.

Dr. Choi's 24-year career in higher education includes his previous position as provost and executive vice president at UConn, one of the nation's top 20 public universities in the latest U.S. News rankings. At UConn, he oversaw a budget of $700 million while working with 1,500 full-time faculty, 31,000 students and 2,000 staff across 12 schools and colleges including Schools of Medicine, Dental Medicine and Law. Under his leadership, UConn developed several innovative new programs that have resulted in enrollment growth, increased faculty hiring, innovative research and new and expanded industry partnerships.

Born in South Korea, Dr. Choi came to the U.S. as a child. As a young man, he worked in his family's successful business in Chicago, and later graduated from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign with a bachelor's degree in general engineering in 1987. He later earned a master's degree and doctorate in mechanical and aerospace engineering from Princeton University.

Prior to serving as provost and executive vice president, Dr. Choi was dean of engineering at UConn from 2008 to 2012. Earlier, he was department head of mechanical engineering and mechanics at Drexel University (2000-2008) and assistant and associate professor at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

"Becoming president of the University of Missouri System is unquestionably the pinnacle of my professional career," said Dr. Choi. "As a product of and passionate champion for public higher education, I will advocate tirelessly on behalf of our exceptional institutions with state and national business, political and civic leaders to achieve excellence in all that we do, and make sure our great campuses realize their full potential."

DR. ALEXANDER N. CARTWRIGHT

CHANCELLOR, UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

1st Year

IOWA, '89

Dr. Alexander N. Cartwright has served as Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor of the State University of New York (SUNY) since September 2014. As Provost, Dr. Cartwright supports the Chancellor and Board of Trustees in carrying out their oversight responsibilities of the 64-campus system. He drives academic policy and oversees a broad portfolio including: access and inclusion; academic program planning and assessment; enrollment management; student success; global affairs; information technology; and, SUNY's broad research enterprise.

Dr. Cartwright has refocused SUNY's academic agenda around the overarching areas of: student success and completion; diversity, equity and inclusion; and, through research growth in emerging areas, increasing SUNY's impact on state and global challenges.

Dr. Cartwright introduced and saw adopted a sweeping diversity, equity and inclusion policy which applies to all campuses and SUNY's System Administration. A native of the Bahamas, Dr. Cartwright believes in inclusive excellence wherein an institution cannot achieve excellence if it is not inclusive. He developed a comprehensive completion model to meet SUNY's ambitious goal of ensuring that more New Yorkers earn the credentials they need to succeed. He launched a system-wide Educational Effectiveness and Strategic Enrollment process designed to support each campus in meeting improvement goals. He established and oversees the Applied Learning Steering Committee to ensure faculty oversight of SUNY's goal of a rigorous, meaningful, applied learning experience for every student.

During his tenure as Provost, Dr. Cartwright also served as Acting President of the Research Foundation for SUNY from January 2015 – June 2016, overseeing the Foundation's management of over $1 billion dollars in annual sponsored research activity and recommitting the organization to focus on creation of a culture of compliance, transparent administration of sponsored research; and supporting campus efforts to commercialize intellectual property created on campuses. At the same time, he established the position of Vice Chancellor for Research and Economic Development to support research efforts of SUNY faculty, grow business and industry partnerships, and foster both undergraduate and graduate research opportunities for SUNY students. Dr. Cartwright also served as Officer-in-Charge of two SUNY campuses undergoing leadership transition, SUNY's Downstate Medical Center and SUNY Polytechnic Institute. In each case he worked with campus faculty governance, faculty at large, students, staff and administrators to meet time-sensitive needs and to identify, and see through to appointment, interim leadership.

Dr. Cartwright represents SUNY in Congressional, Federal Agency, White House, and State Legislative audiences to share SUNY's input on key academic and research issues.

Dr. Cartwright came to the role of Provost already a member of the SUNY community. He joined the University at Buffalo, State University of New York (UB) in 1995 serving on the faculty and holding increasingly senior administrative positions at the AAU research university. His immediate past position was that of Vice President for Research and Economic Development and Acting Executive Director of the New York State Center of Excellence in Bioinformatics and Life Sciences. In these roles, he was responsible for campus/industry relations, research funding and compliance, research communications and research support for UB and the Center.

An internationally recognized researcher and scholar in the area of optical sensors, Dr. Cartwright previously served as the Chair of both the Electrical Engineering and Biomedical Engineering Departments at UB. Before beginning these concurrent chairmanships, Dr. Cartwright led UB's efforts to synergize research across disciplines as the Vice Provost for Strategic Initiatives. In this position he oversaw infrastructure and scholarship in eight areas of strategic strength that spanned departments from Visual Studies to Medicine. He has served as a professor in Electrical Engineering and Biomedical Engineering and an adjunct full professor in Physics at UB. In the first years of his professorship, Dr. Cartwright received both the National Science Foundation CAREER Award and the Office of Naval Research Young Investigator Award. He earned the SUNY Chancellor's award for Excellence in Teaching in 2002. Dr. Cartwright retains his rank as full professor while serving as System Provost, he continues to run the Laboratory for Applied Spectroscopic Evaluation (LASE), oversee doctoral students and one post-doc student, and remains active in research, receiving his latest NSF award in 2016.

Dr. Cartwright's research is generally in the area of optical materials and sensors. Currently, he is engaged in engineering optical "metamaterials," artificial materials that provide optical properties not readily available in nature. His technology for fabricating a rainbow-colored polymer using a one-step, low-cost holographic lithography method was one of just five inventions worldwide to be named to the Society of Manufacturing Engineers (SME)'s 2013 list of Innovations that Could Change the Way You Manufacture.

Dr. Cartwright is a prolific and highly influential scholar, producing more than 150 peer reviewed journal publications and conference proceedings. He has received considerable funding from numerous organizations including the National Institutes of Health, National Science Foundation, Air Force Office of Scientific Research, Department of Defense, and the Office of Naval Research, and various industrial sponsors. Dr. Cartwright holds four patents.

In November 2016, Dr. Cartwright was named a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS). Dr. Cartwright was recognized for, "outstanding research, teaching and mentorship in optics, for advancing science in New York, nationally, and internationally, and for strengthening diversity and inclusion in science." In February 2016, Dr. Cartwright was named to the Carnegie Math Pathways Advisory Board by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. In September of 2015, Dr. Cartwright was appointed by NYS Governor Andrew Cuomo to the Photonics Institute Board of Officers. In December of 2014, Dr. Cartwright earned appointment as a Fellow of the National Academy of Inventors. Dr. Cartwright is a Fellow of SPIE – The International Society for Optical Engineering; a senior member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE); a member of the American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE), Eta Kappa Nu, and the Materials Research Society (MRS).

Dr. Cartwright holds a Ph.D. in Electrical and Computer Engineering from the University of Iowa. He and his wife Melinda have two children, both now in college, Andrew and Alyssa.

JIM STERK

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
2nd Year
Western Washington, '80

Jim Sterk was named Mizzou's 20th Director of Athletics on August, 9, 2016, following highly successful tenures leading intercollegiate athletics programs at San Diego State, Washington State and Portland State.

In his first year in Columbia, Mizzou Athletics continued to achieve academically, athletically and administratively.

Academically, 269 Mizzou student-athletes received 2016-17 SEC Honor Roll recognition, 303 garnered University Dean's List status for at least one semester, 14 teams registered a 3.00 grade-point average for the Spring 2017 semester and four teams recorded perfect NCAA Academic Progress Rate marks of 1,000—women's golf, women's tennis, soccer and volleyball. Tiger student-athletes also spent over 4,800 hours volunteering with more than 50 organizations in Columbia and the surrounding communities.

Fueled by Top 16 NCAA Championship finishes in wrestling (5th), women's indoor track & field (8th), men's swimming & diving (9th), women's swimming & diving (13th), women's cross country (16th) and volleyball (Sweet 16), Mizzou Athletics ranked a program-best 33rd in the 2016-17 Learfield Directors' Cup standings with a school-record 662.75 points. The Tigers, who have produced four Top 40 Directors' Cup finishes in the award's 24-year history, had not finished better than 36th prior to 2016-17.

In 2016-17, 16 Mizzou teams were represented in NCAA postseason play, two teams won conference championships (volleyball and wrestling) and 10 squads ranked among the nation's Top 25 in their respective sports at season's end. Two other MU programs, baseball and softball, were also ranked at some point during their respective seasons to give the Tigers 12 Top 25 programs during 2016-17.

In addition, two Tigers combined to win four 2016-17 NCAA individual championships as senior wrestler J'den Cox won his third national title at 197 lbs., and junior Karissa Schweizer became just the fourth female in NCAA history to win the distance triple crown (cross country, indoor 5,000m and outdoor 5,000m national titles), and first since 2008.

Mizzou also produced 13 individual conference champions and had 31 student-athletes earn 69 All-America certificates in 11 different sports.

The generosity, loyalty and passion of more than 7,000 donors allowed the Tiger Scholarship Fund (TSF) to raise a school-record $50.4 million during the 2016-17 fiscal year, shattering the previous record by more than $4.7 million. TSF's record-breaking total, which included new pledges and cash gifts, was aided by a school-record 11 gifts of $1 million or more, and marked just the second time in school history that the TSF surpassed the $40 million threshold in philanthropic support and just the fifth time it topped the $30 million plateau.

Working with the Missouri Board of Curators, Sterk secured approval for Kansas City-based Populous to design the Memorial Stadium South End Zone facility which is scheduled to come on-line in 2019. This game-changing project for Tiger football will include coaches offices, a locker room, training room, weight room and team meeting rooms as well as new premium seating opportunities for Mizzou fans.

Sterk joined the Mizzou family from San Diego State, where he enjoyed a six-year tenure that was highlighted by the most successful five seasons in Aztecs history with 32 conference championships from 2011-12 thru 2015-16, including a Mountain West-leading 28 titles in that stretch, and the nation's fourth-highest combined winning percentage in football and men's basketball. In addition, SDSU was one of only four schools nationally to have appeared in six consecutive NCAA tournaments and have its football team play in five straight bowl games over that span.

"Jim elevated SDSU to a respectable level both athletically and academically," said Marshall Faulk, a member of the Pro-Football Hall of Fame and former St. Louis Ram and SDSU Aztec. "His leadership was instrumental in the rise of SDSU success. How we cared for our student-athletes was his No. 1 concern. While I'm sad to see him go, I am equally happy for Jim and his family, and I told him he is going to love the people of Missouri. Mizzou, you hired a man with impeccable integrity."

SDSU set a school-record with 13 programs setting multi-year highs in the 2016 Academic Progress Report released by the NCAA with 313 student-athletes honored for their academic achievements. The athletic department also enjoyed a record fundraising year for scholarships and a new basketball facility.

For his efforts, Sterk was named the 2015-2016 Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, which highlights the efforts of athletic directors for their commitment and positive contributions to student-athletes, campuses and their surrounding communities. Sterk was also appointed to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee as the Mountain West Conference's representative.

Sterk went to SDSU from Washington State University, where he served as athletic director from 2000-10. Prior to his hiring at WSU, he was the AD at Portland State University from 1995 to 2000.

Sterk enjoys a solid reputation and the respect of his peers across the country. The NCAA recognized him and WSU in 2006 as the Division IA Athletic Directors' "Program of Excellence." He oversaw a period of unparalleled success at Washington State with historic accomplishments both on and off the field during his tenure in Pullman.

In his last three years at WSU, 13 Cougar teams competed in NCAA postseason tournaments, including back-to-back trips by the men's basketball team (2007 and 2008), while women's rowing earned five NCAA championship bids, including a fourth-place finish in 2006, the highest finish ever by a WSU women's team in NCAA competition.

Sterk graduated from Western Washington University in 1980, where he earned four letters in football and one in basketball. He was credited with a school-record 164 tackles during the 1977 season, garnering first-team NAIA District I all-star accolades. He was named team captain and MVP, helping the Vikings to the district championship game. On Feb. 6, 2010, Sterk was inducted into Western Washington's Athletics Hall of Fame for his gridiron success.

He received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. In addition to SDSU, Washington State and Portland State, his professional career has also included administrative positions at North Carolina, Maine, Seattle Pacific and Tulane.

Sterk and his wife Debi have three daughters: Ashley, Amy and Abby.

Offensive Lineman
Sr. • 6-3 • 305
St. Louis, Mo.
University HS

- 2014 SEC Academic Honor Roll
- 2015 SEC Academic Honor Roll

2017 OUTLOOK

Veteran lineman who can contribute at any of the three interior spots, where he has nine career starts to his credit ... Likely to enter fall camp battling for position on the depth chart at left guard.

2016 SEASON

Saw action in 10 games, and made a career-high six starts ... Was part of an offensive line that was the nation's most improved group despite boasting just three career starts as a unit heading into the season … The group finished first nationally in tackles for loss allowed (2.92), the lowest in the nation for any team since at least 2005, a remarkable note considering Mizzou ranked 15th nationally in plays … Offensive line group also led the SEC in sacks allowed (16th nationally) and paved the way for a Mizzou offense that led the SEC and ranked 15th nationally (500.5 yards per game and 205.1 on the ground).

2015 SEASON

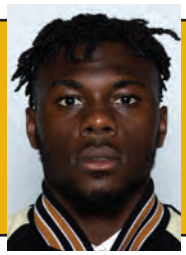
Started first game as a Tiger against SEMO (9/5) … Played 10 games in the 2015 season, starting three of them at left guard … Entered fall camp at No. 2 at the center position but moved to the starter at left guard for the first part of the season.

PREVIOUS SEASONS/HIGH SCHOOL

Please visit www.mutigers.com.

PERSONAL

Parents - Douglas and Julie Abeln ... Academic all-state pick in his final high school season ... Also participated in wrestling and volleyball as a senior ... Mother, Julie, was Truman the Tiger while a student at Mizzou ... Wanted to attend Mizzou since childhood.



17 • DEMARKUS ACY

Defensive Back
So. • 6-2 • 195
Dallas, Texas
Wilmer-Hutchins HS

2017 OUTLOOK

Up-and-comer defensive back who will be competing for a starting job at one CB spot after a strong spring that had him running with the #1 defense quite extensively ... Made one start last season as a true freshman ... Has the size, length, speed and athleticism to give opposing wideouts problems.

2016 SEASON

Impressed the coaching staff enough to make an impact as a true freshman and totaled six tackles in 11 games (one start) seeing most of his action on special teams ... Recorded the first two pass breakups of his career in Mizzou's win over Eastern Michigan (9/10) ... Tallied his first career tackle against Delaware State (9/24) … Made his first career start at LSU (10/1), posting three tackles (two solo) ... Recorded one tackle against Middle Tennessee (10/22) … Recorded a solo tackle against Vanderbilt (11/12).

Primary recruiter: Brick Haley … Chose Mizzou over Alabama, Florida, Nebraska, Arkansas, Arizona State, Kentucky, Louisville, Kansas State and Arizona, among others.

BARRY ODOM

HEAD COACH
2nd Season
Maysville, Okla.
Missouri, '99

A longtime fixture at Mizzou, Barry Odom, 40, is in his second year guiding a program he has been immersed in at every level for some 15 years – including six in an administrative capacity (2003-08), four as a coach (2009-11, 2015) and four as a highly-successful student-athlete (1996-99). The 2016 season was his first as Mizzou's head coach, and came after he had spent the previous four seasons as a defensive coordinator, including three at Memphis (2012-14) and one at Missouri (2015), where his units were considered among the nation's best.

Highly-respected among his coaching peers for his integrity and for his championship vision, Odom has his Tigers pointed in the right direction after a rebuilding year in 2016 that saw Mizzou win four games. The Tigers closed the season out in strong fashion, with wins in two of their final three games - with both coming against bowl teams in Arkansas and Vanderbilt. Those victories sent Mizzou into the off-season with a lot of momentum that Odom expects to capitalize on in his second year in command.

Odom was named the 32nd head football coach in program history in December of 2015, and his undeniable passion for Mizzou, coupled with his strong track record of success at each level of his career, pointed to him being the right man to lead the Tigers into the future in the nation's toughest conference.

In 2015, Odom turned in an outstanding season as first-year defensive coordinator for Mizzou under coach Gary Pinkel (who retired after that season), as his Tigers ranked ninth nationally in total defense, allowing just 302.0 yards per game. Since the NCAA began tracking defensive statistics in 1978, that marked the first time in MU history that Mizzou had produced a top-10 defense. Odom's defense was also ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2 avg.), seventh in pass defense (169.2 avg.) and second in tackles for loss (8.8 avg.).

Prior to that, Odom became one of the more highly sought-after coordinators in the country due to three stellar years directing Memphis' defense from 2012-14. His 2014 defense was a key component of Memphis' 10-3 season, as his unit finished the regular season ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 avg.) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 avg.). That marked an impressive incremental improvement under Odom's watch, as Memphis ranked 117th nationally in total defense the season prior to his arrival. In his first season at Memphis, the defense improved to 50th nationally (383.6 avg.), followed by a jump to 39th in 2013 (370.7 avg.). Memphis earned a share of the 2014 American Athletic Conference title, giving them a conference championship for the first time since 1971.

"I'm tremendously honored to have this opportunity," said Odom. "It's something I've thought about for a long time as I've made my various stops leading up to this point. I understand the responsibility we have to not only carry on the tradition of excellence that Gary Pinkel has built here, but also to help this program reach new heights. Mizzou means the world to me and to my family, and we couldn't be more proud and excited to be in this position."

Odom, a Maysville, Okla., native played at Mizzou under former Coach Larry Smith, and starred as a linebacker from 1996-99. He ended his playing career with 362 tackles, which still ranks as seventh-most in school history. Odom was a captain for his senior year of 1999, and was a key figure on the Missouri teams which reached bowl games in 1997 and 1998, ending a 14-year postseason drought for Tiger fans.

Success followed Odom's career path at each future stop after his playing days. After earning his undergraduate degree in December of 1999, he served as an intern with Mizzou's Tiger Scholarship Fund while he worked on his Master's in Education from the University of Missouri (which he would earn in May of 2004). He returned to his home state of Oklahoma in July of that year to serve as an assistant football coach for his alma mater Ada High School, which finished that season as runners-up for a state title.

Odom was quickly back in his adopted hometown of Columbia, Mo., the next spring, as he took over as head coach at Rock Bridge High School. He quickly built the Bruins into a power, as they went 6-4 in 2001, and won a conference championship. He followed with an 8-4 campaign in 2002 that saw Rock Bridge reach the semifinals of the state championship playoffs.

Running a college program became a focal point next, and Odom began that path by joining the Mizzou football staff, first as an administrative graduate assistant for Pinkel in 2003. He spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons as Pinkel's director of recruiting as the staff assembled a core group which would help lead Mizzou to consecutive Big 12 Conference North Division titles in 2007 and 2008 which consisted of 12-win and 10-win seasons, respectively.

From 2006-08, Odom helped run Pinkel's program administratively as his director of operations. In that role, Odom oversaw coordination of the team's budget, travel plans (including bowl trips to the Sun, Cotton and Alamo bowls during that stretch), compliance issues, facilities operations and scheduling, as well as assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day overall operations of the program.

As director of football operations, he coordinated all public relations activities and community service events that required the presence of Mizzou's football student-athletes, and also played a key role as part of the design and planning team that oversaw the expansion and renovation of the Mizzou Athletics Training Complex, which opened in February of 2008.

Born Nov. 26, 1976, in Lawton, Okla., Odom and his wife Tritia (Tia) were married in July of 2000. Tia is a native of Kahoka, Mo., and is a graduate of MU's College of Human Environmental Sciences. The couple has three children – sons James Trump and Garyt Robert, and daughter Anna Lockwood.

ANDY HILL

ASSOC. HEAD COACH/WIDE RECEIVERS
22nd Season
Trenton, Mo.
Missouri, '85

Andy Hill has coached 21 seasons at the University of Missouri, making him the longest-tenured coach on the Tiger football staff. In fact, only one other assistant coach in MU football history ever enjoyed a longer tenure at Mizzou: Clay Cooper (29 seasons). Hill's 21st season on the MU sideline in 2016 tied him for second place on the longevity list with Chauncey Simpson.

In 2016, Hill transitioned back to coaching the wide receivers, a role that gained him well-deserved recognition from 1996-2012, coaching some of the best players in Mizzou history. He spent 2013-15 coaching Mizzou's quarterbacks, including mentoring freshman starter Drew Lock in 2015.

His return to coaching the wideouts was a rousing success, as his stable of play-makers were a key reason why Mizzou's offense was one of the nation's most improved in 2016. He oversaw the growth of junior J'Mon Moore into one of the top wideouts in the SEC, as Moore led the league with 1,012 receiving yards, turning in the eighth 1,000-yard receiving season in MU history. Hill has now coached seven of those eight 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Hill also mentored freshmen Dimetrios Mason and Johnathon Johnson, helping them develop into two of the SEC's top rookie wideouts. Mason caught 47 passes for 587 yards and three touchdowns, while Johnson added 24 catches for 435 yards and a pair of scores. Both newcomers were named to the All-SEC Freshman Team by league SEC coaches.

Regarded as one of the top recruiters in the country, Hill also has a long-standing track record of coaching success at Mizzou, as he helped develop three 1st-Team All-Americans in a span from 2007-2010 -- WR Jeremy Maclin, WR Danario Alexander and TE Michael Egnew.

Hill has coached several of the most prolific pass catchers in the nation, as well as in Mizzou history. In 2010, junior TE Michael Egnew emerged as the nation's most productive receiving tight end, as he won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors, and was a Mackey Award finalist, for a year that saw him catch 90 passes for 762 yards and five touchdowns. That was an astounding progression for Egnew, who caught a combined seven passes in his first two years as a Tiger. Another great story in 2010 was the development of sophomore WR T.J. Moe into one of the nation's most prolific receivers as well. Moe burst onto the scene by catching 92 passes for 1,045 yards and six touchdowns, a year after he caught two passes as a true freshman in 2009. Moe's play won him 2nd-Team All-Big 12 honors.

Danario Alexander's 2009 season saw him lead the NCAA in receiving (137.0 yards per game), as he shattered school records for receptions (113), receiving yards (1,781) and receiving touchdowns (14). Alexander twice won Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week honors during his incredible 2009 season – making him the first receiver in the talent-rich tradition of the Big 12 Conference to win the honor twice in the same season. Alexander won 1st-Team All-American honors for his efforts in 2009, and he ended his career holding the MU career record for receiving yards (2,778).

The 2008 season saw Hill work to develop sophomore Jeremy Maclin into arguably the most dynamic player in the nation. Maclin set an MU single-season record with 102 catches, 1,260 yards and 13 touchdowns receiving, and he also led the NCAA in all-purpose yardage, with his per-game average of 202.4 yards. The game-changer won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors for his play, as well as being named a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, given annually to the nation's top receiver. Maclin chose to bypass his final two years of eligibility at Mizzou, and was taken with the 19th overall selection in the 2009 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Hill's group produced in record numbers during the Tigers' 10-4 season in 2008. As a team, Mizzou's passing attack shattered school records for receptions (404), receiving yards (4,625) and receiving touchdowns (41). Mizzou's passing attack ranked 4th in the NCAA in 2008, with a per-game average of 330.36 yards.

Thanks in no small part to Hill's work with the receivers, Mizzou's offense set myriad records in 2007, as the passing attack ranked 9th in the NCAA, averaging 314.07 yards per game. Two of his pupils, senior Will Franklin and freshman Jeremy Maclin, earned all-league honors for their outstanding play in 2007, including Maclin, who was a consensus 1st-Team All-American for his exploits as both a receiver and return man, in addition to being named 1st-Team All-Big 12 and Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year.

Under Hill's tutelage in 2006, the Tiger receiving corps was instrumental in helping Mizzou develop into a passing attack that ranked 10th in the country, averaging 276.15 yards per game. Four Tiger wideouts had 25 or more catches, including Franklin (48), Perry (37), Brad Ekwerekwu (32) and Tommy Saunders (25).

Hill helped develop Justin Gage into one of the top receivers in the Big 12 Conference and one of the premier wide outs in the country. After converting from quarterback in the spring of 2000, Gage caught 200 passes for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns in three seasons – all MU career receiving records. Gage left after 2002 holding virtually every game, season and career receiving mark on the Mizzou books, and made an impact professionally, where he was the Tennessee Titans' leading receiver in 2007 and 2008.

Hill is a Mizzou grad who walked on the Tiger football team in 1980 and eventually earned a scholarship. He lettered in 1980, '81, '83 and '84 and played on Missouri teams that earned trips to the Liberty, Tangerine and Holiday Bowls. In his career, Hill caught 51 passes for 946 yards and scored seven touchdowns. As a senior, he caught 25 passes for 445 yards and three scores. Following his playing days at Missouri, he spent time in the training camps of the Kansas City Chiefs and Calgary Stampeders in 1985 and '86.

Andy and his wife, Sarah, are the parents of a daughter, Patricia Ryan, and son Andrew. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from MU in 1985.

CORNELL FORD

ASST. HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS
17th Season
Gary, Ind.
Toledo, '91

Cornell Ford is in his 17th season at Mizzou and in his second with the title of assistant head coach and Tiger running backs coach. The 2016 season saw Ford switch to the offensive staff, and his first season mentoring the backfield couldn't have gone better, as his backs were a key reason why Mizzou's offense was one of the nation's most improved units.

True freshman Damarea Crockett burst onto the scene and broke Mizzou freshman records for rushing yards in a season (1,062), and in a game (225 vs. Tennessee) while also setting MU frosh records for season touchdowns (10) and single-game touchdowns (4). Crockett's 96.5 yards-per-game average led the nation's freshmen in the regular season. He was joined by junior Ish Witter, who continued his steady improvement by rushing for a solid 750 yards and six touchdowns, while sophomore Nate Strong came on late in the year and contributed with a pair of crucial rushing touchdowns that keyed Mizzou's big comeback win over Arkansas to close out the season.

Before working with the running backs, Ford spent 12 years coaching the Tiger cornerbacks, after he focused on MU's outside safeties his first three years.

Mizzou's defense was a key to its 2014 SEC Eastern Division title run, and the pass defense supplied by Ford's secondary played a big role. His corners contributed to a defense which ranked 2nd in the SEC in pass defense (185.8 yds/game) in league games.

Mizzou's secondary was one of the most impactful in the nation in 2013, as the Tigers led the SEC and ranked 5th nationally with 20 interceptions. Ford's corners tallied nine of those picks, including five by senior E.J. Gaines, who won 1st-Team All-SEC honors.

Gaines became the highest drafted Mizzou cornerback since 1983 when he was selected in the sixth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams.

In 2011, Ford oversaw the development of Gaines into one of the nation's top young cover men. Gaines set a Mizzou record with 16 pass break ups in his first year as a starter, and tied for 5th nationally with 18 passes defended overall (including 2 interceptions). Gaines had a solid junior season in 2012, when he made 74 tackles, and led the Tigers with 11 pass breakups.

Both of Ford's starting cornerbacks earned All-Big 12 status for three straight seasons (2008-10), including Carl Gettis and Kevin Rutland both in 2009 and 2010. The Tiger pass defense was a large reason for Mizzou's much-improved play in 2010, as MU led the Big 12 and ranked 6th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 16.08 points per game. The Tigers also ranked 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense, with an opponent passer rating of 108.45.

Rutland's development earned him an invitation to the 2011 NFL Combine, and while he went undrafted, he was signed immediately by Jacksonville, and in the 2011 season made his first career NFL start for the Jaguars.

Both of Ford's starting cornerbacks earned All-Big 12 mention in 2008, with senior Castine Bridges and sophomore Carl Gettis winning honorable mention all-league acclaim for their play on the Tigers' 10-4 squad.

Mizzou's cornerbacks turned in a solid 2007 season overall, and were a definite reason that the Tiger defense was one of the best in the Big 12 Conference. True freshman Carl Gettis blossomed under Ford's coaching, as he became a starter early in the year and eventually won 2nd-Team Freshman All-American honors for his play. Senior Darnell Terrell was invited to the NFL Combine in the off-season, and later signed a free-agent contract with the Cleveland Browns.

The Tiger secondary was instrumental in MU's defensive improvement in 2006, and Ford's cornerbacks were a big reason why. Led by junior Darnell Terrell, who earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from league coaches, the Tigers ranked 2nd in the Big 12 Conference, and 37th nationally, in pass defense, permitting 185.69 yards per game on average.

After losing his top performer from 2004 in Shirdonya Mitchell, Ford helped develop his cornerback unit into one that was dependable and steady in 2005. Mizzou ended the 2005 regular season ranking 4th in the Big 12 in pass defense, allowing an average of 212.55 yards per game.

Senior Marcus King blossomed into a big-play performer for the Tiger secondary in 2005, as he led the team with a career-high 13 passes broken up – including a record-breaking 99-yard interception return for a TD in the Independence Bowl win. King earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors by both league coaches and media for his efforts, and he teamed with fellow senior A.J. Kincade to give the Tigers a dependable tandem. King later went on to earn a free agent contract with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys following the 2006 NFL Draft, and another Ford protégé, Calvin Washington, was invited to the rookie minicamp with Washington following the draft as well.

Just about every one of Ford's cornerbacks had career years under his coaching in 2004, and that performance was instrumental in Mizzou's substantial improvement in defense. Thanks in large part to his cornerbacks, Mizzou led the Big 12 Conference, and ranked 3rd nationally in pass defense in 2004, allowing an average of just 149.27 yards per game.

Senior Shirdonya Mitchell blossomed into a high-level cornerback in 2004 under Ford's direction, as he ranked 5th in the Big 12 Conference, and 33rd nationally, with his 4 interceptions. Mitchell earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors for his play, in only his second year playing defense, and signed a two-year free agent deal with the Miami Dolphins following the 2005 NFL Draft.

In addition to his coaching duties, Ford has worked hard to earn a reputation as one of the most well-trusted recruiting presences in his area of St. Louis. His hard work and straightforward approach has paid off over the years, as he has successfully attracted stars such as Will Franklin, Jeremy Maclin and 2008 signees Blaine Gabbert and Wes Kemp to Mizzou. In 2009, he landed Gateway Tech superstar Sheldon Richardson, who was one of the nation's top overall prospects.

Ford holds a bachelor's degree (1991) in physical education and a master's degree (1993) in sports administration from Toledo. He and his wife, Dawn, are the parents of a son, Devin, and a daughter, Taylor.

DEMONTIE CROSS

DEF. COORD./INSIDE LINEBACKERS
2nd Season
St. Louis, Mo.
Missouri, '97

Barry Odom added Mizzou alum and successful veteran coach DeMontie Cross to his staff as one of his first administrative moves once taking over the program. Cross serves as Mizzou's defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach. He oversaw the entire linebacking group in 2016, but will focus on the inside backers in 2017.

His linebackers had a challenging season in 2016, as a young and inexperienced group fought through injuries and inconsistent play. Midway through the season, the Tigers lost senior captain and three-year starter at MLB Michael Scherer, to a season-ending injury. That loss impacted the Tigers the rest of the season, but Cross and his troops rallied to finish the year strong, playing their best ball late as Mizzou won two of its final three games against bowl teams Vanderbilt and Arkansas. Following the 2017 NFL Draft, senior LB Donavin Newsom signed a free agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers.

Cross came home to Mizzou after spending the previous 18 seasons with numerous programs, including 12 years with Power 5 programs and five more in the National Football League. In all, he has been part of eight bowl teams and three conference championship teams since beginning his coaching days as a graduate assistant/outside linebackers coach at Mizzou for Larry Smith (1998-99).

Cross spent the 2013-15 seasons at TCU as linebackers coach, and in 2015 he added the duties of co-defensive coordinator.

TCU opened the 2015 campaign as the only school in the nation without a linebacker who had ever made a collegiate start. When the regular season ended, Cross had coached up converted safety Travin Howard to All-Big 12 recognition, while former high school quarterback Ty Summers was named the Walter Camp National Defensive Player of the Week after his 23 tackles in a win over Baylor. Summers also received honorable-mention Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades, as the Horned Frogs' defensive unit led the Big 12 and ranked 7th nationally in third-down defense, allowing opponents a conversion rate of only 28.0% on the season.

In the 2014 season, Cross' pupil Paul Dawson won Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and consensus first-team All-America honors. Dawson was the only player in the nation with at least 100 tackles, six sacks and four interceptions. Dawson was a third-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals.

Prior to TCU, Cross spent one year each as linebackers coach at Kansas (2012) and as special teams coordinator/safeties coach at Wisconsin (2011), the latter which featured an 11-3 season and Big Ten Conference title and Rose Bowl appearance for the Badgers, who finished that season ranked 10th nationally in the final polls.

Odom and Cross were teammates for one year at Mizzou, when Cross was a senior free safety and Odom a true freshman linebacker in 1996.

"I'm so excited to have this opportunity to work with Coach Odom and contribute to a place that has given me so much," said Cross. "Mizzou is in my blood, it's the place that made me the man and the coach that I am today. It's also a dream come true for me to work alongside a guy I've known for so long. Coach Odom and I have had a strong bond on and off the field, and I'm excited to come in and support him and his vision in every aspect imaginable. I'm honored he's put his trust in me this way. Mizzou has already established a good reputation on defense, so all I'm looking to do is come in and put my own twist to it and try to make it even better. My players will know that a sense of urgency, attention to detail, and playing with enthusiasm and energy are the things that are most important to me. I think people enjoy watching a defense that plays that way," he said.

Cross spent five seasons (2006-10) in various positions with the NFL's Buffalo Bills. He joined the Bills as a defensive staff/special teams assistant in 2006 and was then promoted to assistant linebackers coach/special teams for three seasons, after which he was promoted again in 2010, taking over as the Bills' inside linebackers coach.

He made the jump to the NFL after spending the 2001-05 seasons as Iowa State's outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. Cross' unit was a major contributor to the Cyclones' record-setting defenses and four bowl game appearances during his stint. He helped develop Jeremy Loyd into an All-Big 12 performer and future St. Louis Ram.

Cross spent the 2000 season coaching a defensive backfield at Sam Houston State that ranked second nationally in the FCS. The Bearkats' pass defense was led by free safety Keith Davis, who was the Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Davis went on to play six seasons and start 31 games for the Dallas Cowboys.

A St. Louis, Mo. native and 1997 Missouri graduate with a degree in business management, Cross was a standout safety for the Tigers from 1994-96. Despite playing at MU for just three years, Cross ended his career holding the school record with 415 career tackles (he now stands second on the list) after leading MU in stops as a junior (145) and senior (132). He was a second-team all-conference selection in both the Big Eight (1995) and the Big 12 (1996) conferences.

Cross enjoyed a standout prep football career at Hazelwood East High School in St. Louis, and initially attended Illinois on a football scholarship before transferring to Mizzou. Cross is married to Jessica and he has three daughters: Jadyn, Sheridan and Olivia.

JOSH HEUPEL

OFF. COORD./QUARTERBACKS
2nd Season
Aberdeen, S.D.
Oklahoma, '01

The first hire made by Barry Odom after taking over as Mizzou's 32nd head coach was Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach Josh Heupel. The move paid immediate dividends for Odom's program, as Heupel transformed Mizzou's offense in short time into arguably the nation's most improved attack a year ago.

The improvement Mizzou saw on offense under Heupel's direction was eye-popping in 2016. Mizzou led the SEC and ranked 13th nationally in total offense last year (500.5 ypg), a year after Mizzou ranked 124th in 2015 (280.9 ypg). Other huge statistical spikes of improvement came in passing offense (20th nationally in 2016; Mizzou was 113th in 2015), rushing offense (38th in 2016; 119th in 2015) and scoring (48th in 2016; 126th in 2015).

Additionally, Heupel oversaw the continued development of sophomore QB Drew Lock into one of the SEC's top signal callers. In only his first full year as a starter, Lock took to Heupel's comprehensive coaching and blossomed into a 3,000-yard passer. Lock led the SEC with his 283.2 yards per game average, and finished with 3,399 yards and 23 touchdowns.

Heupel brought with him to Mizzou an impressive track record of success, including four national championship game appearances, seven BCS bowl games and coaching oversight of two Heisman Trophy winning quarterbacks. Including the 2016 at Mizzou, he has 14 years of coaching and recruiting experience at the highest level, including the last six seasons as offensive coordinator and play caller at Mizzou, Oklahoma and Utah State. Heupel finished his first season as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2015 with Utah State.

Heupel has been part of 13 bowl games and six conference championship teams since beginning his coaching career in 2003, including 11 seasons on staff at his alma mater Oklahoma (2003-04, 2006-14). During his coaching tenure at OU, the Sooners played in three national championship games (2003, 2004 and 2008 seasons), and Heupel helped mentor two Heisman Trophy winning quarterbacks in Jason White (2003) and Sam Bradford (2008), while a third, Landry Jones, won the Sammy Baugh Award in 2010 as the nation's top passer. Heupel's name also carries a lot of clout in recruiting circles due to his prowess as a quarterback during his playing days, when he led Oklahoma to the BCS National Championship in 2000, while finishing as the Heisman runner-up that season.

Utah State reached a bowl game in 2015 despite losing all-star quarterback Chuckie Keeton to a season-ending knee injury after just three games. Despite that loss, Heupel's Aggie offense improved to 60th nationally in scoring (29.7 ppg), up from 81st in 2014, prior to his arrival there.

In his final season at Oklahoma, the Sooner offense led the nation in fewest sacks allowed (0.69 pg), and led the Big 12 and ranked 10th nationally by averaging 261.2 rushing yards per game, which was the best output by OU since 1991. OU also ranked third in the Big 12 and 20th in the nation in scoring (36.4 ppg), and fifth in the Big 12 and 23rd nationally in total offense (464.7 ypg).

With Heupel calling the signals of a balanced Oklahoma offensive attack in 2013, the Sooners led the Big 12 by averaging 223.9 rushing yards and 423.0 yards of total offense. Despite three different quarterbacks seeing action over the course of the season, the Sooners registered an 11-2 campaign, culminating with a 45-31 win against Alabama in the Sugar Bowl.

In 2012, Oklahoma ranked fifth in the nation in passing (336.5 ypg) and 12th in total offense (497.9 ypg) as Jones became the Big 12's all-time leader in passing yards and total offense. Jones also finished his career third all-time in passing yards (16,646) and fifth all-time in touchdowns (123) in FBS history.

In 2011, Heupel's unit finished fourth nationally in both total offense (512.3 ypg) and passing offense (349.4 ypg). Jones ranked third in the nation in total offense that year after finishing second in the nation in passing yards in 2010 when he won the Sammy Baugh Award as the nation's top passer. Jones led all FBS freshmen with 26 touchdowns after Bradford was lost to injury in the 2009 season opener.

In 2008, Heupel tutored Bradford, who won the Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien and Sammy Baugh Awards, after throwing for 4,720 yards and 50 touchdowns with just eight interceptions and leading the nation in passing efficiency.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma as he helped the Sooners to the 2004 (Sugar Bowl) and 2005 (Orange Bowl) national championship games. A native of Aberdeen, S.D., Heupel began his collegiate playing career at Weber State where he played in four games as a redshirt freshman in 1997. He then spent his sophomore season at Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he earned All-American honors as he passed for 2,308 yards and 28 touchdowns.

Heupel then transferred to Oklahoma for his final two seasons, and he was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy as a senior in 2000 while leading the Sooners to an undefeated regular season and a national championship victory against Florida State in the 2001 Orange Bowl. As a senior, Heupel was named the Associated Press Player of the Year, the Walter Camp Award winner, the Archie Griffin Award winner and a consensus All-American. Overall, Heupel was OU's first consensus All-America quarterback and first Oklahoma quarterback since 1971 to earn All-America honors.

During his two years at Oklahoma, Heupel posted a 20-5 record as the starting quarterback as he passed for 7,456 yards with 53 touchdowns. Overall, Heupel still ranks among the top three quarterbacks all-time in school history in passing yards (7,456), completions (654) and touchdowns passes (53) despite playing just two seasons.

Following his collegiate career, Heupel was drafted in the sixth round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

Heupel earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Oklahoma in 2001. Heupel and his wife, Dawn, have one daughter, Hannah (8), and one son, Jace (6).

RYAN WALTERS

CO-DEF. COORD./SECONDARY
3rd Season
Los Angeles, Calif.
Colorado, '08

In his third year with the Mizzou coaching staff is Ryan Walters, who came to MU with Barry Odom in February of 2015 when Odom was announced as the defensive coordinator. When he was named Mizzou's head coach, Odom kept Walters on board to continue coaching the Tiger safeties. Thanks to his outstanding work on the field, as well as in recruiting circles, Odom named Walters Co-Defensive Coordinator prior to the 2016 season, and now in 2017, Walters will coach the entire secondary, as he brings the cornerbacks into his position room.

Walters was a key factor in Mizzou's 2015 defense that finished in the top 10 nationally in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense. He also developed senior Ian Simon and sophomore Anthony Sherrils into two of the top safeties in the SEC in 2015.

Walters came to Mizzou after spending the 2014 season as cornerbacks coach at Memphis, where he worked with Odom. At Memphis, the pair oversaw a defense that was among the most improved in the nation. Memphis went 10-3 in 2014, thanks in large part to its defense which ranked fifth nationally in points allowed (17.1 ppg) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 ypg) in the regular season.

Walters, a Los Angeles, Calif. native, played collegiately at Colorado, where he was a standout safety for the Buffaloes (2004-08). He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Colorado working with the secondary in 2009, and then spent two years on staff at Arizona, where he was a graduate assistant in 2010, before being promoted to defensive backs coach for the 2011 season.

From there, Walters moved to the Oklahoma staff as a graduate assistant cornerbacks coach in 2012, as the Sooners went 10-3 and played in the 2013 Cotton Bowl. He moved to North Texas for the 2013 season, where he coached corners and helped lead UNT to a 9-4 record in its first year in Conference USA and a win in the 2013 Heart of Dallas Bowl. The Mean Green defense that season ranked fourth in the nation in turnovers gained (34), eighth in points allowed (17.8 ppg), 13th in interceptions (18) and 17th in total defense (348.3 ypg).

"I'm really pleased that we are able to attract someone of Ryan's caliber to join our team," said Odom. "I've known him for a while now, and had the chance to work together last year and he made a big impression on me. He's a loyal and tireless worker who I see as a great technician and fundamentals coach. He was very sought after this past season, so we're excited to recruit him to Mizzou."

Odom first met Walters as part of a trip the Mizzou coaching staff took to Arizona to share best practices in 2010, and recruited Walters on the staff at Memphis when he had an opening for the 2014 season.

As a player, Walters had a standout career at Colorado as a safety. He started in 33 games and played in 46 contests for the Buffaloes. He earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from the Associated Press and first-team All-Colorado honors from the state's National Football Foundation his senior year.

A team captain for the Buffaloes in 2008, Walters was also picked by his teammates the team's MVP. He had 87 tackles, two sacks, seven pass deflections, three fumble recoveries and two interceptions his senior year. His 20 career passes defended rate No. 15 in Colorado history and his 223 career tackles were No. 45 all-time.

During his playing time, the Buffaloes played in the Houston Bowl, Champ Sports Bowl and Independence Bowl.

Walters earned his degree in history from Colorado in December, 2008 with dual majors in History and Ethnic Studies. Walters and his wife Tara have a son, Aaron.

GLEN ELARBEE

OFFENSIVE LINE
2nd Season
Carrollton, Ga.
Middle Tennessee, '03

In his second year with Barry Odom's program is Offensive Line Coach Glen Elarbee. In his first year with Mizzou, Elarbee proved that he is undoubtedly one of the nation's top line coaches, as he took the nation's youngest and most inexperienced group (with just three combined career returning games started from 2015) and molded them into one of the most improved lines around.

In 2016, the improvement Mizzou saw on offense with Elarbee's help was eye-popping. Mizzou led the SEC and ranked 13th nationally in total offense last year (500.5 ypg), a year after Mizzou ranked 124th in 2015 (280.9 ypg). Other huge statistical spikes of improvement came in passing offense (20th nationally in 2016; Mizzou was 113th in 2015), rushing offense (38th in 2016; 119th in 2015) and scoring (48th in 2016; 126th in 2015). His line finished first in the nation in tackles for loss allowed (2.92), the lowest in the nation for any team since at least 2005, a remarkable note considering Mizzou ranked 15th nationally in plays. Elarbee's offensive line group also led the SEC in fewest sacks allowed (16th nationally).

Prior to joining Mizzou, Elarbee coached successful offensive lines for the previous six seasons at several programs, including the last two while also serving as co-offensive coordinator at Arkansas State. In 2015, the Red Wolves went a perfect 8-0 in Sun Belt Conference play to win the league championship and earn a bid to the New Orleans Bowl, thanks largely to an offensive line which paved the way as ASU ranked 12th nationally in scoring offense (40.0 avg.) and 15th in the nation in rushing (231.3 ypg).

Two of his pupils at ASU earned first-team All-Sun Belt honors (T Jemar Clark and G Colton Jackson), while a third (C Robert Mondie) was a third-team all-league pick. In all, the Arkansas State offense averaged just under 440 yards per game of total offense this past season, which ranked 37th nationally. Details of Elarbee's contract will be released once fully executed, along with the completion of human resources procedures.

Odom faced off against Elarbee in the 2015 season, when Mizzou won at Arkansas State. The two also matched wits in 2012 and 2013 when Odom was at Memphis, and while Elarbee was at Middle Tennessee (2012) and Houston (2013).

Despite having to replace four starters in 2014, Elarbee's first season at A-State saw his offensive line pave the way for a school-record 6,194 yards of total offense, averaging 476 yards per game that ranked 20th in the nation. He quickly molded the group into a unit that produced record-breaking results as ASU established new school standards for points (477) and touchdowns (65). The Red Wolves' offense ranked among the top 25 teams in the nation in numerous statistical categories while working behind the line, including scoring offense (No. 18), total offense and rushing offense (No. 25).

Behind Elarbee's line, which included just two senior starters, A-State recorded at least 300 yards in every game, over 400 in nine contests and at least 500 in five outings. The Red Wolves exploded for a school and Sun Belt Conference record 764 yards total offense in their regular-season finale against New Mexico State, which was also the seventh most in the nation for a single game.

Prior to A-State, Elarbee most recently spent the 2013 season as the offensive line coach for the University of Houston, helping lead the Cougars to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the BBVA Compass Bowl. Elarbee was part of the offensive staff that helped the Cougars average 420 yards of total offense, including 280 passing yards per game that ranked 26th in the nation. Houston also ranked 38th in the nation scoring offense with 33.2 points per game.

His lone season at Houston saw him tutor starting left tackle DeAnthony Sims, who earned all-league recognition from the American Athletic Conference after playing a total of 899 offensive snaps with 36 knockdown blocks. Sims was part of an offense that ranked second in the AAC in scoring and fourth in sacks allowed.

Elarbee served as Middle Tennessee's offensive line coach in 2012 before joining the Houston staff. The Blue Raiders' offensive line ranked second nationally in fewest sacks allowed under Elarbee, giving up just seven on 344 pass attempts. The group, which included All-Sun Belt performer Micah James, also helped lead the way for three different 100-yard rushers.

Prior to his time at MTSU, Elarbee spent two seasons at West Georgia, first as the offensive line coach in 2010 before being elevated to offensive coordinator in 2011. At UWG, wide receiver and return specialist Denarius Appling earned All-America honors in 2011 and was one of three offensive players to receive all-conference honors. The 2010 season saw offensive tackle Brandon White named the Gulf South Conference Freshman of the Year.

The Carrollton, Ga., native has additional experience coaching in bowl games as he spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons as an offensive graduate assistant at Oklahoma State and the 2007 campaign in the same role on the staff of an LSU team that captured the BCS National Championship. The 2008 Oklahoma State offense ranked among the top 10 teams nationally in rushing, total offense, scoring and pass efficiency while the 2007 LSU squad scored at least 40 points in seven games.

Elarbee spent the 2006 season as the offensive line coach at East Central Community College in Decatur, Miss., after a year as Middle Tennessee's tight ends coach in 2005. Elarbee began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for his alma mater MTSU in the 2003 and 2004 seasons, when he worked alongside current Arkansas State Head Coach Blake Anderson, who served as the Blue Raiders co-offensive coordinator at the time.

As a collegiate offensive lineman, Elarbee played in 35 career games at Middle Tennessee, starting his final 23, and earned all-conference honors as a junior and senior. A four-year letterman, Elarbee was a member of the program's first Sun Belt Conference championship team in 2001. He had 91 knockdowns on 735 snaps as a senior.

Elarbee earned his bachelor's degree from Middle Tennessee State University in 2002. He and his wife, Holly, have one son, Griffin.

JOE JON FINLEY

TIGHT ENDS
2nd Season
Arlington, Texas
Oklahoma, '08

One of the top young position coaches in the country is second-year Mizzou Tight Ends Coach Joe Jon Finley. Finley joined Barry Odom's first staff at Mizzou prior to the 2016 season, and his tight ends played a vital role in MU's offense becoming one of the most improved in the nation.

Senior Sean Culkin enjoyed a career year in 2016, as he had career-bests in receptions (24), and yardage (282), while he and fellow tight ends Kendall Blanton (Soph.), Jason Reese (Junior) and Tyler Hanneke (Senior) also all contributed heavily in Mizzou's much-improved run game. Following the 2017 NFL Draft, Culkin signed a free agent contract with the Los Angeles Chargers.

Finley coaches a position in which he was an all-conference performer in his playing days for the Oklahoma Sooners and has helped coach for several seasons at the Power Five level. He spent the 2015 season on the coaching staff at Baylor, where he worked extensively with the tight ends as an offensive quality control specialist.

In that 2015 season, the Baylor offense was among the most potent in the nation, as the Bears led the country in both total offense (616 ypg) and scoring (48.1 ppg), while ranking in the top-25 nationally in numerous other categories, just a few of which included rushing (2nd – 327 ypg), passing efficiency (3rd – 171 rating), fewest sacks allowed (15th – 1.1 per game), 3rd down percentage (16th – 46.7%) and passing yardage (24th – 290 ypg).

"Joe Jon brings great energy and enthusiasm to our program, he is a winner who has proven himself in a short time to be a valuable asset offensively in run game organization, concepts and teaching," said Odom. "He has great experience working with the tight end position at a couple of very successful programs, and he's gone from playing that position at a very high level to carrying that over into coaching. I'm excited about his experience with tempo, as well as his deep ties with recruiting in Texas, where both his father and brother have been high school coaches. His knowledge of that area, as well as his prior relationships with our staff make him a great fit for what we're looking for," he said.

Finley has ties to two members of Odom's new staff at Mizzou, as his time at Oklahoma as a player (2003-07) and staff member (2012-13) overlapped with current MU offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Josh Heupel (coached at OU from 2003-04, 2006-14), and current MU safeties coach Ryan Walters (coached at OU in 2012).

Following his playing career at Oklahoma, Finley spent parts of five seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (2008-10 practice squad), Detroit Lions (2010-11) and Carolina Panthers (2012 training camp). He was activated to the 53-man roster for the Lions during the 2011 season. After being released from the Lions in 2011, he started his coaching career at Los Fresnos (Texas) High School, where he assisted with the offensive line under head coach and older brother Clint. After spending time in training camp in 2012 with the Carolina Panthers, Finley got back into the coaching side, as he became an offensive graduate assistant (quality control) for his alma mater Oklahoma.

At OU, he assisted the tight ends/tackles coach in every facet of the job, and assisted in game planning for Heupel as the Sooners posted a 10-3 record, shared the Big 12 title and earned a berth in the Cotton Bowl as part of the 2012 season. Oklahoma followed with an 11-2 season in 2013, which included a 45-31 win over #3 Alabama to cap the season in the 2014 Sugar Bowl. He spent the 2014 season back at Los Fresnos High School, before joining Baylor for the 2015 campaign. Los Fresnos reached the third round of the state playoffs in 2014, marking the deepest post-season run in school history.

Finley was a standout tight end at Oklahoma, where he was a four-year letterman for the Sooners, and part of three Big 12 championship squads (2004, 2006 and 2007). He totaled 775 yards and 10 touchdowns on 62 career receptions in 50 games. He captained OU's 2007 Big 12 championship team which finished ranked 8th nationally, and was on the 2004 Big 12 title squad that played in the BCS Championship Game. He earned All-Big 12 honorable mention acclaim as both a junior and senior, and went on to earn a Bachelor of Arts degree from OU in 2008.

Finley played high school football at Arlington (Texas) High School under his father, Mickey, from 1999 to 2002, where, as a senior quarterback, he threw for 1,626 yards and 12 touchdowns and ran for 897 yards and nine touchdowns as a senior. Finley and his wife, Caylee, are the parents of two children, daughter Blakely and son Knox.

BRICK HALEY

DEFENSIVE LINE
1st Season
Gadsden, Ala.
Alabama A&M, '88

University of Missouri Head Football Coach Barry Odom added longtime defensive line coach and Southeastern Conference veteran Brick Haley to his coaching staff following the 2016 season. Haley serves as Mizzou's defensive line coach, a position he has coached with great success for 19 years overall, including the last 13 straight. In all, Haley – an outstanding recruiter and developer of talent – has logged 26 years as a full-time defensive coach, including three as defensive coordinator, and two as an assistant in the National Football League.

Haley comes to Mizzou after spending the past two seasons at Texas, where he coached the Longhorn defensive line. In 2016, Texas' defense led the Big 12 Conference in both quarterback sacks (3.42 per game) and tackles for loss (7.6 per game), while ranking 5th and 16th nationally in those categories, respectively. In 2015, Texas ranked fifth in the NCAA in sacks. Prior to his time in Austin, Haley was at LSU for six seasons (2009-14), where he perennially directed one of the nation's most disruptive defensive fronts. At LSU, he coached 10 defensive linemen who were selected in the NFL Draft, including a pair of first-round picks in DT Michael Brockers (No. 12 overall in 2012) and DE Barkevious Mingo (No. 6 overall in 2013). Haley's line was key reason why the Tigers went 13-0 in the 2011 regular season and reached the 2012 BCS Championship Game.

"I'm very excited to have the opportunity to work with Brick Haley, I have had tremendous respect for him over the years," said Odom. "He will be a great mentor and teacher for our student-athletes and will bring leadership and coaching qualities that will make Mizzou Football better in every way. I'm excited to welcome Brick, Tina and the kids to the Mizzou Family!!" said Odom.

"I'm very pleased and really excited to be joining Coach Odom's program," said Haley. "We haven't worked together, but I'm very aware of him and the reputation he has in the coaching profession. I look at this as an unbelievable opportunity to work with someone who has such an impressive passion and work ethic. It didn't take me long in our conversations to know that Coach Odom is the right guy and someone you want to work with. I believe that Mizzou is a place where the sky is the limit, and I'm looking forward to being part of the program," he said.

Haley joined LSU in the spring of 2009 after spending two years as defensive line coach with the NFL's Chicago Bears. In Chicago, Haley coached a line that helped the Bears rank fifth in the league in fewest rushing yards allowed in 2008. The Bears finished sixth in the NFL in sacks in 2007, with DE Tommie

Harris earning a spot in the Pro Bowl.

Prior to his stop in the NFL, Haley spent three years (2004-06) as the defensive line coach at Mississippi State. He helped improve a Bulldogs defense that finished 41st in the nation in 2006 after finishing 113th a year before his arrival. Defensive end Titus Brown developed into a second-team All-SEC selection after leading the team and ranking fifth in the conference in sacks in 2006.

In 2005, Haley coached the SEC leader in sacks (third in NCAA) and tackles for loss (fourth in NCAA) in Willie Evans, who went on to spend four years in the NFL.

Before arriving at Mississippi State, Haley coached linebackers for two years (2002-2003) at Georgia Tech, where he helped the Yellow Jackets to a pair of bowl games. In 2003, he coached a first-team All-ACC performer after Tech's trio of starting linebackers finished the 2002 season as the team's top three tacklers.

Previously, Haley was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Baylor (1999-2001) after coaching outside linebackers for one season each at Clemson (1998) and Houston (1997). The defensive line coach at Troy State from 1994-96, he was promoted to defensive coordinator following the 1996 campaign before leaving for Houston. Haley coached the defensive line at Austin Peay from 1991-93 after starting his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1990. His first coaching job was at Enterprise (Ala.) High School in 1989.

A native of Gadsden, Ala., Haley attended Alabama A&M, where he was a standout linebacker from 1984-88. He received Alabama A&M's Inspiration Award in 1987 and was named the team's Most Valuable Player in 1988. In 2005, Haley was inducted into A&M's Athletic Hall of Fame.

Off the field, Haley is passionate about raising awareness for autism, and he hosts a golf tournament each year with proceeds going to his foundation: Brick Road to Success. He and his wife, Tina, have three sons: Adrian, A.J. and Jeremy.

BRIAN ODOM

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS
1st Season
Ada, Okla.
Southeastern Oklahoma, '04

Brian Odom, who is in his first season as outside linebackers coach for Mizzou, is actually in his second tour of duty with the Tigers. He began his career in athletics as an administrative and defensive graduate assistant coach on Gary Pinkel's staff in 2005. He comes to Mizzou from Washington State, where he was the defensive quality control assistant for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. At WSU, Brian was instrumental in the Cougars' defensive turnaround, working under Defensive Coordinator and former Mizzou assistant coach Alex Grinch.

Prior to Washington State, Brian spent three years running the football strength and conditioning program at the University of Houston (2012-14), after spending seven years working with the football performance program at the University of Arizona (2005-11). Additionally, for five seasons (2006-10), he assisted UA's football operations director by coordinating advance travel arrangements for all away games.

"I am extremely grateful this opportunity, and I'd like to thank Coach Odom and his staff and Director of Athletics Jim Sterk for giving me the opportunity to come back to Mizzou," said Brian Odom. "I'm excited to get my family back to the great town of Columbia and be part of a school that I've followed closely for over 20 years now. I'm really excited about the future of the program and it's an honor to coach in such a prestigious league as the SEC and represent the state of Missouri. I'm looking forward to doing great things with this outstanding staff," he said.

Brian joined Grinch's defensive staff prior to the 2015 season, a year after the Cougars went just 3-9 overall and ranked 97th or worse out of 124 FBS schools in six different major statistical categories. In the short span of two seasons, the Wazzu defense went from dead last in the NCAA in 2014 in turnovers gained (eight) to 34th in 2015 (24) and 38th in 2016 (23). They also went from allowing 38.6 points per game in 2014 (ranking 114th in the NCAA) to allowing 26.4 points in 2016 (ranking 50th). The Cougars were just 3-9 in 2014, but strung together 9-4 and 8-5 seasons, respectively, in 2015 and 2016, while playing in bowl games in consecutive seasons (2015 Sun Bowl, 2016 Holiday Bowl) for only the third time in school history.

Following his time at Mizzou, Brian joined the Arizona athletic performance staff in July of 2005 and immediately assisted with football, as well as with other UA programs. He was promoted to associate director in January of 2007, and worked with football before running his own football strength program under coach Tony Levine at Houston from 2012-14. His work with the football teams helped lead to five bowl game appearances, including three at Arizona and two at Houston.

An all-state prep running back in his hometown of Ada, Okla., Brian was named the Oklahoma High School Player of the Year in 1999 by the Tulsa World. He attended Oklahoma for two years, and was a redshirt on OU's 2000 national championship team. That same year, he won the team's Iron Man Award for his performance in the weight room. He lettered for the Sooners in 2001 on special teams, and then transferred to Southeastern Oklahoma State, where he was a three-year starter at tailback (2002-04), earning first-team Lone Star All-Conference honors as a senior in 2004. He earned his bachelor's degree from SEO in December of 2004.

Brian and his wife, Mackenzie, have a son, Benjamin (7).

ROHRK CUTCHLOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE
2nd Season
Littleport, Iowa
Memphis, '98

One of the most vital staff hires early in Head Coach Barry Odom's tenure was that of Rohrk Cutchlow (pronounced ROAR-k) to join his new staff at Mizzou as Director of Athletic Performance. Now entering his second year at Mizzou, Cutchlow oversees all aspects of the Mizzou Football strength and conditioning program.

Cutchlow is an 18-year veteran of the athletic performance industry, and he's regarded as one of the top coaches in the trade. For the past 13 years, he's directed athletic performance for football programs, including four at his alma mater Memphis, where he played a big role in Memphis developing into one of the top programs in the American Conference. The Tigers won the AAC and finished 10-3 overall in 2014, and followed up with another strong 9-4 season in 2015, spending much of the season ranked in the top-25. During his time with Memphis, Cutchlow aided in the development of Memphis quarterback Paxton Lynch, a Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award finalist and projected first-round NFL draft pick.

Prior to Memphis, Cutchlow served the 2011 football season as the director of strength and conditioning at Tulsa, where he oversaw a program that won eight games and played in the Armed Forces Bowl. Before that, Cutchlow directed football strength and conditioning at Illinois State for seven seasons (Nov. 2003-Feb. 2011). He served as the Redbirds' strength and conditioning coordinator his first three football seasons (2004-06), before being promoted to assistant athletic director for sports performance (July 2007). During his career, Cutchlow has worked with over 25 players who have gone on to sign NFL contracts, multiple Big 12 Championship teams, 15 All-Americans and an Olympic Gold Medalist. He was one of five finalists for the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) College Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 2006.

From 2001-03, Cutchlow was the head strength and conditioning coach for Olympic sports at Iowa State, where he directed programs for 17 sports, including men's basketball and wrestling. In 2001, Cutchlow earned his master's degree in higher education administration from Iowa State.

A native of Littleport, Iowa, Cutchlow attended and played baseball at Memphis, where he was a three-year letter winner and a two-year starter at catcher for the Tigers from 1996-98. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in education, with an emphasis on exercise and sports science. He then pursued a professional baseball career, where he started at catcher for two years, one each for the Dubois County Dragons (1998) and the Evansville Otters (1999) of the Frontier League. He later would go on to serve two seasons (2002-03) as the strength and conditioning coach for the Chicago Cubs Triple-A affiliate, the Iowa Cubs.

A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the NSCA, Cutchlow holds additional Level I certification from USA Weightlifting and Functional Movement Systems (FMS). He is also a member of the National Association for Coaching Equity and Development.

Cutchlow and his family reside in Columbia.

MIKE MCHUGH

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
2nd Season
Boyertown, Pa.
Findlay, '83

In his second year after returning to the school where he got his first Director of Operations position is Mike McHugh, who serves in the same role for Head Coach Barry Odom. McHugh was the first-ever Director of Football Ops at Mizzou, when the position was created for him in 1994, under former Coach Larry Smith. Since then, McHugh has turned in over 23 years of experience in the crucial role of ops director at the Power Five Level.

In the role, McHugh is involved in a wide variety of important administrative duties that support the Tiger program. Some of the many duties are related to overseeing the coordination of all team travel, oversight of the football budget, handling compliance and academic issues, scheduling of facilities, assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day functions of the program.

He returned to Mizzou after spending the 2014-15 seasons in the same position at the University of Washington. Before that, McHugh spent the 2013 football season in the same role at Fresno State, when the Bulldogs turned in an 11-2 record and won the Mountain West Conference championship.

He'd spent the 10 prior seasons (2003-12) as Director of Football Operations at the University of California, where he helped oversee the construction of the Bears' $150-million High Performance Center.

A native of Boyertown, Pa., McHugh started his playing career at Potomac State College (Keyser WV) in 1976 and '77 and was the team's leading receiver and elected team captain for the 1977 season. McHugh was elected to the Sports Hall of Fame in 2016. McHugh continued his playing career at the Findlay University in Ohio, where he was a member of the Oilers' 1979 NAIA championship team. He led Findlay in receiving in 1981 and earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 1983.

McHugh served as Findlay's head women's track & field coach in 1982 before going on to a football coaching job at Liberty Benton High School in Findlay, Ohio, that same year. He took an assistant football coaching position at Northmor

High in Galion, Ohio, for the 1983 season and then became head coach from 1984-87. McHugh was also Northmor's girls' track coach in 1984 and 1985.

McHugh moved to the college ranks in 1989, working as offensive line coach at Eastern Michigan in 1989 and 1990 before moving to recruiting coordinator in 1991 and defensive line coach in 1992. He earned a master's degree in physical education from EMU in 1993.

In 1993, McHugh was named Video Coordinator/Recruiting assistant at Missouri, and became the Director of Football Operations in 1994, a position he held through the 1998 season, and he was part of Smith's Holiday Bowl (1997) and Insight.com (1998) bowl teams. After six seasons at MU, he joined Mike Bellotti's staff at Oregon for the 1999 and 2000 seasons. He then spent two seasons as an offensive assistant coach with the Detroit Lions in 2001 and 2002 before taking the operations job at California, where he worked for head coach Jeff Tedford.

A.J. OFODILE

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL RECRUITING
2nd Season
Detroit, Mich.
Missouri, '01

In his second year on staff for his alma mater is former Mizzou standout and NFL tight end A.J. Ofodile (owe-FAH-delay). Ofodile, who was previously a successful head coach at Columbia's Rock Bridge High School, serves as the football program's Director of Recruiting Operations.

Ofodile served as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator for Odom at Rock Bridge during Odom's head coaching stint there from 2001-02. After Odom joined Mizzou's coaching staff prior to the 2003 season, Ofodile took over as the program's head coach. In 2013, his Bruins were state runners up, reaching the state championship game for the school's first time since 1993.

A first-team All-Big Eight selection in 1993 for Mizzou, Ofodile was a three-year letterwinner (1991-93), and finished his Tiger career with 73 receptions for 851 yards and six touchdowns. After an outstanding 1993 season which included 55 catches for 589 yards and four TDs, he was drafted in the fifth round of the 1994 NFL Draft by Buffalo, and spent six years in the league with Buffalo, Pittsburgh and Baltimore through 1999.

A Detroit, Mich., native, Ofodile earned his bachelor's degree in General Studies from Mizzou in August of 2001. His family includes wife Dianna, daughter Jasmyn and son Alex.

(NOTE — The passing efficiency formula has been used by the NCAA since 1979 to rate quarterbacks. The formula assumes that touchdowns are as good as interceptions are bad; therefore, these two figures offset each other for the average player. To determine Efficiency Rating Points, multiply a passer's yards per attempt by 8.4, add his completion percentage, add his touchdown percentage times 3.3, then subtract his interception percentage times two. 100 points is considered average.)

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS RANKINGS

Beginning in 1936, the Associated Press polled a group of broadcasters and sports writers from around the nation, asking them to rank the various college football teams. Although other polls have come and gone, the AP's is the only one that has run in the nation's newspapers every year since 1936.

From this point forward, AP rankings for Missouri and its opponents are listed. A number in parenthesis appearing before an opponent's name indicates Missouri's ranking. A number in parenthesis appearing after an opponent's name is its ranking. "R" indicates a team was receiving votes.

'THE 5th DOWN' — A GAME TO REMEMBER; A GAME TO FORGET

One of college football's most historic games took place on Faurot Field on Oct. 6, 1990, when the eventual national champion Colorado Buffaloes pulled out a 33-31 victory, scoring the winning touchdown on what turned out to be a fifth down on the game's last play.

With MU leading 31-27, Colorado embarked on a frantic march down the field in the final minute of play. Gaining a first down at the MU three-yard line, with 31 seconds to play, CU quarterback Charles Johnson spiked the ball to stop the clock. After regrouping, Eric Bieniemy charged up the middle to the one-yard line and Colorado called its final time out. Eighteen seconds remained.

It was here that the officials failed to notify the chain crew to flip the down marker from 2nd to 3rd down. When play resumed, Bieniemy tried to go over the top but was thrust backward by Tom Reiner, Mike Ringgenberg and Maurice Benson. The clock reached eight seconds, and officials ordered it stopped momentarily to clear the pileup.

Then, on what was fourth down, Johnson spiked the ball again. With two seconds to play, Johnson squirted over right tackle Mark VanderPoel. Hit by Reiner and Ringgenberg, he rolled over and extended the ball into the endzone and the officials signalled touchdown.

Pandemonium reigned for more than 20 minutes as those in attendance tried to determine just what had happened. But, with time expired, there was no avenue for appeal. What had appeared to be a major upset victory for the Tigers went into the record books as a bitter pill to swallow.

Colorado went on to win the Big Eight Conference championship, and with a victory over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, claimed a share of the national championship.

Here's how the play-by-play read of the game's final five plays:

1-G-MU 3 Charles Johnson pass incomplete
2-G-MU 3 Eric Bieniemy runs middle, gain of 2 (Tom Reiner)
3-G-MU 1 Bieniemy runs middle, no gain (Reiner, Maurice Benson)
4-G-MU 1 Johnson pass incomplete
5-G-MU 1 Johnson runs middle. TOUCHDOWN.
Johnson run for PAT, no good.

MEMORIAL STADIUM/FAUROT FIELD HISTORY

The storied history of Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field combines the best of old and new. Opened in 1926, the stadium has seen tremendous growth throughout the years, but Tiger fans are proud of the traditional feel and atmosphere the stadium lends itself to on game day.

Exciting changes are on the way soon which will see the south end zone torn down in the near future and rebuilt with a state-of-the-art football operations facility, as announced during the 2016 season. New seating for fans, with multiple private club levels and 20-24 luxury suites will also be available in the structure, which is estimated to have a $95-100 million price tag.

Debuting in 2014 was a spacious new upper deck (called the Tiger Deck) and a beautiful lounge/club level just below (called the Columns Club), which features 1,200 luxury seats and top-notch amenities. The Tiger Deck provides 4,200 seats, and combined with the new club section to bring Memorial Stadium's official capacity to 71,168 at the time.

Fans saw many changes for 2013, including a newly-renovated west press box/luxury suite tower, as well as a change to the historical hill beyond the north end zone.

The hill was moved closer to the field to allow for an expansion of the north concourse area – providing much more space for fans to congregate during games. The historic Rock M was broken down and stored away safely during the summer and brought back with the same rocks to maintain the important historical landmark that Tiger fans have grown to love.

Prior to the 2012 season, a sparkling brand-new FieldTurf field was installed on Faurot Field, to commemorate Mizzou's first year in the Southeastern Conference, as well as to reflect a new graphic identity partnership with Nike.

An exciting new addition to the game-day atmosphere was unveiled prior to the 2009 home opener, when a high-definition video board debuted. With a video display spanning 80-feet by 31 1/2 feet, the new display give Tiger fans some of the best HD viewing in the Midwest, to go along with an improved sound system throughout the stadium.

Eye-catching ribbon boards, providing real-time stats, out-of-town scores and other information, were installed on the facades of both the east and west structures prior to the 2014 season.

Among the features installed prior to the 2003 season was a state-of-the-art artificial playing surface, called FieldTurf. The project to convert the old natural grass surface (on which Mizzou played from 1995-2000) began in April of 2003 and was completed on June 26th. FieldTurf provides the reliability and consistency of artificial surfaces, but is head and shoulders above all other projects in terms of offering the look and feel, and safety of natural grass. The Tigers enjoyed great success on the surface in 2003, as Mizzou went a perfect 6-0 at Faurot Field, setting a school record for most home wins in a season.

The original stadium, built at a cost of $350,000, was the product of Coach Gwinn Henry's championship seasons of 1924-25, and a vision of athletic director Chester L. Brewer. It was carved out of "a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the University," chronicled Bob Broeg, longtime sports editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and unofficial historian of Missouri football.

Though the seating capacity is listed at 71,168, crowds in excess of 75,000 have seen the Tigers play in Columbia—against Texas in 1979, and a record 75,298 against Penn State in 1980.

MEMORIAL STADIUM/FAUROT FIELD HISTORY

Mizzou packed in a then-modern-day record crowd of 71,004 on Oct. 24, 2009 against Texas – marking the largest crowd to see a game at Faurot Field since 1983. That was matched in 2010 against Oklahoma during Mizzou's memorable Homecoming win over the top-ranked Sooners, and matched again in 2011 against Iowa State, and in 2012 versus Georgia, Arizona State and Alabama. Capacity dropped temporarily to 67,124 for the 2013 season, due to construction of the east side, and the reconfiguration of the Rock M hill.

Mizzou's average attendance for seven home games in 2012 was a stout 67,476, which was the highest season average since 1980, and which ranked Mizzou 24th in the NCAA in average attendance.

Coach Don Faurot's powerhouse Split "T" teams in the late '30's and '40's helped pay off the stadium bonds—along the Faurot's brave scheduling of Ohio State for nine straight years at Columbus, and big paydays from games with NYU and Fordham back east.

Peak attendance in the Tigers' single-tiered football arena was 30,832, who crammed into temporary bleachers and sat on the hillside to watch Faurot's team upset SMU, 20-14 in 1948.

A year later, the stadium underwent its first facelift with the addition of sections in the center of the west side, boosting the number of rows from 40 to 78. Those piece-meal additions continued sporadically until the summer of 1965, when the final two sections on the southeast corner were completed in the two-tired horseshoe.

The playing field adopted a new name in 1972 – Faurot Field—in honor of the legendary Mizzou football coach and athletic director whose teams and administrative leadership helped mightily to pay off the mortgage. As a matter of fact, Faurot, a graduate student in 1926, helped lay the stadium's sod. He made one last symbolic contribution to the field, dropping in the last square of turf in June 1995, when Mizzou converted its previous artificial surface to natural grass. He died later that year, during Homecoming week.

The traditional block "M," carved from stone by the freshman class in 1927, guards the stadium's north endzone and gives Memorial Stadium one of the more unique landmarks around the country.

The "M," formed by whitewashed rocks, is 90-feet wide and 95-feet high. Mizzou's yearbook, the Savitar, recounted the debut of the Missouri landmark on Oct. 1, 1927, when the Tigers defeated Kansas State, 13-6:

"Five-hundred freshmen joined hands and encircled the cinder track in a single line while the bland played 'Old Missouri' in the center of the field. The pennants of all the Missouri Valley fluttered and danced above the stadium on the long line at the open end of the gridiron. A huge stone M – the work of the Frosh the night before – loomed up white and threatening against the bankment."

The "M" has weathered the good and bad times. In 1957, a group of pranksters changed the "M" to an "N" the night before the Missouri-Nebraska game. But, the Mizzou groundskeeper, with the help of some young boys who gained free admission to the game in exchange for their assistance, restored the "M" to his proper form before kickoff.

In 1995, Mizzou converted Faurot Field from an artificial surface known as OmniTurf (which graced the field from 1985-1994) to natural grass. The field was not the only cosmetic change made to Faurot Field in 1995. Grass-covered terraces now extend upwards from field level to the grandstands, where they meet a brick wall that adds a traditional collegiate ambiance to the stadium. The hill on the north end of the field was re-graded to provide a consistent "bowl" and is now framed by nearly 600 bushes.

Over the last 25 years, upgrades to the stadium's superstructure have been made, giving the natural bowl the tender loving care it needs to remain as the home of the Tigers for many years to come. In 1991, all of the stadium's old cypress bleachers were replaced with aluminum. Work in the stadium in 1995 also addressed accessibility issues. Seating sections and vomitories were modified to allow wheelchair access on both the east and west sides. Restrooms and concessions stands were replaced, as were the concourse surfaces beneath the grandstands in the next phase of the project, which was completed in 1997. The $12 million effort also included new ticket booths, a reconfigured north entrance, more brickwork to accent what was installed at field leve in 1995, and parking lot improvements. A portion of the project was completed in 1996, installing four light towers for night games. The Tigers gameday lockerroom, located underneath the south stands, was completed in 1992.

Tucked beneath the south stands is the facility which includes large and comfortable dressing quarters for players and coaches, state-of-the-art medical facilities including X-ray equipment, and a large interview room which enables 50 reporters to comfortably execute their post-game duties.

Prior to the 2006 season, scoreboards were installed above the south end zone stands, complete with messaging capability that keep fans updated on key game statistics and national scores.

Faurot Field had an artificial surface once before 1985 – for its very first game in 1926. Construction of the sunken stadium seating 25,000 spectators went down to the wire in the fall of '26 with the heaviest September rainfall in 35 years contributing to the delay.

Time ran out before the playing surface could be sodded for the Oct. 2 opener with Tulane. Constant rains washed out a bridge east of Columbia, and though repaired in time, slightly more than 10,000 drenched fans showed up for the opening ceremonies.

Without sod, sawdust and tanbark were spread on the field as an alternative, and the Tigers and the Green Wave played to a "scoreless, mudpie tie," Bob Broeg wrote in his two historical books on Mizzou football.

- December, 1925 – Ground broken for future site of Memorial Stadium. It was carved out of a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the campus.

- Oct. 2, 1926 – Stadium dedicated in memory of the 112 Missouri graduates and students who died in World War I. Mizzou and Tulane played to a scoreless tie on a field that was a muddy disaster due to torrential rains that drenched the Columbia area prior to the game. The field was built with a 440-yard track encircling it.

- Oct. 1, 1927 – The landmark rock 'M' debuts at Memorial Stadium after members of the freshman class construct it with leftover rocks from the stadium project. The monument stood 90 feet wide by 95 feet high and has watched over the field ever since that day, when Mizzou defeated Kansas State, 13-7. The Tigers were a perfect 4-0 at home during the 1927 season, which helped boost MU to its third Missouri Valley Conference championship since 1924 under Coach Gwinn Henry.

- Oct. 13, 1928 – Coach Gwinn Henry's Tigers open the 1928 season by pasting visiting Centre (Ky.) College, 60-0. It remains today as Mizzou's largest margin of victory at Memorial Stadium.

- Sept. 28, 1935 – Don Faurot makes his debut as Missouri Head Coach with a 39-0 whitewashing of William Jewell College. Faurot's first Tiger squad would go on to post a 3-3-3 record.

- Nov. 5, 1938 – Missouri blanks visiting Michigan State, 6-0. The win started a 20-game winning streak for the Tigers at Memorial Stadium, a record that still stands today. Mizzou would not lose at home again until a 20-13 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 13, 1943.

- Nov. 4, 1939 – Unranked Missouri defeats 10th-ranked Nebraska, 27-13, at Memorial Stadium to mark MU's first-ever win over a ranked team. Two weeks later, the Tigers, now ranked 12th, upset 5th-ranked Oklahoma, 7-6, at Memorial Stadium, and went on to win the Big Six title – the first of three league championships to be won under Faurot from 1939-42.

- Oct. 9, 1948 – One of the biggest upsets in Memorial Stadium history occurs, as the unranked Tigers ambush 4th-ranked SMU, 20-14.

- Summer, 1949 – Stadium undergoes first expansion as 5,000 seats are added to the center section of west stands, increasing the number of rows from 40 to 78. Also built was a new press box that included seating for 50 writers and featured eight radio booths.

- Dec. 1, 1956 – Don Faurot is carried off the field on the shoulders of his players after his Tigers post a stirring last-minute 15-13 win over rival Kansas in Faurot's final game as a coach.

- Oct. 25, 1957 – A group of pranksters changed the rock "M" to an "N" the night before the Missouri-Nebraska game. But the Mizzou groundskeeper, with the help of some young boys who gained free admission to the game in exchange for their assistance, restored the "M" to its proper form before kickoff. The next day, Missouri used a last-minute touchdown to post a come-from-behind 14-13 win over the Huskers.

- Sept. 20, 1958 – Coach Dan Devine, the third Tiger coach in three years, makes his Missouri debut against Vanderbilt, but the visiting Commodores spoil the day by leaving Columbia with a 12-8 victory.

- Nov. 19, 1960 – One of the more infamous events in the history of Memorial Stadium took place, as the #1-ranked and undefeated Tigers were upset, 23-7, in the regular-season finale by unranked rival Kansas. The loss spoiled any national championship hopes for the Tigers, who would go on to beat Navy in the Orange Bowl and finish ranked as high as 4th in the UPI poll. It was later discovered that Kansas had used an ineligible player, and the game was officially forfeited by the Jayhawks, giving Mizzou a bittersweet administrative victory.

MEMORIAL STADIUM/FAUROT FIELD TIMELINE

- Summer, 1965 – Final expansion of original horseshoe completed on southeast corner that added 3,595 seats bringing capacity at the time to 44,344 permanent seats.

- 1968 – New press box and VIP lounge constructed by private subscription.

- Nov. 21, 1970 – Dan Devine coaches his last game at Mizzou, and fittingly, goes out a winner against Kansas, 28-17.

- 1972 – Playing surface named Faurot Field in honor of legendary coach and athletic director Don Faurot.

- Oct. 28, 1972 – Coach Al Onofrio's unranked Tigers upset No. 7 Colorado, 20-17. Five more times over the next four years, Onofrio's squads would upset ranked teams on the newly christened Faurot Field.

- Oct. 13, 1973 – Mizzou got one of its biggest wins ever at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field when the 12th-ranked Tigers defeated No. 2 Nebraska, 13-12, when a last-minute Husker two-point conversion pass was intercepted by MU's Tony Gillick. Nebraska had beaten Mizzou by a combined score of 98-0 the two previous years. It remains as the highest-ranked foe any Tiger team has ever beaten.

- Summer, 1978 – South endzone was enclosed with 10,800 permanent seats.

- Oct. 4, 1980 – Largest crowd to ever see a game at Faurot Field witnesses a 29-21 upset win by 19th-ranked Penn State over 7th-ranked Mizzou. A record crowd of 75,298 saw the game.

- Oct. 15, 1983 – Musco Mobile Lighting brings in portable lights to illuminate a mid-afternoon game vs. Nebraska. Mizzou's defense holds Nebraska's "Scoring Explosion" offense somewhat in check, but still falls to the top-ranked Huskers, 34-13.

- Summer, 1984 – Glass-enclosed Tiger Lounge constructed in lower level of press box facility.

- May 18, 1985 – Project began to convert Faurot Field natural grass surface to new artificial surface called Omniturf. Project was completed on Aug. 30th.

- Sept. 14, 1985 – First game on Omniturf is an ominous 27-23 loss to Northwestern. Mizzou would finish the year 0-7 at home this season, with five of the games decided by a touchdown or less.

- Oct. 11, 1986 – Kicker Tom Whelihan kicks school-record 62-yard field goal in a 17-12 loss to Colorado.

- Oct. 6, 1990 – 12th-ranked Colorado escapes Faurot Field with a 33-31 win over Mizzou after benefiting from an officiating oversight that gave the Buffaloes five downs to score the winning TD on 5th-and-goal in the closing seconds. The "Fifth Down Game" helped propel the Buffaloes to a share of the national title that year.

- Summer, 1991 – All of the stadium's old cypress bleachers were replaced with aluminum.

- June 1, 1992 – Big Eight Conference coaches approve a statement that read, in part: "Big Eight Conference football coaches wanted to report that the football field at the University of Missouri is a detriment to the home and visiting teams and takes away from the integrity of the game played on such a field."

- Summer, 1992 – Facilities completed underneath south stands that give the Tigers a spacious game-day locker room, improved medical facilities including X-ray equipment, and a large interview room with enables 65 reporters to comfortably execute post-game duties.

- Oct. 8, 1992 – Musco brings in portable lights to illuminate the first-ever night game at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field vs. Colorado. In brutally cold and wet weather, the 9th-ranked Buffaloes escape with a 6-0 win.

- Nov. 11, 1992 – Coach Bob Stull's Tigers close the 1992 season out with a 22-17 upset win over 22nd-ranked Kansas. Kicker Jeff Jacke set an MU single-game record by making five field goals in the game.

- Sept. 18, 1994 – Rock and Roll legends The Rolling Stones, perform an open-air concert at Memorial Stadium before 45,000 fans. The concert helped provide nearly $100,000 toward the eventual project that converted the Omniturf surface to natural grass the next year.

- Nov. 19, 1994 – Mizzou loses its home finale to Kansas, 31-14. The game would mark the last played on the now infamous Omniturf surface. In its 10 seasons on the surface, Mizzou's record was just 20-38-3.

- June, 1995 – Project begins to convert Faurot Field from Omniturf back to natural grass. The grass, a blend of five Kentucky bluegrass varieties, was donated for the project by Gene Sandner and Darrell Seltsam of S&S Seed Farms/Evergreen Sod in Rocheport, Mo. Legendary Coach Don Faurot, who helped lay sod for the original field in 1926 at Memorial Stadium, put down the last piece of sod to finalize the newest version as a symbolic gesture. Faurot later died in October of that year, during Homecoming Week.

- June, 1995 – Grass-covered terraces were extended upward from field level to the grandstands, where they met a new brick wall, to give the stadium a traditional collegiate ambiance. The red brick eventually became a central unifying theme throughout the Sports Park at MU the evolved in the years to follow.

- Sept. 2, 1995 – Mizzou defeats North Texas, 28-7, on first game back on natural grass at Memorial Stadium.

- Summer, 1996 – Four light towers were permanently installed, giving Missouri the opportunity to play night games on a regular basis.

- Sept. 14, 1996 – First-ever night game at Faurot Field with permanent light system goes awry, as Memphis leaves with a 19-16 upset win over the Tigers.

- Oct. 26, 1996 – The first overtime game in Mizzou history results in a 35-28 Tiger Homecoming win over Oklahoma State.

- Summer, 1997 — $12 million renovation of Faurot Field was completed that replaced restrooms, concession stands and concourse surfaces beneath the grandstands. The effort also included new ticket booths, a reconfigured north entrance, more brickwork to accent what was installed at field level in 1995, and parking lot improvements. Diamond Vision video replay scoreboard is installed as part of this project above the rock 'M', with a screen measuring 21-feet tall by 27-feet wide.

- Nov. 8, 1997 – Top-ranked Nebraska escaped Faurot Field with a 45-38 overtime win after a miracle TD on a 4th down in the closing seconds of regulation forced the extra period. The win helped propel Nebraska to a share of the national championship that year. The Huskers' miracle TD took place in the same North end zone where Colorado scored to win seven years earlier in the "5th-Down Game," prompting MU fans to believe there is a curse of sorts in the North end zone.

- Sept. 12, 1998 – Senior tailback Devin West rushes for a school-record 319 yards on 33 carries in leading the 25th-ranked Tigers to a 41-23 win over rival Kansas.

- April, 2003 – Faurot Field sod torn up to make way for switch to artificial surface and salvageable amounts given free to Tiger fans.

- June 25, 2003 – FieldTurf installation project is completed.

- Sept. 13, 2003 – The first game ever on FieldTurf is a success, as Mizzou crushes Eastern Illinois, 37-0, giving the Tigers their first shutout win since 1998.

MEMORIAL STADIUM/FAUROT FIELD TIMELINE

- Oct. 11, 2003 – Mizzou, stinging from its previous game, an unexpected 35-14 loss at Kansas, rebounds to earn one of the biggest wins in recent memory, as the Tigers upset 10th-ranked Nebraska, 41-24 on a wet night that was televised nationally by TBS. The win, which came before a sellout crowd of 68,349, broke a 25-game Husker winning streak over MU, and it marked Mizzou's first win in Columbia over Nebraska since 1973.

- Oct. 25, 2003 – Mizzou becomes bowl eligible by getting its sixth win of the season in fine fashion, as it outdistanced Texas Tech and its Heisman Trophy candidate quarterback B.J. Symons, 62-31. Mizzou's QB extraordinaire Brad Smith broke a school record by scoring five touchdowns, as he rushed for 291 yards.

- Nov. 29, 2003 – On the Saturday of Thanksgiving week, Mizzou closed out a perfect 6-0 home record with a 45-7 win over Iowa State to earn its eighth win of the year. Senior tailback Zack Abron became MU's all-time rushing leader on a first quarter run.

- Sept. 10, 2005 – In a 45-35 loss to New Mexico, senior quarterback Brad Smith became Mizzou's career rushing AND passing leader on consecutive drives in the 3rd quarter of the game.

- Nov. 12, 2005 – Record-setting quarterback Brad Smith closed out his Faurot Field career by leading Mizzou to a hardfought 31-16 win over Baylor. Smith, who would end his career holding as many as 69 different MU, Big 12 and NCAA game, season and career records, closed his brilliant home career by rushing for 161 yards and 3 TDs.

- Sept. 2, 2006 – Sophomore QB Chase Daniel makes his first career start, and promptly breaks the MU single-game passing touchdown record by throwing five scoring strikes in the 2006 season opener against Murray State.

- Oct. 6, 2007 – The 17th-ranked Tigers blitzed 25th-ranked Nebraska, 41-6, before a modern-day record crowd of 70,049. The win was MU's most lopsided over Nebraska since 1947, and Chase Daniel's 473 all-purpose yards was only 7 shy of the MU record of 480 set by Brad Smith in 2005, also against Nebraska.

- Spring, 2009 – Work began on a new video board display to replace the aging board located on the top of the grass hill beyond the north endzone. The project was completed prior to MU's 2009 home opener on Sept. 12 against Bowling Green.

- Oct. 23, 2010 – Mizzou earned its first-ever win over a #1-ranked opponent as the Tigers posted a scintillating 36-27 comeback win over Oklahoma on Homecoming. The win was seen nationally on ABC and was also supplemented by the first-ever Columbia appearance by the ESPN College GameDay set.

- Sept. 8, 2012 – Mizzou played its first-ever Southeastern Conference game at Faurot Field, with SEC Commissioner Mike Slive on hand for the ceremonial coin toss to open the historic night. Mizzou played toe-to-toe with the 7th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs, and held a 20-17 lead late in the third quarter before the Bulldogs scored 24 unanswered points the rest of the way to pull away for a 41-24 win.

#23 JOHNNY ROLAND

Johnny Roland undoubtedly was the biggest recruiting catch by Dan Devine during his 13 years as football coach at the University of Missouri.

Roland, of Corpus Christi, Texas, was Ol' Mizzou's leading rusher and scorer as a sophomore in 1962 with 830 yards and 78 points, respectively. However, he specialized primarily as a defensive back in his junior and senior seasons.

Capping MU's 1965 Sugar Bowl season, Roland was a consensus first-team All-American on defense. Yet, Devine utilized the 6-2, 207-pound athlete's talents to the fullest — often inserting Roland as a ball-carrier and a blocking back whenever the Tigers penetrated their opponent's 20-yard line. He also returned punts.

Roland shared the captaincy of the '65 team and became Mizzou's first back to win All-America laurels in 23 years. He went on to win NFL Rookie-of-the-Year with the St. Louis Cardinals, and went on to a long career as a backfield coach in the NFL. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

#23 ROGER WEHRLI

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career.

Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes.

A consensus All-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial All-Pro selection. Wehrli was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004, and later was also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

#27 BROCK OLIVO

Brock Olivo came to Mizzou with modest fanfare, but thanks to his legendary work ethic, he became one of the great inspirational players in school history.

A native of Washington, Mo., Olivo helped restore pride to his home state program that had fallen on hard times when he led the Tigers to the 1997 Holiday Bowl – MU's first bowl appearance since 1983.

Olivo made his mark at tailback and on special teams during a career that spanned from 1994-97. He left as the school's all-time leading career rusher, with 3,026 yards, and his 188 points ranked him fourth on the career scoring list. Olivo became the first Tiger to rush for 200 yards in a game twice, doing so during his sophomore season with a 222-yard outing against Northeast Louisiana and following with a 201-yard day against Iowa State later in the year.

The Big Eight Conference Offensive Freshman of the Year in 1994, Olivo went on to ensure his spot in Tiger Football history when he won the Mosi Tatupu National Special Teams Player of the Year Award in 1997 – making him the first Tiger to ever win a national individual award.

#37 BOB STEUBER

More than 50 years after hanging up his competitive cleats at Missouri, Bob Steuber still ranks as the Tigers' 14th-best ground-gainer of all time.

Steuber was the big, fast back — a 210-pounder who could turn the 100 in 10-flat — who made Don Faurot's new-fangled Split-T formation such a rousing success in 1941 and '42. Switched from end to halfback as a junior and finished as the nation's number-three rusher in 1941, and the rushing runner-up in 1942. His career total was 2,030 yards, which stood as the Mizzou record for 28 years, until surpassed by Joe Moore in 1970.

He still holds Missouri records for highest average per carry in a game (15.8) and highest average per carry in a season (7.6). His record of most career points (222) stood until 1992.

All-America in 1942, Steuber was drafted by the Chicago Bears, but entered the service, and later played professionally with the Cleveland Browns, L.A. Dons and Buffalo Bills.

#42 DAROLD JENKINS

A center-linebacker for Don Faurot's 1940 and '41 Tiger teams, Darold Jenkins was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1976. He captained the '41 Tiger club that was considered to be the best of Faurot's 19 Missouri teams, and went to the Sugar Bowl.

A native of Higginsville, Mo., Jenkins was named to 17 All-America teams in 1941. He later was a bomber pilot in World War II, and on his 27th mission was shot down. He spent 17 months in a German POW camp.

After discharge from the service, he served as trial counsel for the State Highway Commission. He died in 1986.

#44 PAUL CHRISTMAN

"Pitchin" Paul Christman set virtually all of the passing records at Mizzou, most of which stood intact for nearly 40 years.

Christman won All-America honors in 1939 and '40 and was MU's first player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. He is the only Mizzou player (until 2007) to finish among the top-five in Heisman Trophy voting, as he finished third in 1939 and fifth in 1940.

Following his career, during which he led the Tigers to their first conference championship and bowl appearance under Don Faurot, Christman served in the U.S. Navy from 1941-45.

He played four years of pro football with the Chicago Cardinals ('46-49) and finished with the Green Bay Packers in 1950. He was an accomplished network television analyst and commentator, teaming with Curt Gowdy on early AFL telecasts. A native of St. Louis, he died suddenly at the age of 51, in 1970.

#83 KELLEN WINSLOW

An All-American on and off the field, Kellen Winslow may be the greatest tight end ever to play the game. At MU, he was a two-time all-league choice and a consensus All-American as a senior. But the 28 passes he caught for 479 yards and six TDs in 1978 were just the tip of the iceberg.

During a nine-year career with San Diego, Winslow starred with Dan Fouts and Charlie Joiner in the most prolific passing attack ever unleashed on NFL gridirons. He caught 541 passes for 6,741 yards and scored 45 TDs.

He's best remembered for a '81 playoff game against the Miami Dolphins, when he caught 13 passes and blocked a FG with :04 remaining to send the game into OT. San Diego went on to win, 41-38.

Winslow was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, in 1995, and was a 2003 inductee into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, and was honored in 2004 as an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award Winner. An attorney, Winslow previously worked as part of the Mizzou Radio team, and later served as the athletic director at Lakeland College in Sheboygan, Wis., and then at Florida A&M.

Missouri has had 36 first-team All-Americans, 13 of whom have been consensus choices— center Darold Jenkins ('41), end Danny LaRose ('60), defensive back Johnny Roland ('65), defensive back Roger Wehrli ('68), tight end Kellen Winslow ('78), offensive tackle John Clay ('86), center Rob Riti ('99), tight end Martin Rucker (2007), all-purpose man Jeremy Maclin (2007 and 2008), tight end Chase Coffman (2008), tight end Michael Egnew (2010), defensive end Michael Sam (2013) and defensive end Shane Ray (2014).

1925 Ed Lindenmeyer, T

Mizzou's very first All-American, as he won the designation for the 1925 season. A native of Lake Forest, Ill., Lindenmeyer came to Mizzou and starred at both tackle and end, lettering in 1924-25-26. He earned All-Missouri Valley Conference honors in 1925, and blocked a punt for a safety in a 9-6 upset win over Nebraska that season. Lindenmeyer lettered on Gwinn Henry's teams that had a stellar three-year record of 18-4-3. He later went on to coach at Lake Forest (Ill.) College.

1939 Paul Christman, QB

The legendary "Pitchin Paul" Christman came to Mizzou from Maplewood, Mo., and lettered in football in 1938-39-40, and in baseball in 1938-39-41. He was a three-time All-Big Six Conference quarterback, and twice won All-America honors. Christman finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1939, and fifth in 1940. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Chicago Cardinals (1945-49) and Green Bay Packers (1950), and led the Cardinals to division titles in 1947-48 and the league championship in 1947. In 1940, he led the nation with 1,131 yards passing and 13 TD passes. During his career, MU had a 20-8 record, with a Big Six title in '39, and its first bonafide bowl game – the 1940 Orange Bowl. The first Tiger player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (in 1956), his jersey (44) number is retired.

1941 Darold Jenkins, C

A faultless ball-handler, Missouri's Darold Jenkins was a mid-line magician during the early 1940s. He played the unheralded role of center, making coach Don Faurot's split-T formation click through a 22-7 record. On defense he played middle linebacker. In 1941, Jenkins captained the Tigers and led them to one of their most exciting seasons. They lost to Ohio State, 12-7, in the season opener, then ran off eight victories before bowing to Fordham, 2-0, in the Sugar Bowl. Missouri won the Big Six championship that year and Jenkins was named All-Conference and All-America. Jenkins was the leading center of his day and Faurot considered him a "play- maker" because of his ability to get the offense moving. After college, Jenkins served six years in the U.S. Army Air Corps logging 27 combat missions over Germany. He spent 16 months as a prisoner of war. When he retired from the military, Jenkins held the rank of lieutenant colonel. He returned to study law and, in 1952, became a practicing attorney, eventually joining the Missouri State Highway Commission. He died September 16, 1986.

1942 Bob Steuber, HB

A star halfback out of CBC High School in St. Louis, Mo., Steuber lettered at MU in 1940-41-42. He was a two-time All-Big Six selection, who won All-America honors in 1942, and is one of seven Tigers to have his jersey (37) retired. He still holds the MU single-season scoring record for a non-kicker (121 points in 1942) and ranks fourth in career scoring and 15th in rushing yards in school history. His 2,030 rushing yards stood as the MU record for 28 years. He posted MU's first 1,000-yard rushing campaign in 1942, ranking second in the nation with 1,098 yards. When MU led the nation in rushing in 1941, he was third in the nation with 855 yards. Steuber played in the East-West Shrine and College All-Star Games following graduation, then played professionally with the Chicago Bears, Cleveland Browns, Los Angeles Dons and Buffalo Bills. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1971.

1955 Harold Burnine, E

An All-America receiver for Coach Don Faurot in 1955, when he led the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 594 yards. He led the conference in receiving in 1954, as well. The native of Richmond, Mo., was also All-Big Seven that year, and played in four all-star games – the Blue-Gray, North-South, Senior Bowl and College All-Star game. For his three-year MU career, Burnine caught 75 passes for 1,145 yards, figures that kept him in the Tiger top-10 until the l990s. He played professionally with the New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles. Burnine was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993.

1960 Danny LaRose, E

One of the greatest two-way talents in Missouri history, LaRose starred from 1958-60, as an end who could dominate the line of scrimmage, and was also MU's leading receiver as a sophomore and senior. He also punted for MU in 1960. A native of Crystal City, Mo., LaRose won all-conference honors in 1958 and '60, and was a consensus All-America selection in 1960 (making 13 teams), when Missouri beat Navy and Heisman winner Joe Bellino in the Orange Bowl. LaRose played in the College All-Star Game and Hula Bowl in 1961, then went on to a pro career with the Detroit Lions, Pittsburgh Steelers and Miami Dolphins. He was also an accomplished thrower in track, who held Missouri's indoor shot put record for many years.

1961 Ed Blaine, T

One of the greatest offensive linemen in Missouri history, Blaine lettered as a Tiger in 1959-60-61. He received All-Big Eight and All-America honors in 1961, and was an honorable mention selection on the Missouri All-Century Team. A native of Farmington, Mo., Blaine played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Senior Bowl and the College All-Star Game, after his senior season, on the way to a career in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers (1962-63) and Philadelphia Eagles (1963-66). In his post-playing days, Blaine established himself as one of the nation's foremost pharmaceutical researchers, and has spoken at Mizzou's commencement exercises.

1962 Conrad Hitchler, E

A standout two-way end for Coach Dan Devine, who lettered at Mizzou from 1960-62. Hitchler led Mizzou in receiving in 1961, and was an All-Big Eight selection in both 1961 and '62. He earned All-America status as a senior, then went on to play in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl and the Coaches All-America Game. He played three years in the Canadian Football League as a member of the Calgary Stampeders. His son, Conrad Goode, was also an All-American offensive tackle for the Tigers in 1983.

1965 Johnny Roland, DB

Johnny Roland's career at Missouri had two dimensions. As a sophomore in 1962 he was a running back. He rushed for 830 yards, seventh best total in the nation, and scored 78 points, ninth in the nation. He rushed for 155 yards against Oklahoma State, 104 against Iowa State. When he returned for his junior year in 1964, Coach Dan Devine moved him to defensive back. He made All-America at this position in 1965. Roland stood 6-2, weighed 198, and was a power runner. Even in the years he was a defensive back, Devine occasionally moved him into the game on offense. He always picked times when Missouri had the ball inside the opponent's 20-yard line. In 1965 Roland also returned 42 punts and kickoffs for 690 yards, averaging 16.4 yards on each. He was Missouri's co-captain in 1965, and helped the team to an 8-2-1 record, including a 20-18 victory over Florida in the 1966 Sugar Bowl. Missouri retired his jersey, No. 23, and he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1998. He made All-Big Eight as a runner in 1962 and as a defensive back in 1964 and 1965. In 1965 he had six pass interceptions. He had an eight-year pro playing career with St. Louis and the New York Giants, winning NFL Rookie-of-the-Year honors with the Cardinals. He has gone on to a nearly 30-year career as a coach in the NFL.

1965 Francis Peay, OT

A Pittsburgh, Pa., native, Peay was a standout tackle at Mizzou in 1964-65, and won All-Big Eight and All-America honors as a senior when Missouri ranked third in the nation in rushing offense and won the Sugar Bowl over Florida and Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier. He was the Big Eight's lineman of the week following MU's 17-6 win over Minnesota that season, and later played in the Senior Bowl, Coaches All-American Game and College All-Star Game. He was a first-round choice of the New York Giants in the 1966 NFL Draft, and later played with the Green Bay Packers (1968-72) and Kansas City Chiefs (1973-75). Named to the Missouri All-Century Team, he was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

1967 Russ Washington, OT

One of the most dominant linemen in MU history, Russ Washington was the Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year and a first-team All-American in 1967. He was twice named All-Big Eight and played in four all-star games following his senior season. Washington starred in the NFL for the San Diego Chargers from 1968-83, and had two brothers, Wayne and David, who later played on the offensive line for Mizzou.

1968 Roger Wehrli, DB

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career. Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes. A consensus All-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial All-Pro selection. Wehrli will be enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

1969 Mike Carroll, OG

A powerful blocker who was selected a first-team All-American offensive lineman as a senior after helping lead Missouri to the 1970 Orange Bowl. That Tiger squad featured one of the nation's most high-powered offensive attacks, and the team finished the 1969 season as the Big Eight Conference Co-Champions with a 9-2 record and No. 6 national ranking. The 1969 team set school records at the time for points per game (36.2), total yards (4,507), passing yards (2,048) and touchdown passes (20). Carroll helped pave the way for running back Joe Moore to gain 1,312 yards rushing (3rd in the nation) and for quarterback Terry McMillan to rank 12th nationally in 1969 with 2,157 total yards. The Ste. Genevieve, Mo., native, played in the prestigious Senior Bowl following his senior season.

1973 Scott Anderson, C

A standout center on Missouri teams that played in the 1972 Fiesta and 1973 Sun Bowls, Anderson lettered for Coach Al Onofrio from 1971-73. An All-Big Eight and All-America selection as a senior in 1973, Anderson played in the Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American all-star games in 1974. He recovered a fumble that set up a touchdown that led to MU's 13-12 victory over Nebraska in Columbia in 1973. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Minnesota Vikings from 1974-77.

1973 John Moseley, DB

One of the most exciting players ever to play at MU, Moseley holds the distinction of being the only MU football player ever to go from walk-on to All-American. A defensive back from 1971-73,

Moseley was a daring kick return man. He ranked sixth nationally in punt returns in 1973, with an average of 16.5 yards per return. For his career, he averaged 13.3 yards, which stood as the school record until recently. The Columbia, Mo., native was named All-American as a senior in 1973.

1975 Henry Marshall, WR

One of Mizzou's greatest receivers, Henry Marshall was an All-Big Eight and All-America choice in 1975, when he caught 44 passes for 945 yards and nine touchdowns. A native of Salina, Kan., he was a tight end when he lettered as a freshman in 1972, but moved to wideout while lettering in 1974 and '75. He played in the Blue-Gray Game, Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American Game following his senior year, then was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs, for whom he played from 1976-87, and in the process, unseated Otis Taylor as Kansas City's all-time leading receiver. He held the MU records for receiving yards in a game (207) and season (945) for 15 years, before both were eventually broken. A first-team choice on the Missouri All-Century Team, Marshall was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

1976 Morris Towns, OT

Earned first-team All-American honors as a senior tackle in 1976, a year that saw Mizzou pull huge upset wins on the road against four top-15 teams: No. 2 Ohio State, No. 3 Nebraska, No. 8 USC and No. 14 Colorado. Was known as being equally adept at providing crushing run blocks as he was providing excellent pass protection. A St. Louis, Mo., native who was a three-year starter for the Tigers. He won first-team All-Big Eight honors as a senior, and went on to play in prestigious college all-star games such as the Blue-Gray Game, the Hula Bowl and the Japan Bowl. He went on to become the 11th overall pick of the 1977 NFL Draft, to the Houston Oilers, and enjoyed a fine nine-year professional career, playing with the Oilers for six years, and the Washington Redskins for three more.

1978 Kellen Winslow, TE

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Kellen Winslow redefined the tight end position at the collegiate and professional levels during his playing career. Before Winslow, most tight ends ran short- to medium-length pass patterns. Kellen was one of the first tight ends to run deeper routes due to his unique combination of size and speed. As a freshman, he only played in three games and caught one pass. The next year new coach Warren Powers installed an expanded passing offense in which Winslow and the Tigers flourished. That year Mizzou upset Notre Dame and Nebraska, two teams which were rated among the nation's top five teams, while Winslow's number of catches improved to 16. In his junior year, he won the first of back-to-back All-Conference selections. As a senior, he added consensus All-America honors to his list of accomplishments. Winslow went on to have a Pro Football Hall of Fame career in nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers, where he caught 541 passes for 6,741 yards and nine touchdowns. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 2003.

1980 Bill Whitaker, DB

A ballhawking defensive back who had a nose for big plays in the secondary. Earned first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1980 after leading the Big Eight Conference with six interceptions, including three in a single game against San Diego State. Oddly enough, he also had three pass interceptions as a junior in a game versus San Diego State. His 14 career interceptions tied him for the MU career record at the time of his graduation, and still ranks second on the school charts. Also served double-duty as a punt returner, and was MU's top return man in 1980, as the Tigers went 8-4 and played in the Liberty Bowl. Went on to become a seventh-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in the 1981 NFL Draft, and played six years in the league, three each with the Packers and the St. Louis Cardinals.

1981 Brad Edelman, C

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Brad Edelman lettered as a standout center at Mizzou from 1978-81, and played on MU teams that appeared in four bowl games (1978 Liberty, 1979 Hall of Fame, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). He earned All-American status in as a senior co-captain in 1981, in addition to earning All-Big Eight honors as a junior in 1980. A member of the Missouri All-Century Team, Edelman played in the Hula Bowl and Olympia Gold Bowl all-star games following the 1981 season. He went on to a solid professional football career, playing in the National Football League with the New Orleans Saints from 1982-90 as an offensive guard. He was a Pro-Bowl starter in 1987, and was a Pro-Bowl alternate in 1982-83-84-88. Edelman worked as an actor in Hollywood for a period of time after finishing his pro football career.

1981 Jeff Gaylord, DT

A rugged defender who hailed from Overland Park, Kan., and lettered three years for Mizzou (1978-80-81), playing on MU teams that went to bowl games each year (1978 Liberty, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). Won Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors as a senior in 1981, making him to this day the only Tiger to win a conference defensive player of the year award. Was named All-Big Eight in 1981, and earned player of the game honors in MU's 1981 Tangerine Bowl victory over Southern Mississippi. Following his senior season, Gaylord played in the Blue-Gray Game, East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. He played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams, Toronto Argonauts and in the USFL, from 1982-85. He also was a professional wrestler for several years following his retirement from football.

1983 Conrad Goode, OT

An offensive tackle with good Tiger bloodlines, whose father, Conrad Hitchler, was an All-American end at MU in 1962. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Goode lettered at MU from 1980-83 and played on Missouri teams that appeared in three bowl games (1980 Liberty, 1981 Tangerine, 1983 Holiday). As a senior co-captain, earned All-America honors, in addition to being named All-Big Eight Conference. He played in the prestigious East-West Shrine all-star game following his senior season, and went on to play in the National Football League with the New York Giants (1984-85) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-89). Following his football playing days, became a successful actor in Hollywood, where he still works today.

1986 John Clay, OT

An earth-moving offensive tackle, John Clay was a St. Louis, Mo., native who earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 1986. He lettered four years for Mizzou, from 1983-86, and was a first-team All-Big Eight selection in 1984-85-86, joining former standouts Johnny Roland, Gary Lane and Phil Bradley as MU's only three-time all-league honorees in the Big Eight era. A team co-captain in 1986, Clay ended his collegiate career by playing in the prestigious Blue-Gray Game and East-West Shrine Game. He went on to become a first-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Raiders of the National Football League in 1987. He was later traded to the San Diego Chargers in 1988, but a back injury prematurely ended his promising career.

1998 Devin West, TB

He might have come to Mizzou from nearby Moberly, Mo., without much fanfare, but Devin West became one of the top running backs in school history before his playing days were done. Lettering for four years (1995-98), West ended his career as MU's No. 2 all-time career rusher, with 2,954 yards, and now stands number four. He would rank as MU's all-time leader if bowl games were counted in career totals during his day. Still holds MU record for all-purpose yardage in a season (1,621 in 1998) and game (333 vs. Kansas in 1998), and is fourth in career yardage (3,824). Was a first-team All-American running back (MU's first since Bob Steuber in 1942) as a senior in 1998, who helped lead Mizzou to an 8-4 season and a win over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl – MU's first bowl win since 1981. He rushed for 125 yards in the game. Rushed for an MU single-season record 1,578 yards in 1998, which ranked him fifth in the nation. Included in that total was a dominant 319-yard, two-touchdown rushing day against arch rival Kansas for Homecoming in 1998. Played in the Senior Bowl following the 1998 season, and was a semi-finalist for the prestigious Doak Walker Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top running back.

1999 Rob Riti, C

One of the best centers to ever play the game for Mizzou, Riti won first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1999, and became one of only seven Tigers to earn consensus All-American first-team honors. He was a key figure in MU rushing attacks that ranked among the nation's top-10 statistically three times. Started an MU-record 44 consecutive games from 1996-99, and helped pave the way for tailback Devin West to an All-American year in 1998 as the Tigers won their first bowl game since 1981, with a victory over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl. Was one of the strongest Tigers to ever don the Black and Gold, as he was the first MU player to record a 900-lb. squat lift in 1998, then topped that with a school-record 1,000-lb. lift in 1999.

2000 Justin Smith, DE

A first-team All-American as a junior who was virtually unstoppable, despite constant double-and even triple-teaming efforts by Tiger opponents. A fierce competitor with a tireless motor who left holding the MU career quarterback sack record, with 22.5 in just three years (now ranks second). Broke the MU single-season sack record in his junior year, recording 11 on his own. A native of Holts Summit, Mo., Smith declared for the NFL Draft after his stellar junior season, and became the fourth overall pick of the 2001 NFL Draft, by the Cincinnati Bengals, who he led in sacks each of his first two seasons in the league. Made an instant impression, as he became the first true freshman to start every game since 1986, when he started all 12 contests in 1998. Was a key factor for MU's defense that year that saw the Tigers earn their first bowl win since 1981, as they defeated West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl.

2007 Martin Rucker, TE

The top pass-catching tight end in Mizzou hsitory, Rucker won consensus first-team All-America honors as a senior in 2007 when he caught 84 passes for 834 yards and eight touchdowns in helping lead Mizzou to a 12-2 season and its first-ever Big 12 North Division title and a final No. 4 Associated Press ranking. Rucker was a vital part of the rebuilding of the Tiger program, and served as a leader and visual aid of the hard work and dedication needed to get the program back in the national scene. Rucker ended his Tiger career with a then MU-record 203 receptions, 2,175 yards and 18 TDs, as he started in an MU-record 50 consecutive games from 2004-07. His 84 catches in 2007 broke the MU single-season record, as well.

2007, 2008 Jeremy Maclin, All-Purpose

After missing the 2006 season due to a knee injury, redshirt freshman Jeremy Maclin burst onto the scene in record-setting fashion, and became MU's first-ever freshman to earn first-team All-American honors in 2007. He earned consensus first-team status by breaking the NCAA single-season freshman record for all-purpose yards, as he amassed a whopping 2,776 yards – including 1,055 receiving, 1,039 kickoff return, 375 rushing and 307 punt return. Maclin scored 16 touchdowns in all to become one of the most dynamic players in all of college football, with nine scores coming on receptions, four on the ground, two via punt returns and one on a kickoff return – the latter was an historic 99-yard kickoff return for score at Kansas State that was MU's first since 1982. He was the only player in Division I in 2007 to score touchdowns in all four all-purpose categories. He repeated with consensus first-team All-American honors in 2008 as he led the NCAA in all-purpose yardage (202.36 ypg) and broke MU single-season receiving records with 102 receptions, 1,260 yards and 13 TDs. In just two years, he broke the MU record for career all-purpose yardage, with 5,609 yards. He closed his career with Offensive MVP honors in the 2008 Alamo Bowl, as he returned a punt for TD and caught the game-winning TD pass from Chase Daniel in MU's 30-23 overtime win. Maclin chose to bypass his final two years of collegiate eligibility and entered the 2009 NFL Draft, where he was taken with the No. 19 overall selection in the first round by the Philadelphia Eagles.

2008 Chase Coffman, TE

Despite missing two games late in the year with a foot injury, Coffman established himself as the top tight end in all of college football, and won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors, marking the second straight year MU tight ends earned that distinction. Coffman surpassed former teammate Martin Rucker as MU's top pass-catching tight end of all-time, as he had 90 receptions in 2008 for 987 yards and 10 touchdowns. His play in 2008 not only earned him All-American honors, but won him the John Mackey Award, which goes annually to the nation's top tight end. That made Coffman the first Tiger in history to win a national individual award given to a specific position group. Coffman ended his career holding Mizzou records for receptions (247) and touchdowns (30), and was second all-time in receiving yards (2,659). He went on to become a third-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2009 NFL Draft.

2009 Danario Alexander, WR

Overcoming huge odds against him, Danario Alexander turned in a record-smashing senior season in 2009 to become the nation's leading receiver, and took home All-American honors in the process. Coming into his senior year, Alexander hadn't even earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 status, thanks mostly to the fact that his first three years were impacted by a string of unfortunate knee injuries. He was resolute in his determination to prove he belonged among the nation's elite receivers, and he did just that in 2009, as he burst onto the scene with an NCAA-best 137.0 yards per game average, which included an MU-record 1,781 yards, 14 touchdowns and 113 receptions. His yardage total was some 500 yards more than the previous record of 1,260 established in 2008 by Jeremy Maclin (in one fewer game, nonetheless), and it propelled Alexander to the top of the Mizzou career receiving yardage charts, with 2,778 (previous record was 2,704 by Justin Gage). He became only the fifth Tiger in history to lead the NCAA in an individual statistical category, and the first receiver since Hank Burnine led the country in 1955 with 44 receptions. Alexander had an MU-record nine 100-yard receiving games, including six straight to close the season. Included in that string were three 200-yard performances in a four-game stretch (214 vs. Baylor, 200 at Kansas State, 173 vs. Iowa State and 233 vs. Kansas). For his career, Alexander finished with 191 receptions for 2,778 yards and 22 touchdowns.

2009 Grant Ressel, PK

One of the more amazing stories to come out of college football during the 2009 season had to do with the previously unheralded sophomore walk-on kicker Grant Ressel, who rose from unknown status to become one of the nation's top kickers. Ressel began fall camp second on the depth chart as the Tigers looked to replace Jeff Wolfert, who left after the 2008 season holding the NCAA career record for combined kick accuracy. With those rather large shoes to fill, Ressel was named the starting kicker the week of the 2009 season opener, and proceeded to put together an amazing season which earned him All-American status. All he did was set an NCAA single-season combined kick accuracy record, as he connected on a combined 98.5% (65-of-66) of his kicks, including 26-of-27 field goals and 39-of-39 on extra points. He also led the NCAA in field goal percentage among those with 13 or more attempts (96.3%) and finished third nationally with 2.00 field goals made per game. Also etched his name firmly forever into the hearts of Tiger fans young and old, thanks to his game-winning 27-yard field goal as time expired to beat rival Kansas, 41-39, in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium to end the regular season and give Mizzou its eighth win of the year.

2010 Michael Egnew, TE

After catching a grand total of seven balls combined in his first two years in the program, junior TE Michael Egnew burst onto the national scene in 2010 when he won consensus first-team All-American honors, thanks to a 90-reception season that included 762 yards and five touchdowns. His 90 catches were most in the nation among all tight ends, and it tied former Tiger standout Chase Coffman (a 2008 consensus All-American tight end) for the MU single-season receptions record among tight ends. Egnew, who was a finalist for the John Mackey Tight End Award, became the third Tiger tight end to win consensus first-team All-American honors in four years (2007-10).

2013 Michael Sam, DE

After beginning his career at Mizzou by earning freshman All-American honors, rush end Michael Sam finished with a flurry, as he became only the second Tiger in history to win unanimous All-American honors during a magical senior season. Sam was a disruptive force rarely seen – even for a program like Mizzou that produces standout defensive linemen on a regular basis – as he led the Southeastern Conference and ranked 19th nationally in tackles for loss (19.0), while he was 2nd in the league and 14th nationally with an MU single-season record-tying 11.5 QB sacks. Sam had a trio of three-sack games (Arkansas State, Vanderbilt and Florida), to get his name in the national conversation, and he capped his career with a bang as he got a trademark sack/fumble in the final minute of the 2014 AT&T Cotton Bowl that was picked up and returned by teammate Shane Ray for a game-clinching touchdown in the 41-31 win over former conference rival Oklahoma State. Sam would finish his Tiger career ranked fourth all-time on the sacks list, with 21.0.

2014 Shane Ray, DE

Shane Ray kept the #DLineZou bus rolling, as he made it two consecutive SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors, and won consensus first-team All-American status for an eye-opening 2014 season as he helped lead the Tigers to an 11-3 mark and a second-straight SEC Eastern Division title. Ray made play after play in opposing offenses' backfield, as he broke the Mizzou single-season quarterback sacks record, with 14.5 (breaking the old mark of 11.5 from former standouts Aldon Smith and Michael Sam). He also led the team with 22.5 tackles for loss and ranked all season long among the national leaders in both categories, finishing third in the NCAA in sacks and fifth in TFLs, while he led the SEC in both categories. Ray finished his junior campaign with 65 tackles, a team-best three forced fumbles and five pass break ups. Ray chose to bypass his final year of eligibility to enter the 2015 NFL Draft, and that decision paid off when he was taken with the #23 overall selection in the first round by the Denver Broncos.

2014 Marcus Murphy, Special Teams

One of the most electrifying all-purpose men to ever play for Mizzou, Murphy became a first-team All-American in his senior season of 2014 as he ranked sixth nationally in kickoff returns (29.6 avg.) and 11th in punt returns (10.4 avg.) while he also took home the Southeastern Conference Special Teams Player of the Year award. Murphy, who was a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award as a senior, led the SEC with his 1,921 all-purpose yards and was the only player in FBS in 2014 to score a touchdown via a kickoff return, punt return, rush and pass reception. He broke the Mizzou career record for combined kick return yardage, and had a game to remember at Florida in 2014, when he took the opening kickoff back 96 yards for a touchdown, and later in the same game returned a punt 82 yards for a score. Finished the season with 924 rushing yards, 212 receiving yards, 281 punt return yards and 504 kick return yards, and was instrumental in MU's 33-17 Citrus Bowl victory over Minnesota, as he ran for a career-high 157 yards.

2015 Kentrell Brothers, LB

A student of the game who parlayed his penchant for video study – along with his relentless work ethic and outstanding instincts for the game – into first-team All-American status as a senior in 2015 when he led the nation in tackles (12.67 per game) for a Tiger defense that was ranked among the nation's best in several categories (5th in points allowed [16.2 ppg]; 5th in passing defense [169.3 ypg]; 6th in total defense [302.0 ypg]). Finished his final season as a Tiger by racking up 152 tackles in just 12 games, while he also led the nation with three blocked kicks during the season. He tallied 12.0 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks in 2015, while adding a pair of interceptions as well. Finished his career with 358 total tackles, which ranks eighth on the alltime Mizzou tackles chart.

COACHING LEGEND DON FAUROT

Don Faurot is widely recognized as the man who had the greatest impact on intercollegiate athletics at the University of Missouri.

Faurot's association with MU started when he was a young boy who'd sneak into old Rollins Field to watch the football Tigers play and practice. Later, he was a three-sport letterman at Missouri from 1922-24.

But it was as football coach and director of athletics that Faurot left his legacy on the University, and the sport. Even when he terminated his employment with the MU Athletic Department nearly 40 years ago, he never really found a way to retire, maintaining an office at the Tom Taylor Building where he spent several hours nearly every day. He was a regular attendee at football practice until his passing in 1995.

Faurot served as football coach from 1935 through 1956 — with three years out for Navy service during World War II. Aside from leading the Tigers out of debt and into football's big time, Faurot's tenure as football coach and director of athletics — a job he relinquished in 1967 — left MU athletics with its greatest legacy, the imprint of his integrity.

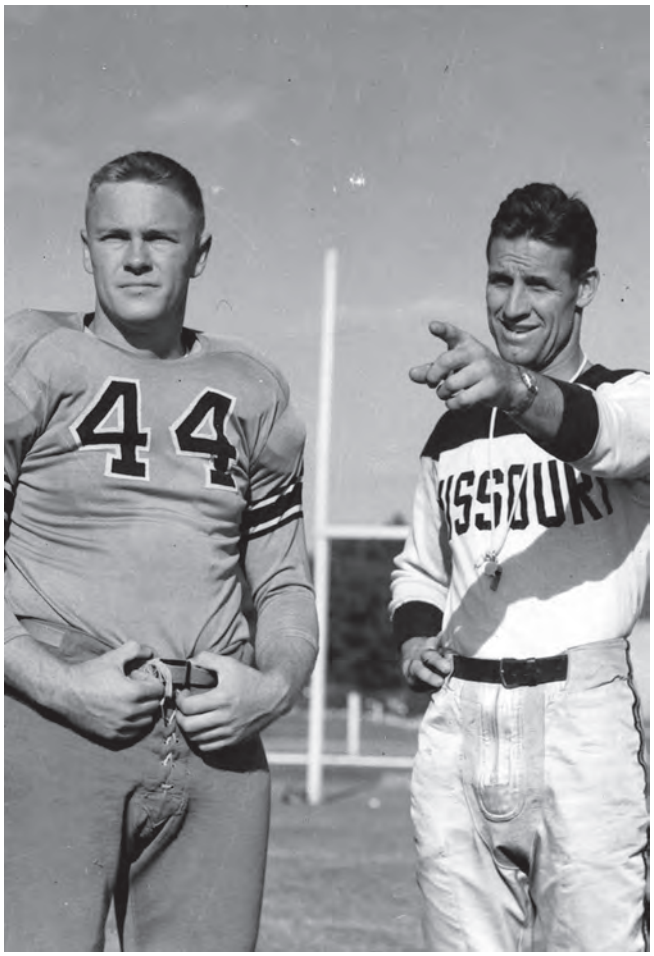
His prime contribution to football was his innovation of the Split-T formation at Mizzou in 1941. In the post-World War II era countless universities adopted the Faurot formation — and more than 60 years later, it is still in vogue today at all levels of football. Several of football's most notable formations — the Wishbone, Wingbone, Veer or I-attack and others — utilize Faurot's option play as their basic concept.

In 19 years as Tiger football coach, the Faurot record was 101 wins, 79 losses and 10 ties. His 1939 team, featuring All-American Paul Christman, won Faurot's first Big Six title and the Tigers' first modern-day bowl bid (Orange).

Though he inherited an insolvent department and a downtrodden football program at MU in 1935, Faurot left the department 32 years later virtually debt-free despite continual expansion and improvements. On a national level, his football teams of the late 1930s and early '40s projected the University of Missouri into the upper strata of collegiate competition.

He also accumulated a staff of coaches and administrators who spent long tenures at the University, and were honored by induction into their respective halls of fame — baseball coach John "Hi" Simmons, track coach Tom Botts, football coaches Dan Devine and Frank Broyles, sports information director Bill Callahan, and former head trainer Fred Wappel, among others.

Faurot was a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame, the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor, the Blue-Gray Game Hall of Fame, past president of the American Football Coaches Association, and recipient of the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for his distinguished service in the advancement of the best interests of football.



COACHING LEGEND DON FAUROT

In 1972, the Tigers' football playing surface was officially named for him — something he said probably rated as his greatest personal honor. As a graduate student in agriculture in 1926, Faurot helped lay the sod on the field, prior to the opening of Memorial Stadium, that fall. In '95, he placed the final square of sod as MU successfully converted the stadium's floor back to natural grass.

Right up through 1994, Faurot was active as a talent procurer and coach for the annual Blue-Gray football game in Montgomery, Ala. He was secretary of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for many years, and was also the executive secretary of the Missouri Senior Golf Association. He spent a term after his retirement as assistant director in charge of special events for the MU Alumni Association.

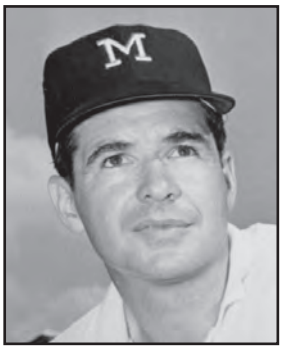
Faurot's entire collegiate coaching experience, including nine years at Kirksville State Teachers College (now Truman State University) was spent within the state's borders. His career record was 169-92-13.

One of four brothers to win a football letter at MU, Don — the eldest — was a three-sport letterman in the early twenties. A lightweight fullback in football, he captained the basketball team, and was an infielder in baseball. He was born in Mountain Grove, Mo., on June 23, 1902. He passed away Oct. 19, 1995 in Columbia, the week of Homecoming. He was 93 years old.

COACHING LEGEND DAN DEVINE

If it's true that one must examine the past to appreciate the future, then there is no question that the legendary Dan Devine will always occupy a special place in the history of intercollegiate athletics at the University of Missouri.

For Devine is a part of both … football coach, and athletic director, during the 1960s when the Tigers were one of the most dominant teams in the nation; and athletic director for two separate terms during which he was involved in many decisions that will impact Mizzou's athletic future for many years to come.



Devine coached the Tiger football team during its most successful period. During the decade of the 1960s, Devine's winning percentage of .767 at Mizzou was the best of any college coach. He took the Tigers to six bowl games (winning four). In 13 seasons at Mizzou, he compiled a stellar 93-37-7 record. Throughout the '60s, Devine-coached Missouri teams ranked consistently among the nation's top-20 teams. Eight of his players were first-team All-America selections. When he left Mizzou after the 1970 season to coach the NFL's Green Bay Packers, Devine was the dean of Big Eight Conference coaches.

In the national polls, the 1960 Tiger team – Orange Bowl winners over Navy – achieved the highest niche, fifth in the final ratings, after having held the only number-one ranking in school history earlier in the season. The 1965 Tigers were ranked sixth nationally – and so was the '69 team. The 1969 Tigers were acclaimed by the Touchdown Club of Columbus (Ohio) as "the best major college football team playing the toughest schedule."

During his first term as MU's director of athletics (1967-70), Devine put into place plans for what resulted in the construction of the Hearnes Center, saw the construction of a new press box at Memorial Stadium, and hired Norm Stewart to resurrect what was then a sagging men's basketball program.

During Devine's second term as athletic director at MU (1992-94), his challenge was different – to increase fundraising for the athletic department, to improve MU athletic facilities, and to raise the spirits of the Tiger faithful.

The results will show that Devine was successful in every endeavor. Between 1992-94, he raised the funds necessary to enlarge the Tom Taylor Athletic Training Complex, a project that took less than one year to complete. He spearheaded the search committee that identified Joe Castiglione as his successor in the athletic director's chair, and hired Larry Smith to lead the MU football program – announcements that were made on the same day in December, 1993.

He took special pride in the accomplishments of the MU basketball team, often occupying a special seat on the Tiger bench during games.

In 1971, Devine became coach and general manager of the Green Bay Packers, where he was the NFL "Coach of the Year" after winning a Central Division championship in 1972 – Green Bay's only title for many years in the post-Vince Lombardi era.

He moved on as head coach at Notre Dame in 1975, and took the Fighting Irish to the national championship in 1977. During six years at NDU, he had a record of 53-16.

Devine returned to Arizona State in 1981, where he had begun as a college coach in 1955, to become executive director of the Sun Angel Foundation. Later, he served as director of community education and substance abuse prevention at ASU. In 1990, he received the Distinguished Arizonian Award, ASU's centennial medal, and was placed in the Arizona State Hall of Distinction.

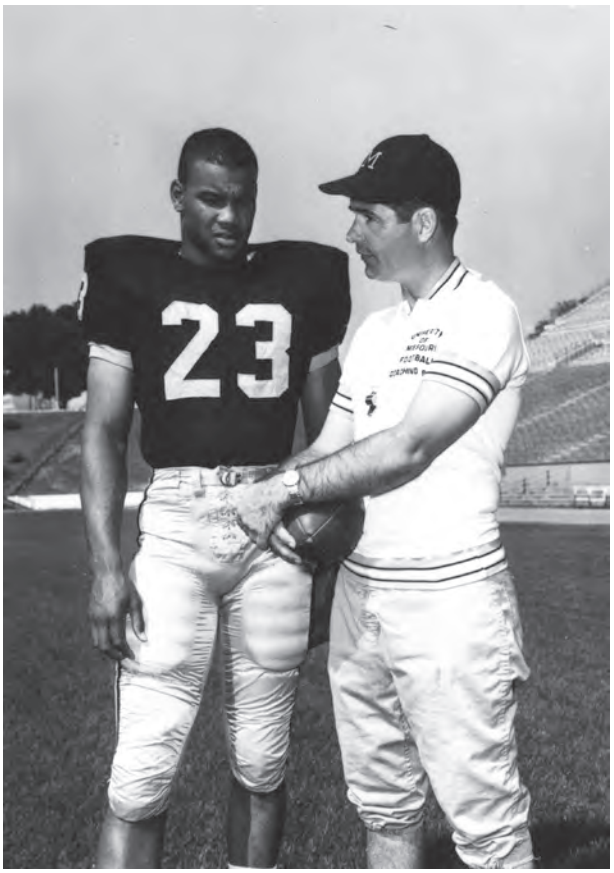
With a 172-57-9 record overall, Devine was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1985. He was inducted into the State of Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1973, was a charter member of the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990, and also that year was selected by Tiger fans as the coach of MU's all-century team. He was later posthumously honored at Mizzou when the Tigers' indoor practice facility was permanently named the Daniel J. Devine Pavilion, in 1998.

In 1978, Devine's service as an Irish-American "to God and Country" was recognized with the prestigious John F. Kennedy Award. He served on the National Council on Alcoholism, and in 1987, was appointed by President Ronald Reagan to the White House Conference for a Drug-Free America.

Devine was first hired at Mizzou by Athletic Director Don Faurot in 1958, to replace Frank Broyles, who spent one year as MU's football coach. That was after Devine had compiled a 27-3-1 record in three sparkling seasons at Arizona State.

A Wisconsin native, Devine played football, basketball and baseball at Duluth State (now the University of Minnesota-Duluth), captaining the football and basketball teams. He enrolled there in 1941, but a tour of Army Air Force duty in World War II as a first lieutenant bombardier extended his graduation date until 1948.



Then followed two seasons of high school coaching at East Jordan, Mich., with a couple of unbeaten teams there undoubtedly providing a springboard for his jump to Michigan State, in 1950. There, he formulated much of his coaching philosophy during five years on the staffs of Clarence "Biggie" Munn and Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. He earned a master's degree in guidance and counseling at Michigan State in 1952.

Devine was born Dec. 23, 1924, in Augusta, Wis., and married the former Joanne Brookhart, with whom he parented seven children. Devine passed away in May of 2002 at the age of 77 in Phoenix, Ariz., after a year-long illness.

COACHING LEGEND GARY PINKEL

When Mizzou was looking for its newest head coach to lead its football program after a coaching change following the 2000 season, Gary Pinkel was the choice. And what a choice it was.

Pinkel used his disciplined approach and focus on a family environment and transformed Mizzou into a national program after taking over on Nov. 30, 2000, and concluded his career as the winningest coach in school history. He amassed a 118-73 record at Mizzou in 15 seasons, and his 191 career wins stood as the 19th-most all-time in NCAA FBS history at the time of his retirement following the 2015 season.

Under his guidance, Mizzou won five conference divisional titles (2007, 2008, 2010, 2013, 2014), reached 10 bowl games (winning six) and had five teams post a final top-20 national ranking (including two top-five finishes). His Tigers posted winning seasons in 10-of-15 years, following a stretch where Mizzou had only two winning seasons in the 17 seasons (1984-2000) prior to his arrival. He was named the National Coach of the Year in 2007 by FieldTurf, and won conference coach of the year honors in 2007 (Big 12) and 2014 (SEC).

Two times, Pinkel had his Tigers one win away from playing for a national championship, as wins in the 2007 and 2013 conference championship games likely would have propelled MU into national title game appearances.

In 2007, Mizzou surged to the school's first number one national ranking since 1960 after a watershed win over rival Kansas at Arrowhead Stadium on Nov. 24, 2007, when the Tigers were ranked fourth and the Jayhawks second coming into the game. That team would eventually end the season with a school-record 12 wins that included a Cotton Bowl title and final national ranking of fourth.

Pinkel worked perhaps his finest coaching job in 2013, one year after Mizzou joined the vaunted Southeastern Conference and suffered an injury-plagued 5-7 season in 2012. Picked to finish sixth out of seven teams in the SEC Eastern Division by pre-season pundits, the Tigers jumped out to a 7-0 record and finished 11-1 and East Division champs. They would go on to a 12-win season, with another Cotton Bowl title, and final national ranking of fifth.

Off the field, Pinkel's transformation of the Mizzou program into a national player played a crucial role in the University of Missouri being in position to join the Southeastern Conference in 2012. Had MU not realized the success it did under Pinkel and staff, the school very likely would not have been granted membership into the vaunted league.

A testament to the consistency that Pinkel and his staff have developed at Mizzou is the fact that MU was one of only six schools in BCS-AQ conferences to have posted at least eight wins each season from 2006-11. The others in that very select group included: LSU, Oklahoma, USC, Virginia Tech and West Virginia.

In 2010, Mizzou posted its third 10-win season in four years under Pinkel, as MU went 10-3 overall, including a 6-2 mark in Big 12 Conference play that earned it a spot atop the North Division rankings for the third time since 2007. Included among those 10 wins was a watershed moment for the program, and for Tiger Nation overall – a 36-27 win over top-ranked Oklahoma on Homecoming, which marked the first-ever win by Mizzou over a #1-ranked team.

A sign of growing respect for the work that Pinkel and his staff did to build the program came along with that win over Oklahoma. That week, Mizzou was the focal point of the entire college football universe, as ESPN sent its wildly popular traveling show, "ESPN GameDay," to the MU campus. A record crowd of an estimated 18,000 Tiger fans packed the picturesque Francis Quadrangle for the Saturday morning show, and made everyone associated with the school glow with pride. A national audience watched the GameDay program, and then the nation promptly watched the Tigers pull away in the fourth quarter against the Sooners to move to 7-0 on a season for only the third time in school history.

Long considered a "sleeping giant" of a program, Mizzou had a breakthrough 2003 season under Pinkel's guidance. The eight regular-season wins marked the first time since 1980 – and only the fourth time since 1960 – that MU had amassed that many wins in the regular season. The team became only the ninth in MU's history to accomplish the feat.

Mizzou's 41-24 win over #10 Nebraska on Oct. 11th was one for the history books, as it broke a 24-game losing streak to the Huskers for MU, making Pinkel the first Tiger coach to beat Nebraska since Warren Powers in 1978.

The Nebraska win also marked MU's first victory over a top-10 opponent since 1981, breaking a string of 45-straight losses to top-10 foes for the school.

Pinkel's emphasis on molding young men into successful student-athletes was evidenced by the great achievements they had in the classroom. Mizzou improved its NCAA Graduation Success Rate for nine-straight years, and graduated 97 percent of its seniors in Pinkel's final five seasons.

Getting athletes to the next level was another mark of success for Pinkel and his program. In his time at Mizzou, 35 Tigers were selected in the NFL Draft, including seven in the first round. Mizzou had 12 players taken in the first round of the NFL Draft in the previous 64 years combined (1937-2001) prior to Pinkel taking over.

Pinkel came to Missouri after spending 10 very successful years as head coach at Toledo (1991-2000), where he amassed an impressive 73-37-3 record and left as UT's all-time winningest coach. Prior to becoming a head coach, Pinkel learned the trade from one of the all-time great coaches, the legendary Don James. For 12 years as an assistant under James at Washington (1979-90), Pinkel helped guide the Huskies to a combined record of 104-37-2 (73.4%) and three Pac-10 Conference titles. He served as UW's offensive coordinator for seven seasons (1984-90), and helped mold one of the nation's most potent offensive attacks.

Pinkel played under James at Kent State University, where he was an all-conference and honorable mention All-American tight end. He received his bachelor of science degree in education from Kent in 1973, and did post-graduate studies at Kent and Bowling Green.

THE TIGER NICKNAME

The nickname "Tigers," given to Mizzou's athletic teams, traces its origin to the Civil War period. At that time, plundering guerilla bands habitually raided small towns, and Columbia people constantly feared an attack. Such organizations as temporary "home guards" and vigilance companies banded together to fight off any possible forays.

The town's preparedness discouraged any guerilla activity and the protecting organization began to disband in 1854. However, it was rumored that a guerilla band, led by the notorious Bill Anderson, intended to sack the town. Quickly organized was an armed guard of Columbia citizens, who built a blockhouse and fortified the old courthouse in the center of town. This company was called "The Missouri Tigers."

The marauders never came. The reputation of the intrepid "Tigers" presumably traveled abroad, and Anderson's gang detoured around Columbia.

Soon after Missouri's first football team was organized in 1890, the athletic committee adopted the nickname "Tiger" in official recognition of those Civil War defenders.

Their spirit is now embodied in the MU mascot — "Truman the Tiger." Named for the Missouri-bred President of the United States — Harry S. Truman — the mascot performs at all MU football and basketball games, and many other athletic events. Truman also makes numerous civic appearances, at schools, hospitals, county fairs, etc.

Truman has been acclaimed "Best Mascot in the Nation" in national competition twice in recent years. In the fall of 2012, Truman was one of 16 mascots in the running for the popular Capital One Mascot Challenge, and Truman reached the round of eight before being eliminated in the fan voting contest.

MU'S 1st HOMECOMING GAME

Legend says that the Homecoming tradition got its start at the University of Missouri in 1911, thanks to the vision and efforts of Chester L. Brewer, MU's Director of Athletics. Although other schools make similar claims to being the originators of the tradition, Missouri certainly was among the first to hold a homecoming football game.

That year, the Missouri-Kansas game was to be played on a college campus for the first time. Previously, the game had been played in either Kansas City or St. Joseph, and Missouri trailed in the series by a 12-5-3 count.

Brewer wanted to add some spice to the season-ending game in Columbia, so he issued a plea to Mizzou alumni and especially to former Tiger football players to "Come Home" for the game. They did, with a record crowd of 9,000 overflowing Rollins Field.

With four minutes to play, and MU trailing by three, Tiger captain Glen Shuck booted a tying field goal from a difficult angle. Then, little Billy Blees caught a rampaging KU fullback in the open field in the final seconds to preserve the tie, and was carried off the field.

Hence, "Homecoming" was born. MU has a 60-39-5 record in Homecoming games. Not surprisingly, Kansas has been the most common Homecoming opponent 27 times — with MU leading in those games, 18-7-2, although the two clubs did not meet on Homecoming from 1960 until 2000.

MIZZOU BOWL RECAPS

1924 Christmas Festival

USC 20, Missouri 9

L.A. Coliseum — Los Angeles, Calif.

Missouri's first football team to play in a bowl game, the 1924 squad which lost to USC, 20-7, in the Christmas Festival, would not have even played in that bowl game were it not for an enormous stroke of luck.

Southern California and Stanford had tied for the Pacific Coast Conference title and the right to play Notre Dame in the Rose Bowl. The Rose Bowl took Stanford, and USC seemed to be left out of the bowl picture.

Instead, the city of Los Angeles chose to honor the Trojans in a Christmas Day game, called the Christmas Festival. The best remaining team in the nation was to be chosen as USC's opponent. Missouri, the Missouri Valley champion with a loss to Nebraska its only setback in eight games, was chosen to play in the game.

While the selection was an honor, Mizzou had expected to be spending the holiday at home and had not held practice in nearly two weeks when the Tigers headed to California. Perhaps this should have served as a warning to the Tigers.

Despite the layoff, Mizzou performed well early particularly on defense, and found itself in a scoreless deadlock at halftime. An unexpected delay at halftime apparently got the Tigers off track though, as Southern Cal engineered three long scoring drives against the Tiger defense. The Trojans ran away with a 20-7 victory in MU's first bowl appearance.

1940 Orange Bowl

Georgia Tech 21, Missouri 7

Orange Bowl — Miami, Fla.

The 1939 Missouri Tigers headed into the eighth annual Orange Bowl well aware that the Georgia Tech Engineers and quarterback Johnny Bosch would use ball-faking and offensive deception to win the game. Bust Bosch still fooled the Tiger defense and over 30,000 fans with his play-action fakes.

After Missouri's star, quarterback "Pitchin'" Paul Christman, plunged across from the 1-yard line to give the Tigers an early 7-0 lead, it was all Tech. Bosch's offense used trickery to its full advantage in a 21-7 victory, ending Missouri's first Big Six Championship season in defeat.

Georgia Tech's Howard Ector scored on a 1-yard run to answer Christman and tie the game at 7. Then the tricky Tech offense, with a little help from a stingy defense, put the game away.

Bob Ison gave the Engineers their first lead, 14-7, on a 59-yard end around in the second quarter. The final score of the game came on another trick play, a 34-yard double reverse. These big plays were over one-third of Georgia Tech's 210-yard rushing total.

The Tigers had chances to earn their first bowl victory, but failed gambles and Tech's goal-line defense denied them.

In the second quarter, still tied at 7, Mizzou faced a 4th-and-15 from Georgia Tech's 37. Rather than punting, Coach Don Faurot chose to go for it. A pass failed and Tech marched down the field in just three plays for the go-ahead score.

Down 21-7, the Tigers mounted a final scoring effort. They drove to the Tech 2 before Christman was stopped on fourth and goal. Georgia Tech then took over on downs and ran out the clock to preserve the 21-7 triumph.

1942 Sugar Bowl

Fordham 2, Missouri 0

Tulane Stadium — New Orleans, La.

The 1942 Sugar Bowl was a textbook example of the term defensive struggle. Missouri, spearheaded by a defensive unit which had allowed just 37 points in nine regular-season games, held Fordham to only a first quarter safety on a punt blocked out of the end zone. But even that was too much for an uncharacteristically impotent Tiger offense to overcome. Hurt by four turnovers, Mizzou fell to Fordham, 2-0.

During the regular season, Missouri had beaten five teams by shutout and outscored opponents by nearly 19 points a game. Harry Ice, Red Wade and Bob Steuber were the "Touchdown Trio" that led Missouri's dangerous Split-T rushing attack. Fordham, however, held Missouri's rushing game relatively in check, giving up 148 yards, and forcing two fumbles by a squad that had led the nation in rushing. Mizzou's defense was equal to the task in a losing effort, giving up just 137 total yards, including none through the air.

Neither team could cross the goal line and, in a game which featured more penalty yards than passing yards (40-21), Fordham's safety was enough scoring for the victory.

MIZZOU BOWL RECAPS

1946 Cotton Bowl

Texas 40, Missouri 27

Cotton Bowl — Dallas, Texas

The 1946 Cotton Bowl pitted two teams with totally opposite histories: the Texas Longhorns who had never lost a bowl game and the Missouri Tigers who had never won one. The result was not the expected rout, but a record-breaking shoot-out which Texas won, 40-27.

The game featured 980 yards of total offense (514 for Missouri, 466 for Texas) and a Cotton Bowl-record 67 points. Missouri rolled up a stunning 408 yards rushing in the game and had two men over 100. Leonard Brown had 121 yards on 18 carries, and Robert Hopkins led the team with 125 yards and a touchdown on 16 attempts.

All this offense could not deter the Longhorns though, whom Missouri must have wanted to rename "The Bobby Layne Show." Layne, Texas' legendary quarterback, had a hand in each of the Longhorns' six touchdowns. He ran for three scores (1, 1, and 2 yards), threw for two (15 and 48), and caught one (50). Layne also made four of five PATs.

While Texas used a one-man demolition crew to win, Missouri had four players score touchdowns on the day, all finishing drives of 62 yards or more. But it wasn't enough to beat Layne and the Longhorns who had six drives of 60 or more yards and walked away victorious from yet another bowl game.

1948 Gator Bowl

Clemson 24, Missouri 23

Gator Bowl — Jacksonville, Fla.

Missouri headed to the fourth annual Gator Bowl in 1948 expecting to get its first post-season victory over a Clemson team which had won just one bowl game in its history. Instead what the Tigers got was a surprising 24-23 defeat and another empty-handed trip home.

The game was every bit as close as the scoreboard suggested. Each team had 298 yards total offense and three touchdowns. It was Jack Miller's 32-yard FG for Clemson, offsetting a 3rd quarter safety by Mizzou, which gave Clemson the margin of victory.

In a match-up where even the teams' mascots were the same (the Tigers), they also copied each other's manner of scoring. Both teams had two first-half touchdowns. Clemson's Fred Cone had two scoring runs in the first quarter and Mizzou's Bus Entsminger tied it with two touchdown scampers of his own in the second. Each team scored its final touchdown on a halfback option touchdown pass with Missouri's safety and Clemson's field goal sandwiched in between.

Despite all the build-up of Entsminger and Clemson tailback Bobby Gage, both of whom performed well, and the razzle-dazzle of two halfback passes, it was nothing but the ordinary which decided the outcome. Miller's 32-yard kick from a difficult angle proved to be just enough for the Clemson victory.

1949 Gator Bowl

Maryland 20, Missouri 7

Gator Bowl — Jacksonville, Fla.

At the 1949 Gator Bowl, the Missouri Tigers faced an unfamiliar team at a familiar site. Making its second consecutive January trip to Jacksonville, Fla., Mizzou met the Maryland Terrapins for the first time on the gridiron. The Tigers did not receive a kind greeting.

Though Mizzou outgained the Terps by 25 total yards and had more first downs, the game was never close on the scoreboard. Maryland turned an interception and two Tiger fumbles into first-half touchdowns and had a 10-0 lead at the half.

In the first quarter, Mizzou signal caller Dick Braznell was intercepted and Maryland's John Idzik returned the ball to the Mizzou 11. On the very next play Bob Shenonski gave the Terps the lead for good on an 11-yard run.

Tiger fortunes got no better in the second quarter when first Braznell and then John Glorioso fumbled, setting Maryland up in outstanding field position at the Tiger 28 and then the 15, respectively. Both turnovers became Maryland touchdowns and the Terrapins had this one in hand by halftime.

Late in the fourth quarter the Tigers forced a Maryland fumble at the Mizzou four. They then drove 96 yards and Phil Klein scored the Tigers' lone touchdown on a five-yard run to avoid the shutout. But with less than two minutes to play, it was too little too late to stop a fifth straight bowl game from ending in defeat for Missouri.

MIZZOU BOWL RECAPS

1960 Orange Bowl

Georgia 14, Missouri 0

Orange Bowl — Miami, Fla.

Missouri's 1959 squad gained the school's second Orange Bowl berth, the first in 20 years, by defeating Kansas, 13-9, on the season's last day. The second-place Tigers went to Miami because Oklahoma had won the conference championship the year before as well and conference rules at the time forbade a team from playing in the same bowl two straight years. Unfortunately for Mizzou, this Orange Bowl trip ended just as the first one had—in defeat to a team from Georgia.

In 1940 it was Georgia Tech which sent the Tigers reeling. This time, Fran Tarkenton and the Georgia Bulldogs beat Mizzou in Miami in shutout style, 14-0.

The Tigers went into the 1960 game with a pass defense that was seen as weak—not a good thing to have against Tarkenton, who went on to throw more touchdowns than any quarterback in NFL history. However, the game took on a familiar look as MU outgained its opponent, both in the air, on the arm of quarterback Phil Snowden, and in total yards, but were still beaten.

Outside of two scoring passes from Tarkenton, a 29-yarder in the first quarter and a 33-yarder in the third, Georgia never posed a real threat. Punter Bobby Walden kicked it away seven times. In fact it was Walden's leg which kept the Bulldogs ahead, repeatedly pinning Missouri in its own end.

Mizzou did, however, have numerous opportunities to dent the scoreboard. Three times Mizzou had first downs inside the Bulldog 25 and twice inside the 10, but could never convert those chances into points.

1961 Orange Bowl

Missouri 21, Navy 14

Orange Bowl — Miami, Fla.

Missouri's 1960 team was the first to be ranked No. 1 nationally. The Tigers began the season with nine straight victories, a string which included Oklahoma's first home conference loss since 1942. Only a 23-7 loss to Kansas knocked them from that pedestal, however, Mizzou was later awarded a win when it was discovered the Jayhawks had used an ineligible player. The Tigers got their second straight Orange Bowl bid in the first year a team was allowed to play in the same bowl two consecutive years.

Mizzou's opponents were the Navy Midshipmen, a team boasting Heisman Trophy winner, halfback Joe Bellino. The Tigers held Bellino to four yards rushing, a key to their 21-14 victory.

The game's opening quarter was so bizarre and exciting, it nearly made the rest of the game seem uneventful. The circus started with Missouri on Navy's 2-yard line, threatening to score. But on the next play, Navy's Greg Mather scooped up a fumble and returned it for a 98-yard score, the longest play in Orange Bowl history, for a 6-0 Middie lead. Not to be outdone, Mizzou's Norm Beal picked off a Hal Spooner pass at the Tiger 10 and brought it back for a Missouri touchdown and a 7-6 advantage.

After this riotous exchange of touchdowns, the game settled into a Missouri domination at the line of scrimmage. The Tigers went on drives of 80 and 74 yards, piling up 296 yards rushing to Navy's minus-8. Mel West led the way for the Tigers with 111 yards and Donnie Smith helped out with 93.

Despite Mizzou's ground domination, it was the pass defense which preserved the victory, grabbing four interceptions, including two by Andy Russell and one by Fred Brossart on the game's final play.

The triumph capped an undefeated season and Mizzou finished 4th in the UPI and 5th in the AP polls. In those days final polls were released before bowl games, so in the AP poll Missouri was actually ranked behind Navy in the final poll.

1966 Sugar Bowl

Missouri 20, Florida 18

Tulane Stadium — New Orleans, La.

The 1966 Sugar Bowl was a tale of two halves. The Missouri Tigers led the Florida Gators at halftime, 17-0 and added a third quarter field goal to make it 20-0. But the Gators came roaring back and scored three fourth-quarter touchdowns thanks to talented quarterback, Steve Spurrier. Spurrier, the game's MVP and the winner of the 1966 Heisman Trophy, threw for two scores and ran for one to spearhead a comeback which was thwarted only when Mizzou's defense, eighth in the country in points allowed, stiffened and stopped all three 2-point conversions.

In its second Sugar Bowl appearance, Missouri's ground game was dominant. The Tigers boasted the country's third-rated rushing attack at 247 yards a game. They topped that with 257 while holding Florida to minus-2. Because of Mizzou's defense against the run and the early deficit, Florida was forced to pass often. Spurrier put the ball in the air a record 46 times. He also set Sugar Bowl records with 27 completions, 16 coming in the wild fourth quarter, and 352 yards passing, but did so in a losing effort.

Halfback Charlie Brown and quarterback Gary Lane led Mizzou with 120 and 76 yards rushing, respectively. Brown also scored the first touchdown of the game on a 10-yard sweep early in the second quarter. Earl Denny had the other Tiger touchdown on an 11-yard halfback option catch from Johnny Roland.

The victory landed the 8-2-1 Tigers in sixth place in the national polls, just behind Big Eight champion Nebraska, which had beaten the Tigers earlier in the year on a late field goal.

1968 Gator Bowl

Missouri 35, Alabama 10

Gator Bowl — Jacksonville, Fla.

Missouri's third trip to the Gator Bowl game was its first that ended in victory—and it came convincingly, 35-10 over Alabama.

The Tigers were on a two-game losing streak as they prepared for the Crimson Tide, national champs just two years before and ranked 12th in the country. The result was the most lopsided bowl victory in Missouri's history and Paul "Bear" Bryant's worst defeat at Alabama to date in his 11-year career.

Led by Greg Cook, who tallied 179 yards rushing and a touchdown and Terry McMillan, with 76 yards and three scores, Mizzou gained 402 yards of total offense, all rushing. The offense put on its show while Alabama was held to less than 100 total yards. The Tiger defense sacked Tide quarterbacks 12 times. 'Bama's only touchdown came on defense, a 38-yard interception return by Donnie Sutton.

Despite complete domination for three quarters, Missouri led just 14-7 going into the fourth. The Tigers then turned it on. Following an interception by All-American Roger Wehrli, his second of the game, McMillan scored from 2 yards out and made the lead 21-10. On the Tigers' next possession, Cook rambled 37 yards and put Mizzou up 28-10. Dennis Poppe then returned an interception 47 yards for the final margin.

Alabama came into the game seeking its ninth consecutive national top-10 finish. What it got instead was its first loss to a Big Eight team, and only Bear Bryant's fifth loss by more than seven points in his 140-game career.

MU's performance, which boosted it to ninth in the polls, inspired Bryant to say, "They ran up and down the field as though they were playing a barbers' college team."

1970 Orange Bowl

Penn State 10, Missouri 3

Orange Bowl — Miami, Fla.

Missouri's 1969 team was a record setter in many ways. The Tigers, 9-1 Big Eight co-champions and ranked 5th in the country, set records for points and total yards gained in a season. Quarterback Terry McMillan and running back Joe Moore set individual records for yardage at their respective positions. It was therefore shocking the way the 1970 Orange Bowl took shape.

Penn State, riding a 29-game winning streak, used its defense to dominate Mizzou's highly touted offense to win 10-3. But it was the Tiger defense which kept Missouri in the game and gave the Tigers a chance to win.

The Nittany Lion defense forced nine Tiger turnovers including a disastrous five-interception performance by McMillan. Missouri's defensive unit was nearly as good though, allowing just 10 points and forcing 12 Penn State punts in the contest. Thanks to the defensive effort, Missouri was at the Penn State 14-yard line in the last minute, still down just 7.

Penn State coach Joe Paterno said the Tigers "had us backed up to where I was thinking about what kind of defense we'd use for a two-point conversion."

Penn State avoided that dilemma when safety Neil Smith intercepted McMillan for the seventh and final time. In the end, Penn State's defense, which Tiger coach Dan Devine said was far better than any other the Tigers had seen, was too much for the Missouri offense.

1972 Fiesta Bowl

Arizona State 49, Missouri 35

Sun Devil Stadium — Tempe, Ariz.

Contrary to popular belief, there were defenses on the field in the '72 Fiesta Bowl. But not according to the final stats.

The 49-35 Arizona State win featured 1,129 yards of total offense (718 for ASU, 411 for Mizzou), 681 yards rushing (452 by ASU, 229 by MU), four touchdowns of over 30 yards, including a 100-yard kickoff return by Missouri's Mike Fink, and 84 points.

Sun Devil All-American Woody Green ran for 202 yards and four touchdowns including a 17-yarder and a 21-yarder in Arizona State's decisive 21-point fourth quarter. Fullback Brent McClanahan also topped 100 yards for Arizona State, totaling 171 in 26 carries.

Mizzou trailed 28-7 at half after two scores by Green, McClanahan's only TD and a 34-yard scoring pass from Danny White to Ed Beverly on which it seemed Missouri's Fink had an end-zone interception.

But the Tigers, as they had all year, clawed back after the break. Fink's return and two passes from John Cherry to Chuck Link sandwiched around another score by Green made it 35-28 ASU early in the fourth. Two fourth-quarter scores by the Sun Devils, though, were too much for MU to overcome.

1973 Sun Bowl

Missouri 34, Auburn 17

Sun Bowl — El Paso, Texas

The Missouri Tigers went to the 1973 Sun Bowl eager to erase the memory of three straight losses to end the season which left them 7-4 after a quick start. A rushing total of 295 yards and two TD passes by Ray Smith ensured they would do just that.

Behind a 28-point second quarter, a Missouri bowl record, the Tigers rose to 8-4 with relative ease.

After falling behind 3-0 early in the second quarter, Mizzou scored three straight times and led the rest of the way. Ray Bybee, who ran for 127 yards, scored a second-quarter touchdown which was sandwiched between two touchdown catches by John Kelsey.

A 35-yard strike to Kelsey from Chuck Link, put the Tigers on top for good. Then came a pair of two-yard scores, one a run by Bybee and on a pass from Smith to Kelsey, before Auburn got on the board again. Following an Auburn touchdown, John Moseley took the kickoff 84 yards for the fourth Tiger touchdown of the quarter and gave Mizzou a sizable 28-10 lead at halftime.

The Tigers got only one score in the second half, a 15-yard pass from Smith to Jim Sharp. It was plenty for the Tiger defense, though, which held Auburn to 233 total yards and forced five turnovers.

An offense ranked last in total yardage and next to last in scoring in the Big Eight had racked up 34 points and 390 yards.

1978 Liberty Bowl

Missouri 20, LSU 15

Liberty Bowl — Memphis, Tenn.

The 1978 season, Warren Powers' first at MU, was one of incredible highs and devastating lows for the Tigers. The highs included a 3-0 win over defending national champion Notre Dame, the first time the Irish had been shut out since 1960, a victory over KU and a bowl-clinching win over Nebraska, 35-31.

The lows included a 35-20 loss to Oklahoma State, a 38-20 loss after having then No. 1 Alabama on the ropes and losing a 20-point lead in a home loss to Colorado.

So the 1978 Liberty Bowl was a rewarding end to the Tigers' season. Mizzou won 20-15 over LSU to advance to 8-4 against the nation's toughest schedule, but it was again a game in which Mizzou was up and down.

Missouri was up at halftime, riding a 20-3 lead and on the verge of a blowout victory. MU was slightly down in the second half, scoring no points, but moving the ball well enough and playing enough defense to win.

Sophomore James Wilder led the Tigers in rushing with 115 yards. The Tiger defense nabbed five turnovers (four interceptions and a fumble) to take the spotlight from big names Wilder, Phil Bradley and Kellen Winslow in a game in which MU never trailed.

1979 Hall of Fame Bowl

Missouri 24, South Carolina 14

Legion Field — Birmingham, Ala.

For the second straight year a strong running attack and an explosive second quarter led Missouri to pay-dirt in a bowl game. This time, the South Carolina Gamecocks were the Missouri victim, bowing 24-14 in the 1979 Hall of Fame Bowl. Even 133 yards from Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers was not enough for the Gamecocks to overcome Missouri's 17 second-quarter points.

After falling behind early, 6-0, quarterback Phil Bradley engineered three scoring drives. The first ended in a 22-yard field goal by Ron Verilli. The next two resulted in touchdowns by Bradley, the first a 28-yard pass and the second a one-yard plunge which gave the Tigers a 17-6 halftime edge.

Missouri used just one second-half touchdown to maintain its lead.

After South Carolina closed to 17-14 in the third, Gerry Ellis ran 12 yards for the final tally in the 24-14 triumph. Ellis had 81 yards on 12 carries and James Wilder ran for 95 on 24 attempts. Neither was as individually impressive as Rogers' totals but they combined to knock out the Heisman winner and his teammates. Bradley led an offense which controlled the ball and needed just 72 yards

1980 Liberty Bowl

Purdue 28, Missouri 25

Liberty Bowl — Memphis, Tenn.

An 8-3 Tigers squad earned its second Liberty Bowl berth in three years under Coach Warren Powers following a 31-6 shellacking of Kansas, also the third straight year Mizzou had downed the Jayhawks.

The Tigers started the 1980 season quickly at 6-1, but in the Liberty Bowl it was a slow start which doomed the Tigers and allowed Purdue to walk away with a 28-25 victory. All-America quarterback Mark Hermann started anything but slowly in leading Purdue to a 21-12 halftime lead with three touchdown passes of eight, 43 and five yards.

By the time Missouri had its second first down, the Tigers trailed 14-0. Powers then called a reverse on the ensuing kickoff and Ron Fellows turned it into a 92-yard touchdown. The extra point was no good and the Tigers trailed 14-6. James Wilder scored from a yard out, but when the two-point conversion missed, Mizzou lost its only chance to draw even in the game and trailed 14-12.

After halftime, Hermann threw his last touchdown, his second to Bart Burrell and the Boilermakers were up 28-12. With just under 13 minutes left, Mizzou had a chance to cut the deficit to six with first and goal at the six. Wilder though was stopped on fourth down at the one and the Tigers got no points.

The Tigers managed a 10-point flurry which included a safety and were within 28-25 with 5:05 to play. But the next time Phil Bradley and the offense touched the ball, it was on their own six with 1:16 to play and they could do nothing about it.

The Boilermakers sent the Tigers home at 8-4, thus ruining Mizzou's chance at its first nine-win season in 11 years.

1981 Tangerine Bowl

Missouri 19, Southern Mississippi 17

Tangerine Bowl — Orlando, Fla.

The outcome of the 1981 Tangerine Bowl hinged largely on the leg of one player —Tiger kicker Bob Lucchesi. A sophomore walk-on, he had struggled even with extra points early in the season, but responded brilliantly in the bowl game. He hit an MU and Tangerine Bowl record-tying four field goals to propel Mizzou, 8-4, to a 19-17 win. For his efforts, Lucchesi earned the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player award.

Lucchesi, though, was not Mizzou's only standout. Jeff Gaylord, the game's Most Valuable Player, led a stellar defensive effort. Missouri's defense held Southern Miss quarterback Reggie Collier, the first Division I quarterback to rush and pass for 1,000 yards in the same season, to 70 yards of total offense—16 rushing and 54 passing.

Bobby Meyer, who led all players with 96 yards rushing, scored Missouri's only touchdown, with a three-yard run late in the first quarter. MU led 7-0 and never trailed. After the teams traded field goals, Lucchesi hit from 41 yards in the first half's final seconds for a 13-3 Tiger advantage.

Two more Lucchesi field goals were just enough for Missouri to withstand touchdowns by two of Southern Mississippi's future pro stars — running back Sammy Winder and wide receiver Louis Lipps.

Following Lipps' TD, a 74-yard reception from backup quarterback Davy Sellers, the Golden Eagles trailed just 19-17 with 1:03 to play. But the Tigers' Tony Davis expected the ensuing onside kick and recovered it, killing the Golden Eagle comeback two points short.

1983 Holiday Bowl

BYU 21, Missouri 17

Jack Murphy Stadium — San Diego, Calif.

The 1983 Holiday Bowl was a clash of two conflicting styles. Missouri, led by sophomore fullback Eric Drain and walk-on quarterback Marlon Adler, boasted a tough running game and a feared defense. Brigham Young, on the other hand had highly touted Steve Young at quarterback with 4,216 yards passing and a bag of tricks. In the end, it was the last trick out of the bag which gave BYU a 21-17 victory.

In a see-saw game which saw four lead changes, Missouri held a 17-14 lead and the ball on fourth down at the Cougar 7. The clock showed 3:57 left in the game. Drain, the offensive player of the game with 115 yards rushing and both Mizzou touchdowns, got the call and was stopped short. Still the Cougars had 93 yards to go to win the game.

After defensive player of the game Bobby Bell sacked Young, his fourth sack of the game, on second down, Tiger hopes were high. They went down quickly on the next play, when Young lofted a pass to Mike Eddo for 53 of BYU's 328 passing yards.

The most important yards, though, were yet to come. On fourth and 10 from the MU 25, Young completed a 11-yard strike. Then came the razzle-dazzle.

After throwing for 314 yards in the game, Steve Young suddenly assumed a new role, but one at which he was equally successful. Young became a receiver. As he pitched to halfback Eddie Stinnett, Young went out on a pass pattern. Stinnett floated a pass just over the reach of Missouri's Bell and into Young's waiting arms for the winning touchdown with 23 seconds left.

Despite 314 yards passing from Young, Mizzou contained the Cougar quarterback for most of the game. They sacked him five times and intercepted him three. But in the end, it was Young's pass catching, not throwing, that did in the Tigers.

Mizzou had a chance earlier to pad its lead, but freshman Jon Redd coughed up the ball twice, once at the Cougar three and once at the Tiger 32. The Cougars converted the second fumble into a touchdown to stay within striking distance.

1997 Plymouth Holiday Bowl

Colorado State 35, Missouri 24

Qualcomm Stadium — San Diego, Calif.

The Missouri Tigers dodged deficiencies in their kicking game all season, but when the school's first bowl victory since 1981 was on the line, those problems swung the game's momentum in the direction of the Colorado State Rams.

The 20th Plymouth Holiday Bowl eventually turned on a punt return, a fumbled punt, and a fake field goal that enabled the WAC-champion Rams to win a 35-24 decision.

After all-WAC quarterback Moses Moreno marched CSU to a touchdown on its first possession of the game, the Tigers got it in gear. A 65-yard drive to the CSU 15-yard line, highlighted by a 34-yard run by Corby Jones, culminated in a 32-yard FG by Scott Knickman.

In the second quarter, Missouri took the lead, first converting a fumble recovery by Donnell Jones into a short TD march that led to a four-yard scoring run by Corby Jones, then producing a 75-yard, all-on-the-ground drive that ended with a seven-yard touchdown run by Ernest Blackwell. Along the way, tailback Devin West got outside for a 40-yard gain.

In between the two MU touchdowns, Moreno passed 22 yards to Corey McCoy for a touchdown, but Missouri held a 17-14 halftime lead.

The second half, though, started ominously for MU. Ricky Ross fumbled the kickoff and the Tigers had to begin their first possession at their own 10-yard line. A 22-yard Jones-to-Kent Layman pass seemed to spark the Tigers, but the drive stalled near mid-field. Vince Sebo, who in the first half had kicked a Holiday Bowl-record 61-yard punt, booted the ball away to CSU's Darran Hall.

He took the ball at the 15-yard line, and avoided a tackle by Mizzou's Shad Criss — many thought that Criss was clipped — then sped untouched 85 yards for a back-breaking touchdown.

Just over two minutes later, the Rams padded their lead on a 47-yard Moreno-to-Dallas Davis touchdown pass. That followed a 31-yard run by tailback Damon Washington.

Missouri closed to within 28-24 on its next possession. Jones gained 48 of the drive's 55 yards with a pair of runs, then MU career rushing king Brock Olivo stuck it in the endzone from three yards out.

Seemingly with the momentum back on their side, the Tigers were eager to begin the fourth quarter. MU held the Rams on three downs and were ready to accept a punt.

But Mizzou's Ross fumbled at his own 25-yard line and Ula Tuitele recovered at the 23. Again, the Tiger defense stiffened. Barry Odom stopped Moreno for a loss of two, then a holding penalty shoved the Rams back to the 42-yard line. A 19-yard pass from Moreno to Davis, and an incomplete pass, left Colorado State with a fourth-and-10 situation at the Missouri 23-yard line. Allowing a field goal would be a moral victory for the Tigers who would then trail by only a touchdown with nearly 11 minutes to play.

But CSU Coach Sonny Lubick chose to roll the dice. Holder Ryan Eslinger picked up the snap and ran up the middle 23-yards for a touchdown that surprised everyone. Now trailing 35-24, the Tigers had to discard their running game.

Missouri managed one late drive in the final minutes, but Jones' final pass was intercepted at the 11-yard line and Colorado State ran out the clock.

Colorado State's Hall, a San Diego native playing in front of his hometown fans, was the game's MVP. In addition to his 85-yard punt return, he rushed once for 14 yards, caught four passes for 20 yards, and returned three kickoffs for 79 yards.

The Tigers gained 314 yards on the ground, including 132 from Jones and 104 from West, but their passing game lacked rhythm. A lengthy layoff since their last game (Nov. 15) was a big factor. Jones completed just 7-of-17 passes for 68 yards.

The experience, though, was good for the Tigers, who hadn't been to a bowl game since 1983. Sixteen returning starters for the 1998 campaign left an air of optimism with the Tiger faithful, who turned out strong in San Diego.

And Larry Smith knew what a prime emphasis would be during spring practice — special teams.

1998 Insight.com Bowl

Missouri 34, West Virginia 31

Arizona Stadium — Tucson, Ariz.

West Virginia couldn't quite keep up with the Joneses in the 1998 Insight.com Bowl.

Corby Jones rushed for three touchdowns and Julian Jones intercepted a pass and blocked a punt for a safety as Missouri (8-4; unranked ESPN/USA Today, No. 23 AP) held on to beat the Mountaineers (No. 25 ESPN/USA Today, unranked AP) 34-31.

"There's not much you can say," said Corby Jones, whose father Curtis, a Missouri assistant coach, died of a heart attack in July. "We just did this for my dad and for the team."

Julian Jones, who also had 10 unassisted tackles and a 39-yard free kick return that helped set up a score, was named the game's outstanding player.

"Julian played a fantastic game," Missouri coach Larry Smith said. "There he was thrown into a tough position, and he responded." The sophomore started at cornerback because senior Wade Perkins was suspended for the game for unspecified team rule violations.

"I was sad for Wade because I knew it would have been his last game," Julian Jones said. "I tried to come in and do the things that he would have done for our team, because he is a big-time player."

West Virginia's Marc Bulger completed 34 of 50 passes, both Insight.com Bowl records, for a school-record 429 yards and four second-half touchdowns to bring the Mountaineers back from a 21-point deficit. Bulger's four touchdown passes tied an Insight.com Bowl record. His leading receiver, Sean Foreman, caught an Insight.com record 11 passes for 189 yards.

Bulger's 9-yard scoring pass to Amos Zereoue cut Missouri's lead to 31-24 with 10:27 to play, and his 1-yard touchdown toss to David Saunders made it 34-31 with 2:11 to play.

But Missouri's Dwayne Blakley recovered the onside kick attempt and the Tigers ran out the clock.

West Virginia (8-4) lost its eighth consecutive bowl game, tying South Carolina's NCAA Division I record.

Corby Jones and Devin West, in their final collegiate game, led a 76-yard, 14-play fourth-quarter drive that consumed 6:43 before stalling at the West Virginia 1. Brian Long's 18-yard field goal with 3:44 to go put the Tigers up 34-24. A facemask personal foul penalty kept the drive going.

"That really, really put it to us," said West Virginia coach Don Nehlen, who didn't like the call. "But there's not much I can say. We didn't play very well early. We dug ourselves a hole. We made mistakes, and then the penalties."

West, the No. 5 rusher in Division I-A who was held in check most of the night, pounded West Virginia's defense for 46 yards in 12 carries in the critical drive. He finished with 125 yards in 31 attempts. Zereoue, the nation's No. 6 rusher, managed just 32 yards in 22 carries.

Special teams dominated much of the game. Missouri's Jeff Marriott blocked a field goal attempt and Carlos Posey returned the ball 70 yards for a score, West Virginia's Boo Sensabaugh blocked a punt to set up a Mountaineers' score, then Ricardo Rhodes returned a kickoff 60 yards to set up a Missouri touchdown.

The Tigers, who appeared in their first bowl game in 13 years in 1997, won a postseason game for the first time since the 1981 Tangerine Bowl.

Missouri took a 7-0 lead with 9:17 left in the first quarter when Marriott blocked a field goal try for the second time this season, a 48-yard attempt by West Virginia's Jay Taylor, who had been bothered by a hip injury all year. Posey scooped up the ball near the sidelines and raced untouched for the score.

On West Virginia's second possession, Bulger's pass bounced off wide receiver Khori Ivy's hands and was intercepted by Julian Jones at the Missouri 42. It was the first career interception for Jones.

Missouri led 24-3 at the break and 31-10 with 5:11 left in the third quarter.

2003 MainStay Independence Bowl

Arkansas 27 Missouri 14

Independence Stadium — Shreveport, La.

Cedric Cobbs ran for 141 yards, including a 41-yard touchdown, to help the Razorbacks end a three-game bowl losing streak with a 27-14 victory over Missouri in the Independence Bowl.

Arkansas' defense made two key fourth-and-1 stops, one of them at the goal line, as the Razorbacks won for only the second time in their last 12 bowl games.

"It gets the monkey off our back," Nutt said. "You know what, we won a bowl game and a very good bowl game. We beat a good team, we really did."

Chris Balseiro kicked four short field goals, an Independence Bowl record, as Arkansas (9-4) rebounded from a 31-point loss to LSU in the regular-season finale. Arkansas' 300 yards rushing also was an Independence record.

Backup DeCori Birmingham added 85 yards on 10 carries and quarterback Matt Jones had 74 yards on seven carries.

"We just ran the ball," Jones said. "We knew their rush defense wasn't sophisticated, and that we could run against it."

The Razorbacks likely benefited from a largely pro-Arkansas crowd. That state's border is only 30 miles away, and there were about twice as many Arkansas supporters as there were for Missouri.

Special teams was a problem area for Missouri (8-5), which lost 41 yards to its own 3 after a high snap went over punter Brock Harvey's head - essentially handing the Razorbacks a touchdown. Arkansas' Tom Crowder intercepted a fake field pass by holder and backup quarterback Sonny Riccio on the last play of the first half, and Crowder also blocked a punt in the fourth quarter.

"That's very uncharacteristic of one of my teams," coach Gary Pinkel said. "I'm embarrassed. I take a lot of pride in the product we put out there."

Brad Smith of Missouri had 155 yards passing and 96 yards rushing to set the school career total yardage record in just his second season. He scored on a 5-yard run late in the third quarter to cut the gap to 10 points. But he fell 23 yards short of becoming the first player in NCAA history to pass for 2,000 yards and run for 1,000 in two seasons.

Zack Abron added 137 yards on 19 carries for Missouri, making its first bowl appearance in five years and only the school's third in 20 seasons.

The Tigers had a 407-385 edge in total yardage, but didn't have a lot to show for their 407 total yards.

"I know everybody wanted to win this game," Smith said."I guess we needed a little extra focus and determination to get the job done."

Cobbs set a school record with his seventh 100-yard rushing game this season - the 11th of an injury-plagued career. He's totaled 460 yards in his last three games, and was named the game's offensive MVP.

The only time he was touched on his second-quarter scoring run was when he collided with Jones on the handoff. He ran for 99 yards in the first half to help Arkansas take a 21-7 lead.

"I think this definitely puts a stamp on everything for me that I can run for 100 yards against anybody," Cobbs said."We wanted to go out there and be mistake-free, and we did that."

Missouri was hurt when it came up empty on consecutive 10-play drives, one at the end of the first half and another at the start of the third quarter.

Freshmen Keith Jackson Jr. and Jeremy Harrell stuffed Abron on fourth-and-1 at the Razorbacks 12 with 1:59 left. Then Lerinezo Robinson intercepted a rollout pass from Smith on fourth-and-goal from the 1 as Arkansas preserved its 21-7 lead.

During the regular season, Missouri was 13-for-15 on fourth-and-1. The Tigers also were thwarted on fourth-and-goal from the 8 with about five minutes to go.

"If you make it, it's a great call," Pinkel said. "I think the fake field goal was just what we needed. I don't second-guess myself."

Missouri led 7-6 when Zach Strom's snap sailed high above the head of Harvey and rolled to the Tigers 3. Jones slipped two would-be tacklers on a 1-yard run three plays later, and his conversion pass to George Wilson put the Razorbacks ahead to stay at 14-7.

Arkansas scored on consecutive plays, making it 21-7, as Cobbs scored following a three-and-out for Missouri.

Balseiro was 4-for-4 on field goals, connecting from 33, 28, 25 and 24 yards. Balseiro didn't get the kicking job until the fourth game of the year and finished 11-for-15 on field goal attempts.

2005 Independence Bowl

Missouri 38
South Carolina 31

Independence Stadium — Shreveport, La.

As Brad Smith goes, so goes Missouri, or so the theory goes.

South Carolina knew that and the game plan of keeping Smith in check worked great - but only for awhile, anyway.

Then, the Missouri quarterback broke loose, as he has done so often in his career, rushing for three touchdowns - including a 1-yarder in the final minutes - and passing for another to rally the Tigers for a 38-31 victory over the Gamecocks in the Independence Bowl on Friday.

"It wasn't anything magical," Smith said. "We just played within our system."

Smith, who rushed for 1,151 yards and passed for 2,022 this season, accounted for 431 yards of Missouri's 504 yards as the Tigers staged their biggest comeback win in school history.

Missouri (7-5) trailed 21-0 after the first quarter as Steve Spurrier's Gamecocks dominated the early going. South Carolina (7-5) outgained Missouri 312 yards to 174 in the first half and held the football almost 11 minutes longer (20:02-9:58)

"We knew he was an excellent quarterback," Spurrier said. "We had him hemmed in in the first half, but we weren't good enough to do it the whole game."

The Tigers didn't convert a third-down until the final 58 seconds of the half.

Smith completed 21 of 37 passes for 282 yards, with one touchdown and an interception. He passed for 200 or more yards for the 18th time. He also ran for 150 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries.

"I was trying to make too much," Smith said. "At the end of the second quarter I was able to make something happen and get my timing down."

The Gamecocks needed less than 3 minutes to go 80 yards for their first score. Blake Mitchell's 23-yard pass to Sidney Rice put Carolina up 7-0. Rice finished with 12 receptions for 191 yards.

Tony Temple fumbled on Missouri's first play and South Carolina's Ricardo Hurley scooped up the ball. Four plays later Mike Davis, who ran for 125 yards on 18 carries, scored on a 5-yard run for a 14-0 lead.

The Gamecocks' third scoring drive covered 69 yards in 1:59. This time Mitchell, who completed 20 of 38 passes for 266 yards, hit Carson Askins with a 20-yard scoring pass to make it 21-0. Mitchell passed for two touchdowns, and was intercepted three times.

"Twenty-one-nothing is no safe lead for us," Spurrier said.

Marcus King gave Missouri its first points, grabbing Mitchell's pass at the goal line and returning it 99 yards to make it 21-7 in the second quarter. That was an MU and Independence Bowl record for longest interception return.

After Davis' 2-yard TD run gave the Gamecocks a 28-7 lead, Missouri staged its first long drive of the game. The Tigers went 77 yards and Smith hit Chase Coffman with a 5-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-14 at halftime. Coffman finished with eight catches for 99 yards – both MU single-game bowl records.

On their first drive of the third quarter, Missouri faked a field goal at the Carolina 14. Martin Rucker ran to the 1-yard line, but the Tigers couldn't push it in and Adam Crossett's 22-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right.

Smith pulled Missouri to 28-21 with a 31-yard run with 2:41 left in the third quarter.

Another apparent Missouri touchdown was nullified by a 15-yard tripping penalty. Smith finally got the score on a 4-yard run that tied the score at 28 early in the fourth quarter.

Crossett kicked an MU-record length 50-yard field goal to put the Tigers up 31-28, but Josh Brown countered with a 30 yarder that tied it at 31-all.

Then, with 2:13 remaining, Smith sealed the Missouri win with a 1-yard TD run.

"It shows us no matter where we are or who we play, we can stay with them," Missouri safety David Overstreet said. "We spotted them 21 points. To go out and get the win is great for everyone's confidence."

2006 Sun Bowl

Oregon State 39
Missouri 38

Sun Bowl Stadium — El Paso, Texas

Yvenson Bernard barely pushed into the end zone on a gutsy 2-point conversion run after Joe Newton caught a 14-yard touchdown pass with 22.1 seconds left, and No. 24 Oregon State rallied to beat Missouri 39-38 in the Sun Bowl.

Oregon State coach Mike Riley was set to take his chances in overtime at the Sun Bowl.

Then Missouri called timeout to have Joe Newton's 14-yard touchdown catch with 22.1 seconds to go reviewed, believing he may have bobbled the ball. During that break, Riley decided to go for the win.

Yvenson Bernard barely pushed into the end zone on the gutsy 2-point conversion run, giving the 24th-ranked Beavers a 39-38 victory over the Tigers.

"Like in a card game at the end, we were all-in," Riley said. "We put all of our chips on the table. These guys made it happen."

The Beavers (10-4) trailed by 14 points with 12:08 to go before rallying for their eighth victory in nine games. Bernard's 7-yard reception had cut the gap to seven with 6:02 to go.

Mizzou's Tony Temple had 194 yards, four short of the Sun Bowl record, on 20 carries with two touchdowns and Chase Daniel threw two touchdown passes for Missouri (8-5). The Tigers lost the game despite 561 yards of total offense.

Temple missed setting a Sun Bowl record for rushing, 197 yards by Charles Alexander of LSU in 1977, after losing 4 yards on his final carry.

"A lot of positive things," coach Gary Pinkel said. "Obviously, the locker room is a tough place to be right now."

It was no surprise to Daniel that Oregon State decided to go for broke. He was on the phone with quarterbacks coach Dave Yost talking strategy for what Missouri might do if the Beavers scored.

"It's bowl season, what do you have to lose?" said Daniel, who averaged 20 yards per completion, going 16-for-29 for 330 yards. "I just had a feeling they were going to go for two."

Matt Moore threw four touchdown passes and ran for a fifth for Oregon State, which helped produce the second-highest scoring game in the Sun Bowl's 73-year history. He was 5-for-7 for 55 yards on the winning drive, set up after Sammie Stroughter's 38-yard punt return to the Oregon State 46.

Missouri had seven plays of 29 yards or longer, including Danario Alexander's 74-yard touchdown catch and Temple's 65-yard run. Missouri responded after Newton's first touchdown catch on Oregon State's opening drive of the second half cut the Tigers' lead to 21-17.

Tommy Saunders' 29-yard TD catch from tight end Chase Coffman off a lateral gave the lead back to Missouri and Temple's 65-yard untouched touchdown run seemingly put the Tigers in control at 31-21 with 5:58 in the third.

Missouri was on the other end of a big bowl comeback last year, rallying behind quarterback Brad Smith from a 21-point deficit to beat South Carolina 38-31 in the Independence Bowl.

Moore was 31-for-54 for 356 yards and set a school record of 182 passes without an interception before getting picked off by Brandon Massey in the third quarter. Oregon State retained possession on the play after Massey was stripped.

Oregon State prevailed despite a porous defense that allowed 98 points the last three games. Among Missouri's other big plays were a 40-yard catch by Coffman that led to Temple's 7-yard scoring run on the opening drive. A 47-yard run by Temple was followed by an 18-yard touchdown pass from Daniel to Coffman on the next play for a 38-24 lead with 12:08 left in the game.

2008 Cotton Bowl

Missouri 38
Arkansas 7

Cotton Bowl Stadium — Dallas, Texas

Colorful confetti flip-flopping around him, fans in black and gold chanting his name, Tony Temple and his Missouri teammates were basking in a terrific ending to a magical season.

Only one thing was wrong - the setting. See, this was the Cotton Bowl, not the national championship game they were a win away from reaching, and it wasn't the Orange, Fiesta or Sugar Bowl like they thought they deserved.

Motivated instead of deflated, the guys from the "Show-Me State" did their best to prove they belonged in the BCS by routing Darren McFadden and Arkansas, 38-7.

"We were upset for a couple of days," said Martin Rucker, Missouri's All-American tight end. "We just felt we'd deserved, we'd earned to be in the BCS. But the Cotton Bowl is a great bowl and we were honored to be in it."

Mizzou (12-2) was ranked No. 1 after beating Kansas in the regular season finale, then lost to Oklahoma in the Big 12 title game - then the Jayhawks wound up with an at-large berth into the Orange Bowl.

Coach Gary Pinkel kept his team's spirits up by having them put together a list of reasons why Dallas was a great place to spend New Year's Day. Recruiting and appeasing their largest out-of-state alumni base likely were near the top.

"They found out what a great game the Cotton Bowl is and then embraced it," Pinkel said.

Properly focused, the only thing left for the Tigers was figuring out that No. 25 Arkansas (8-5) had loaded its defense with cornerbacks and safeties to neutralize Missouri's Heisman Trophy finalist quarterback, Chase Daniel.

Temple cracked the code pretty early, finding no linebackers after he broke the line of scrimmage in the first half. He had three carries of 22 yards, a 38-yarder and a 41-yarder as part of his 159 yards and two touchdowns by halftime.

Temple pulled a hamstring in the third quarter and missed several series, but said he was ready to return about the same time Pinkel heard that Temple was close to the record.

He went back for just one play - a spinning, tackle-breaking 40-yard run into the end zone, then rode back to the bench on the arms of Daniel and offensive lineman Tyler Luellen. The lift was part-celebration, part-transportation because Temple tweaked his hamstring around the 5-yard line.

"It was one of the best runs I've ever seen," Daniel said. "That was awesome."

Daniel was 12-of-29 for a season-low 136 yards with an interception. It was his second straight game without a touchdown pass, but he didn't care because handing off to Temple was the way to go. Daniel enjoyed it so much that he expects to be chastised by coaches for turning into a spectator; he stopped pretending to have the ball after handoffs to stand still and watch.

Temple's final run broke the Cotton Bowl rushing record of 265 yards set by Rice's Dicky Maegle in 1954, a performance that's best remembered for him being awarded a touchdown when Alabama's Tommy Lewis came off the bench and tackled him on a breakaway run.

Maegle had three touchdowns in that game, as did Texas' Bobby Layne in 1946 and Syracuse's Jim Brown in 1957.

Now put Temple's name above theirs in the record book.

McFadden ran 21 times for 105 yards and a touchdown, but didn't play the fourth quarter. The Heisman finalist pushed his single-season total to 1,830 yards and his career total to 4,590. Both are school records and second to Herschel Walker in SEC history.

The rest of the Razorbacks made a horrible first impression on incoming coach Bobby Petrino, from the defense allowing the most yards rushing by a single player to having five turnovers - an interception returned for a touchdown and four fumbles.

Freshman kicker Alex Tejada came in perfect on kicks of 40 yards or less, but missed from 35 and 37. In between, a successful fake punt was wiped out because someone called timeout just before the snap; the Razorbacks tried the play again and lost a yard. Then a squib kick to open the second half backfired.

The final offensive play summed things up: Interim coach Reggie Herring ran about 20 yards asking for a time out, but didn't get it and a fourth-down pass was dropped in the end zone.

"The way we played, we couldn't have beat anyone," said Herring, who had been defensive coordinator until Houston Nutt stepped down in late November. "We did everything poorly. I'm embarrassed right now."

Teams with interim coaches are now 0-5 this bowl season, with West Virginia left to go. SEC teams had been 5-0 until Arkansas' loss.

At least the Hogs looked good. They wore all-red uniforms for the first time, a tribute to outgoing program icon Frank Broyles.

Broyles, whose 50-year tenure ended Monday, led Arkansas fans in spirited chants of "Pig! Sooie!" prior to kickoff. That turned out to be one of the few things they had to cheer all afternoon.

2008 Alamo Bowl

Missouri 30
Northwestern 23 (OT)

Alamodome — San Antonio, Texas

Chase Daniel's last game at Missouri ended with a fitting flourish.

The star quarterback threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to Jeremy Maclin in overtime and the Tigers rallied to beat Northwestern 30-23 in the Alamo Bowl.

It was Daniel's first overtime game since leading Missouri to a 27-24 win over Iowa State as a freshman when he took over mid-game following an injury to Brad Smith.

Daniel had played sparingly at the end of a couple of games before that, but never when it counted.

"Never had an overtime game the rest of his career and he ends his career with an overtime win," coach Gary Pinkel said. "Pretty awesome."

After the 25th-ranked Tigers scored on the opening possession of overtime, their defense delivered, too. Missouri sacked a backpedaling C.J. Bacher, forcing a fumble that left Northwestern with fourth-and-goal from the 32-yard line.

Bacher's desperation heave into the end zone was knocked down, and Daniel rushed off the sideline with his teammates to celebrate.

The win gave Missouri (10-4) double-digit victories in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. The No. 22 Wildcats (9-4) fell to 1-6 in bowl games, with their only win coming in their first bowl appearance in 1949.

Playing his final college game, Daniel overcame three interceptions to lead the Tigers back from a three-point deficit in the fourth quarter.

"I've never had something like that," Daniel said. "I was just glad I could help the team in the end. I was obviously hurting the team very bad in the beginning."

Jeff Wolfert made three field goals, including a 37-yarder with 2:49 remaining that tied it 23-all. But he missed a 44-yard attempt that could have won it for Missouri as time expired.

"We were all a little stunned," Pinkel said. "We got it together quickly."

Daniel, who finished fourth in 2007 Heisman Trophy voting, matched a season high with his three interceptions. He was 27-of-44 for 200 yards and two touchdown passes.

"He had the adversity during the game," Pinkel said. "What defines him is he fought back from it with his teammates."

The speedy Maclin, a first-team All-America as an all-purpose player, also returned a punt 75 yards for a score that tied it at 10 in the second quarter.

"He's a special guy," Daniel said. "He's the reason this offense goes."

Bacher threw for 304 yards and equaled an Alamo Bowl record with three touchdown tosses. His 23-yard scoring pass to Ross Lane in the back of the end zone gave Northwestern a 23-20 lead at the end of the third.

The score came after Brad Phillips grabbed an interception and returned it to the 24.

After the Tigers tied it, Northwestern had a chance to drive for a go-ahead score, but Bacher's pass on third-and-3 with less than two minutes remaining fell incomplete.

Wildcats kicker Amado Villarreal missed an extra point in the third quarter that could have made the difference in regulation.

A 43-yard field goal by Wolfert made it 20-16 Missouri with just under four minutes remaining in the third. That score was set up by an interception and 22-yard return by Brock Christopher.

Danario Alexander gave Missouri a 17-16 lead - its first of the game - with about seven minutes remaining in the third quarter on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Daniel.

Bacher found Rasheed Ward for a 46-yard touchdown pass on the first drive of the second half. Villarreal's extra point bounced off the right upright to leave the score at 16-10 Northwestern.

Maclin, who led the NCAA in all-purpose yards, tied it 10-all with his 75-yard punt return for a touchdown just before halftime. He bolted through the first wave of defenders before getting a good block and zooming past punter Stefan Demos, who had an angle on him but tripped.

It was the first punt return TD this season for Maclin.

Things started rough for Daniel when his pass was tipped and intercepted by Brian Peters on Missouri's first drive. Northwestern took advantage of that mistake when Bacher found a wide-open Eric Peterman streaking down the middle of the field for a 35-yard touchdown to put the Wildcats up 7-0 early in the first quarter.

Northwestern got a 21-yard field goal by Villarreal to make it 10-3 in the second.

Daniel's second interception came on an ill-advised throw under heavy pressure from David Arnold in the second quarter. Defensive end Corey Wootton, 6-foot-7, made a diving grab just before the ball would have hit the turf.

Northwestern came away empty, though, when Villarreal's 47-yard field-goal attempt sailed wide left.

Wootton, who also had a sack, appeared to injure his right leg with about four minutes remaining and did not return. Fitzgerald said he did not have an update on his condition.

Missouri's first points came on a 31-yard field goal by Wolfert early in the second quarter.

2009 Texas Bowl

Navy 35
Missouri 13

Reliant Stadium — Houston, Texas

Playing in a school-record fifth-consecutive bowl game, the Missouri Tigers lost their first bowl game since the 2006 Sun Bowl, as they fell to hard-charging Navy, 35-13, in the 2009 Texas Bowl. Even with the defeat, the Tigers – one of the nation's youngest teams – closed the season with a solid 8-5 overall record.

Navy used its patented triple option rushing attack to control the ball and the clock. Quarterback Ricky Dobbs ran for 166 yards and three touchdowns and Navy's defense kept the Tiger offense off-balance just enough to hold them below 30 points for the first time since October.

Dobbs also threw a touchdown pass to Bobby Doyle and Marcus Curry ran for a score as the Midshipmen (10-4) rushed for 385 yards against Missouri's 12th-ranked run defense. Navy won time of possession by nearly 22 minutes and ran 81 offensive plays to only 57 for the Tigers.

Things started in exciting fashion for the Tigers, as QB Blaine Gabbert threw a 58-yard touchdown pass to WR Danario Alexander on Missouri's second play from scrimmage, but the Tigers mustered only 298 yards the rest of the game - largely because they only had the ball for just over 19 minutes.

Alexander, who led the nation in receiving yards coming into the game, took a short pass from Gabbert and outran the Navy defense just 24 seconds into the game. It was Alexander's 14th TD catch of the season and eighth covering more than 50 yards. He ended the game with six receptions for 137 yards and finished the season as the NCAA leader in receiving yardage (137.0 avg.).

MIZZOU BOWL RECAPS

Dobbs broke a 24-yard run on Navy's second possession, diving into the end zone with 2:58 left in the first quarter. It was Dobbs' 25th touchdown run of the year, adding to his NCAA single-season record for a quarterback.

Tigers' defensive end Aldon Smith sacked Dobbs on the first play of the second quarter, setting a Missouri record with sack number 11.5 of the season.

The Midshipmen drove to the Missouri 22 late in the half. Dobbs ran up the middle, but Missouri safety Jasper Simmons forced a fumble just before Dobbs crossed the goal line and the Tigers recovered in the end zone. But the Tigers fumbled the ball right back on the next play, and Dobbs scored on a 12-yard run with 45 seconds left before halftime to make it 14-7.

Gabbert's 36-yard pass to Washington set up Grant Ressel's 31-yard field goal on the last play before the break to make it 14-10.

But Navy had already set the tone for the game, rushing for 216 yards in the first half and holding the ball for more than 21 minutes.

Dobbs' 3-yard touchdown pass to Doyle finished the first drive of the third quarter and put Navy up 21-10.

The Tigers looked to make a charge, and appeared headed for just that, when WR Wes Kemp caught a short pass and got help from several blocks on a 56-yard gain to the Navy 9. The drive stalled there, however, and Ressel kicked another 31-yarder to make it 21-13.

But that's as close as the Tigers would get, as Navy tacked on a pair of rushing touchdowns to close out the game. A pair of Mizzou drives ended inside the Navy 30-yardline in the final quarter to seal the deal.

2010 Insight Bowl

Iowa 27
Missouri 24

Sun Devil Stadium — Tempe, Ariz.

Missouri had its way with a stout Iowa defense most of the night, rolling up 512 yards of total offense, including a school bowl record 434 yards passing by QB Blaine Gabbert. But it was one fateful pass that sent Gabbert and the Tigers from the edge of victory to the agony of a 27-24 defeat.

After a slow start put the Tigers in a 17-3 deficit midway through the second quarter, Gabbert caught fire and his 7-yard touchdown run, followed by a 3-yard TD pass to All-American TE Michael Egnew on consecutive drives in the third quarter had Mizzou on top, 24-20.

After a diving interception by safety Jarrell Harrison, Gabbert quickly had the Tigers driving for a game-clinching score. In control, with a 1st-and-10 at the Hawkeye 29-yardline with less than six minutes left, Gabbert rolled to his left to avoid pressure in the pocket, and lofted a pass to the left sideline, where he intended the ball for WR Wes Kemp.

Kemp, however, had begun to turn upfield to provide a block for what he though was a pass-turned scramble, and that meant Iowa DB Micah Hyde was in position to snag the ball. He did just that, at the Iowa 28, and after seemingly running through the entire Mizzou offense in a long, weaving return that took him all the way across the field, and then down the far sideline, Hyde went 72 yards for a score with 5:32 left to give Iowa a 27-24 lead.

Despite the kick to the gut, the Tigers weren't done, as Gabbert led another promising drive inside Iowa territory. But it came down to a 4th-and-6 attempt at the Hawkeye 43-yardline to keep hope alive. Gabbert threw to WR T.J. Moe, who made a beautiful diving catch near the Tiger sideline for what was ruled on the field as a catch and first down. However, before Mizzou could make the next snap, replay officials stopped the game and reviewed the play, eventually overturning the call in controversial fashion. Iowa got the ball back and burned the clock to claim the thrilling 27-24 win.

The Tigers ended their season at 10-3, and the loss was a bitter pill to swallow. Gabbert finished 41 for 57 to set two more school records, but regretted that ill-fated pass to Hyde.

"I just got greedy," Gabbert said. "I forced it."

The loss spoiled a huge night by Moe, who finished with an Insight Bowl record 15 receptions for 152 yards for the Tigers.

"I'm very disappointed," Missouri coach Gary Pinkel said. "It is very difficult in the locker room with kids that you love and you have been through so much this year and you come out of a tough, close game and a loss."

Iowa freshman RB Marcus Coker ran for 219 yards and two touchdowns on 33 carries to spur the Hawkeyes. Included in that was a 62-yard touchdown run in the second quarter - Iowa's longest of the season - that put the Hawkeyes up 14-3. He had 113 yards on 16 carries in the first half.

Gabbert was doing what he does best going the other way, picking apart Iowa's defense with short and intermediate throws. He was 23 for 31 for 284 yards in the first half, setting up a 23-yard field goal by Grant Ressel in the first quarter and Henry Josey's 10-yard touchdown run that made it 17-10 in the second.

Gabbert had the Tigers moving again late in the half, but the drive ended when Brett Greenwood picked off a deflected pass in the end zone.

Coker and Gabbert continued to counterpunch in the second half.

Coker ran over Missouri linebacker Jarrell Harrison on a 35-yard run early in the third quarter, setting up Mike Meyer's second field goal, from 21 yards.

Gabbert kept winging passes all through Iowa's defense. He set up his 7-yard touchdown run, then followed the first of two interceptions thrown by Stanzi, who had four in 324 attempts in the regular season, by hitting tight end Michael Egnew on a 3-yard TD pass that put the Tigers up 24-20 heading into the fourth quarter.

2011 Independence Bowl

North Carolina 24

Independence Stadium — Shreveport, La.

James Franklin's hard running and timely passing led Missouri to an easy win in its final game as a member of the Big 12. It also gives the Tigers plenty of hope heading into their new home in the Southeastern Conference.

Franklin ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, and the Tigers easily beat North Carolina 41-24 in the Independence Bowl.

Missouri (8-5) ends the season on a four-game winning streak for the first time since 1965. The Tigers will join the SEC next fall and showed one reason they should be a factor immediately: The 6-foot-2, 225-pound Franklin, a sophomore who generally did as he pleased in both the running and passing games.

Missouri coach Gary Pinkel said Franklin has just started to realize his potential.

"After the game, I gave him a hug and said congratulations," Pinkel said. "Then I went back and asked `What happens when you get really good?' ... He kind of gave me a look, but that's a huge compliment."

Franklin, named the game's offensive Most Valuable Player, rushed for 142 yards and threw for 132 despite less than ideal conditions in the cold and rain at Independence Stadium. He led the Tigers to 31 first-half points - an Independence Bowl record.

For North Carolina (7-6), a season that started with a promising 5-1 record ends with a lopsided loss. The Tar Heels lost five of their final seven under interim coach Everett Withers, who leaves to become defensive coordinator at Ohio State under Urban Meyer.

North Carolina had the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-best rushing defense, giving up just 106.2 yards per game. But the Tigers found plenty of running room with Franklin and Kendial Lawrence, repeatedly gashing the Tar Heels for big gains.

"(Frankin) is just such a dynamic guy running and throwing that you have to respect both," Withers said. "I always count the quarterback as an extra running back in the spread and that's exactly what he was."

Lawrence rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tigers racked up 337 yards on the ground.

North Carolina's poor defense wasted a productive game by quarterback Bryn Renner, who threw for 317 yards, three touchdowns and an interception. But Renner couldn't offset the Tar Heels' anemic running game, which produced just 36 yards.

Freshman running back Giovani Bernard rushed for 31 yards - more than 70 yards less than his season average.

Withers said he didn't think the program's upcoming coaching change had any bearing on the outcome. The Tar Heels hired Southern Mississippi's Larry Fedora last week.

"We've had issues for two years so I don't know why tonight would be any distraction," Withers said.

Pinkel didn't shy away from the importance of the game, saying the result would be "a trivia question after I'm long gone."

North Carolina scored first, with Renner hitting Dwight Jones for a 22-yard touchdown pass with 12:12 left in the first quarter. That would be the high point for the Tar Heels.

Missouri responded with a 40-yard touchdown pass from receiver T.J. Moe to Wes Kemp after a lateral from Franklin. Moe hadn't thrown a touchdown pass since his days as a high school quarterback in suburban St. Louis, and it was just his second complete pass of the season.

"I saw the corner bite and I just let her go," Moe said.

The Tigers scored again on Franklin's 2-yard run to take a 14-7 lead late in the first quarter. The touchdown was set up by Franklin's 16-yard pass to L'Damian Washington that put the Tigers at the 2-yard line. Washington grew up in Shreveport, just a few miles from Independence Stadium.

And Missouri just kept piling on.

The Tigers scored two touchdowns and a field goal during the second quarter to take a 31-10 halftime lead.

North Carolina had a glimmer of hope late in the third when Jheranie Boyd caught a 44-yard touchdown pass from Renner to pull the Tar Heels to 34-17, but Missouri responded minutes later with Franklin's second touchdown run and the rout continued.

MIZZOU BOWL RECAPS

2014 AT&T Cotton Bowl

Missouri 41

Oklahoma State 31

AT&T Stadium — Arlington, Texas

ARLINGTON, Texas – Missouri got the big plays it needed at the end of the Cotton Bowl to beat an old rival.

Henry Josey ran for 92 yards and three touchdowns, the last a 16-yarder with 3:08 left, and Shane Ray returned a fumble 73 yards for a touchdown in the closing minute, and the No. 9 Tigers beat No. 13 Oklahoma State, 41-31, to win the 78th AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic.

The former Big 12 and Big Eight rivals traded points on six consecutive possessions in the fourth quarter, until Oklahoma State quarterback Clint Chelf was sacked and fumbled with a minute left. Ray picked up the ball and rumbled 73 yards down the sideline in front of the stunned Cowboys bench to score.

"All the drama you don't want as a coach in the fourth quarter," Mizzou coach Gary Pinkel said. "We had a lot of adversity, and our team handled the adversity well and made the plays we needed to win. I wanted that trophy really bad, wanted it bad for them."

SEC East champion Missouri (12-2) matched its school record for victories, giving the SEC its 10th win in the last 11 Cotton Bowls, all against the Big 12. The only win by the Big 12 in that stretch? That came in 2008 when Mizzou, as part of the Big 12, downed Arkansas of the SEC.

Josey's go-ahead TD came a play after James Franklin's 27-yard pass to Dorial Green-Beckham to convert third-and-9.

Ray had been dragged into the end zone by Desmond Roland when the Oklahoma State running back bulled through the line for a 2-yard TD run with 5 minutes left to give the Cowboys their only lead of the night. Ray hit him immediately at the line, but couldn't keep Roland from scoring.

Chelf threw for 381 yards and two touchdowns with two interceptions, completing 33 of 57 passes. He also ran 10 times for 48 yards, including a 23-yard run to convert third-and-10 only a few plays before he was sacked by All-SEC defensive end Michael Sam sacked Chelf and knocked the ball loose.

That gave Sam 11 1/2 sacks, the most in the SEC and matching a school record set by Aldon Smith in 2009.

"What a great way to finish the season," said Pinkel, whose 102nd victory in his 13th season snapped a tie with Don Faurot for the most in school history.

With the game tied, Franklin appeared to throw his second interception with 9 minutes left. But with Tyler Patmon running 40 yards to the end zone for an apparent go-ahead touchdown, a flag was thrown for pass interference and Mizzou kept the ball. The Tigers settled for Andrew Baggett's 46-yard field goal.

"I felt as if both guys were competing for the ball," Cowboys linebacker Shaun Lewis said. "It's unfortunate. That play would have turned the game."

Oklahoma State coach Mike Gundy said he was told only that Patmon interfered and didn't really get an explanation about the penalty from the referees.

"I didn't see it. I just saw two guys competing for the ball," Gundy said.

Oklahoma State (10-3) then went 75 yards for its only lead, the longest play on the drive being when Tracy Moore was fully extended and lunging forward when he caught a 41-yard pass to the Tigers 28.

"It's hard on our team," Gundy said. "That's a very, very disappointed locker room right now."

The Cowboys were trying to win 11 games for the third time in four seasons. Before Mike Gundy became the coach in 2005, the Cowboys had never won 11 games.

Oklahoma State trailed17-7 at halftime before getting even after the two fumbles by Franklin.

That sequence actually began when Cowboys quarterback Clint Chelf was picked off by Braylon Webb. But Mizzou gave the ball back on the next play when Franklin fumbled on a botched handoff, with James Castleman recovered at the Tigers 33.

Chelf threw a 21-yard TD pass to Jhajuan Seales with 2:10 left in the third quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter, Franklin's pitch was well behind Josey, and recovered by Daytawion Lowe at the Tigers 11. Oklahoma State had to settle for a tying 32-yard field goal by Ben Grogan, making up for an earlier miss.

Grogan had a 34-yard field goal attempt ricochet off the top of the right upright early in the second quarter.

Missouri backup quarterback Maty Mauk, who filled in for Franklin when he was hurt, then trotted on the field with the Tigers offense for the first time. The freshman accounted for 105 yards on the drive, including runs of 35 and 34 yards before a 24-yard TD pass to Marcus Lucas.

2015 Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl

Missouri 33

Minnesota 17

Orlando Citrus Bowl — Orlando, Fla.

Markus Golden earned MVP honors, and the tandem of Marcus Murphy and Russell Hansbrough helped the Tigers to an impressive 337 on the ground, as No. 16 Missouri won its second-straight January bowl with a 33-17 win over No. 20 Minnesota in the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl.

Murphy ran for 157 yards,Hansbrough added 114 and a touchdown and Mizzou (11-3) secured its third 11-win season in the last eight years, and fourth time ever.

Minnesota (8-5) pulled within two with fewer than two minutes left in the third quarter, but the Tigers pulled away on Hansbrough's 78-yard touchdown run andMaty Mauk's 7-yard scoring pass toBud Sasser. That grab gave the senior 1,003 yards on the season, to give Mizzou its first 1,000-yard receiver since T.J. Moe in 2010. In addition, Hansbrough finished the year with 1,084 on the ground.

The Tigers had fun with their playcalling, as defensive tackle Harold Brantley converted a first down for the second time this year on a fake punt. In addition, Ian Simon recovered a perfectly placed onside kick from Andrew Baggett to open the second half. Baggett's 33-yard field goal gave Mizzou a 13-7 lead.

The Golden Gophers responded on the ensuing series with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Leidner to tight endMaxx Williams. In a move that harkened back to the Chase Coffman era for Mizzou fans, Williams leaped over cornerbackAarion Pentonand stepped over another defender before diving into the end zone.

MIZZOU BOWL RECAPS

But Missouri quickly answered, needing just three plays after a muffed Minnesota punt for Mauk to give the Tigers a 19-14 lead on an 18-yard touchdown run.

It tightened to 19-17 by the start of in the fourth quarter before Hansbrough got free and rumbled for his score that put the Tigers' up by nine with 9:28 to play.

The Tigers won their third straight bowl and extended the SEC's winning streak in the Citrus Bowl to five.

"I'm very proud of our team," Missouri head coach Gary Pinkel said. "We battled. A lot of the struggles we had today was because they are a good football team. Everything didn't work out like we wanted it too but we made plays on offense, we made plays on defense especially in the fourth quarter."

Defensive end Markus Golden was named game MVP for a performance that let the Missouri defense: 10 tackles including four for a loss and 1.5 sacks, three QB hurries and a forced fumble. In a game full of turnovers and lead changes, Golden and the Tigers D stepped up to hold the Gophers scoreless in the fourth quarter and secure the win.

Tiger QB Maty Mauk rebounded from a difficult start to the game, when in the closing minute of the first half he connected with Bud Sasser on a 25-yard touchdown to give the Tigers a 10-7 lead going into halftime.

"I have no idea how he made that catch," Pinkel said.

But that wasn't the highlight of the half for Missouri. On their first drive of the second quarter the Tigers faced a fourth down on their own 17-yard line. Instead of punting it away like everyone expected, the Tigers faked the punt and defensive tackle Harold Brantley ran the ball 19 yards for the first down.

"I'm always in my coaches ears begging for the ball," Brantley said. "Anytime I get the ball in my hands it feels amazing."

Missouri's rushing game provided the big plays in the second half. Russell Hansbrough broke a 78-yard run for a touchdown, tying a bowl record for longest run and longest scoring run. His backfield partner Marcus Murphy added a 68-yard run of his own; his 13.1 yards per rush average set a new bowl record. Together, Hansbrough, Murphy and Mauk combined for 336 yards and two touchdowns on the ground.

The bowl victory gives Missouri 23 wins in the last two years, a school record for wins in a two-year span. The Tigers also sent defensive coordinator Dave Steckel out with a win in his final game. Steckel will leave the Tigers after 14 seasons to become the head coach at Missouri State.

The Tigers take home the redesigned George L. Stuart Sr. trophy, which now features a bowl of Florida citrus at the top and a special time capsule compartment in the middle. Teams can place iconic keepsakes from their bowl trip in the capsule to personalize it.

"I would put in a little plastic Shamu," linebacker Michael Scherer said. "I tell you what, that Shamu show was probably one of the coolest things I've ever seen in my life."

However, Brantley said he wanted to remember his coach.

"I would have to put in our takeaway card that coach Steckel gave us," Brantley said. "Our defense has played so hard and fought every single game this year and with coach Steck leaving his emphasis from the beginning has been 'takeaways equal victory' and it's more fitting."
